Harry Belafonte Is Single Again on 30th Birthday; Julie to Wed; First Lady Shows Off Mansion Ills

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Singer Harry Belafonte is 30 today—and single again.

His wife Frances divorced him yesterday. Belafonte, who is singing at a Las Vegas hotel, did not appear in court. The charge given was mental cruelty, but the court proceedings were private and the records of the case were sealed. Mrs. Belafonte was given custody of their two children, Adrienne, 7, and Shari Lynn, 2. The Belafontes were married in New York City June 18, 1948.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Members of the legislature, who usually see only the outside of the executive mansion, have learned some of the disadvantages of living inside.

Mrs. Hovah Underwood, the state's new First Lady, gave 25 members of the House of Delegates a tour of the mansion and she pointed out: leaky plumbing, sagging floors, unpredictable heating, peeling wallpaper, leaky ceiling, cracked walls, pocked and scratched furniture, chipped dishes, stubborn doors that don't stay closed, and chairs with drooping springs.

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP) — Dr. Edward Williams, 45, a Negro physician at this west Michigan city, is a patient in a tuberculosis sanatorium. But little will change for his patients and his income. About 80 doctors here, most of them white, are taking over the Negro physician's practice. And the fees will go to Dr. Williams.

HONOLULU (AP) — Gardner A. Dailey, architect of two Waikiki Beach hotels—the Surfside and Princess Kaiulani—arrived from the mainland and couldn't find a room. He moved in with friends.

Farm Prices Drop 2 Pct. In 30 Days

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department reported Thursday that farm product prices declined 2 per cent between mid-January and mid-February.

Price setbacks for hogs, tomatoes, lettuce, dairy products and potatoes more than offset slight increases for oranges, chickens, and some commercial vegetables. The mid-February price level was about 3 per cent higher, however, than a year earlier but was still about 27 per cent below the record for February set in 1951. Prices paid by farmers for goods and services used in both living and in production increased nearly 1 per cent during the month to increase the cost-price squeeze on producers. The department said prices of food, livestock bought for fattening purposes, and motor supplies contributed most of the increase in the level of prices paid by farmers.

Slayer Pays Life After 7 Death Stays

OSHSING, N.Y. (AP) — Leonardo Salemi, 46, died in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison last night after three years and eight months in the death house during which his electrocution was postponed seven times.

He denied until the end that he was guilty of the fatal shooting of Walter Forelza in a Manhattan barroom in 1952. Appeals were argued up to the U.S. Supreme Court. Authorities said the two men feuded over the narcotics racket. The Rev. Thomas J. Donovan, Roman Catholic prison chaplain, accompanied Salemi to the electric chair.

DOROTHY DIX COLUMN

Soldier's Illegitimate Child Is His First Responsibility

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Lewis and I met last summer. He's been in service the last few months and we have corresponded regularly. He's coming home on leave soon, says he got into trouble, and a girl who lives near his base is now the mother of his child. He sends her $10 a month, so doesn't have much left. Do you think I should marry him under these circumstances? I'm 19 and he's 21.

DEAR PEARL: What do you want out of marriage, anyway? A wedding ring? You can buy one at the 5 & 10. But if you want a considerate, responsible husband, look elsewhere, girlie. Would you like to be left in roughly the same situation as the mother of Lewis' child? Well, that's about all you can hope for. Young Lewis has already racked up quite a bit of obligation. The best thing you can do, and it will be a good deed that will pay off a thousandfold, is to have him return to the girl and fulfill his responsibility. As for yourself, wait for marriage until you've matured a bit more.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: After eight months of going steady, my boy friend and I broke up. We both dated others. Last night he called for the first time since we parted. He wants to make up, I like him, but prefer the fun I've been having to steady dating. What should I do? DEAR RENESE: Tell the boy that you realize how much you've missed by going steady and that you think it unwise to resume your friendship on the old basis. If he's willing to go along as one of the gang, you'll be very happy to have him for a friend.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I'm 17 and fairly attractive, but I've never had many dates. This doesn't particularly bother me at this time. However, it does seem to bother some of our noisy neighbors. Recently one of them, a 15-year-old girl, took it upon herself to give my telephone number to a couple of boys. I was very annoyed. Am I a tease, or is this the thing to do? DEAR HESTER: Your meddling neighbor was overstepping the bounds of good taste and judgment. You certainly were not a prude in object.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Marshall and I have been friends for several months. He assured me he didn't have a girl friend, but now admits he did have, and that I acquired him on the rebound. He says he still doesn't know which of us he prefers. He's the first boy I ever loved. DEAR SHARON: The gal on the scene usually has the inside track. While Marshall is making up his mind, entice him with every charm you have. He's teetering already; a little jolt in the right direction should make him yours.

KEEPING IN TOUCH

That mail-box on the city corner . . . that post office at the country crossroads . . . what would we do without them? Life is too complex for us to live by ourselves. Man's interests and his welfare reach far beyond the boundaries of his community. Communication with people and corporations hundreds of miles away is a part of modern living that we take for granted. We have to "keep in touch."

But long before life became so complex, men discovered their need for another kind of communication—prayer. The courage and faith and hope which steel men for the challenge of each day come from God. The deep spiritual needs of the soul can be supplied only by keeping in touch with God.

We think our mail-boxes are indispensable! Even so, one church means more to a community than all its postal facilities. For not so long ago men lived very happily without a postal system. But men have never lived happily without God!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
