

Miss Sears Is Bride

LEBANON (Special)—The marriage of Miss Carolin Sears to Nelson Ames was solemnized in a setting of spring flowers and candlelight Sunday afternoon at the Church of God. The Rev. William E. Elder read the double ring service.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle B. Sears and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ames. Both families are of Lebanon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore nylon net over white taffeta with mother-of-pearl-trimmed lace neckline. The fingertip veil of tulle was fastened with a small lace cap trimmed with sequins. She carried white carnations and pink rosebuds tied with white ribbons.

Miss Madalin Sears was maid of honor for her sister. She wore white nylon over pink taffeta and carried a nosegay bouquet of pink carnations.

Arland Keeton was best man. Ushers were Leslie and Lowell Ufford, uncles of the bride.

Miss Ina Jean Chism, wearing white net over white taffeta with pink wristlet corsage, lighted the candles.

The wedding music was played by Miss Carol Adkins.

At the reception after the ceremony, Mrs. Nellie Sears and Mrs. Clint Ufford, both grandmothers of the bride, poured. Mrs. Aaron Schalk and Mrs. Irvin Stoering, aunts of the bride, cut the cake. Miss Cloe Ames, sister of the bridegroom, had the guest book and Miss Janet Stoering, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the gifts.

For her wedding trip to the coast, the bride wore a tweed suit with pink carnation corsage.

The couple is at home at 170 1/2 East Oak street.

A Dior Number—Christian Dior presents "Ardente" (passionate) in red and bordeaux warp-printed taffeta. It is in two lengths with a train caught up at the lengthened hemline. The bodice is draped and caught with bows. The creation was presented in Paris. (AP Wirephoto)

College Ball Set For Friday Night

MOUNT ANGEL (Special)—"Holland Holiday" will be the theme in decorations when the students of Mount Angel Women's college stage their annual spring formal dance at the college, this Friday evening.

Dutch shoes and beds of tulips will line walls in the ballroom to carry out the dance theme and the bids also bore appropriate symbols.

A queen to reign over the "Holland Holiday" festivities will be chosen during the intermission. Five princesses have been selected by the collegians for this honor.

Princesses are Miss Carol Eder, Gervais; Miss Helen Kohler, Tacoma, Wash.; Miss Margaret Bergin, San Anselmo, Calif.; Miss Pat Hostetter, Canby; and Miss Marianne Henry, Lapwai, Idaho. Stubby Mills and his orchestra will provide the music for the dance.

Committee chairmen are Misses Rose Marie Fennimore, Ida Singler, Carol Wachter, Agnes Peck, and Julie Rostvold. Miss Sandra Bounds of Ordance is general chairman.

Chaperones for the dance will
