

Ann G. Todd Plans Recital

From Cincinnati comes interesting news about Ann Gibbens Todd (Mrs. James R.) of Salem. She is to be presented in her graduate piano recital by the College-Conservatory of Music of Cincinnati on Monday night, March 11, at 8:30 o'clock in Concert hall there.

Mrs. Todd was awarded a scholarship by the Rotary club of Salem, Oregon, for study at Willamette university where she studied piano for two years with Ralph Dobbs. Subsequently, she was granted a scholarship for four years of study at the College-Conservatory of Music of Cincinnati where she has been studying piano with Jean Takacs and was granted her bachelor of music degree in 1954. For her graduate study this year at the Cincinnati music school she has been granted a full tuition scholarship by the First Marine Division association, Washington, D.C.

During her years of study in Cincinnati Mrs. Todd has appeared in numerous concerts and recitals. She was piano accompanist for "Musical Moments," a weekly television show over WKRC-TV, Cincinnati, and accompanist for the Cincinnati Jewish Art and Cultural society. During this, the final year of her graduate study, Mrs. Todd is on a teaching fellowship in theory at the College-Conservatory of Music.

The pianist is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, national musical fraternity; Pi Beta Phi, national social sorority, and Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic honorary society.

Mrs. Todd plans to return with her young son to her home in Salem this coming June.

Plan Benefit—Big event in Woodburn the first of the week will be the style show, a benefit, planned by the P-TA there. The show will be at 8 p.m. next Tuesday, March 5, in St. Luke's hall. "Family Fashions for Spring" is the theme of the event. Meier & Frank's-Salem to present the fashions. On the committee arranging the show is the trio above, left to right: Mrs. Ed Gorman, Mrs. Richard Pargeter, Mrs. Pat DeJardin. (Picture by Des)

State Meet Is Planned

Further plans for the state spring board meeting for Lions club auxiliaries, to be in Salem on April 2, were discussed at a meeting of representatives of the six local auxiliaries, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Milner M. Mead. Mrs. John K. Coomler was co-hostess. The Salem members are to be hostesses for the board meeting.

Everett Wilcox, superintendent of the State School for the Blind, is to present a group of the school students at the board meeting to demonstrate work taught at the school and to give a musical program.

The next planning session for the auxiliaries will be on March 28 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Mead again with Mrs. Clyde Hoover assisting.

Attending the planning event Thursday were Mrs. Rudolph Schenk, McMinnville, state publicity chairman; Mrs. Burton Dunn, Salem downtown auxiliary, state president; Mrs. Virgil Pade, East Salem, state secretary; Mrs. Neis Johnson and Mrs. Clayton Jones, South Salem; Mrs. Dean Tucker and Mrs. Dale Taylor, West Salem; Mrs. Harold Gillespie, Mrs. Otto Engdahl, and Mrs. Cecil Lanz, Hollywood auxiliary; Mrs. Donald L. Barrick and Mrs. Ben L. Gifford, East Salem; Mrs. Mead and Mrs. Clyde Hoover, downtown group; Mrs. John K. Coomler, Mrs. Stanley F. Watson, Keizer auxiliary.
