

Jaycees Name Herinckx Top Young Farmer

THE DALLES (AP)—A Cornelius man who turned an unproductive grain farm into a thriving enterprise, a dairy farmer and a blind rancher have been named Oregon's outstanding young farmers of 1957 by the state Junior Chamber of Commerce.

First place went to Charles Herinckx, who turned the grain farm into the forage-dairy operation that last year won him Oregon Grassman of the Year honors. He also runs a top Hereford herd on his 236-acre spread.

Robert R. Anderson, 33, Junction City, won second place with his dairy operation of 57 cows on 60 acres. He has tripled his yield by using green chopped feed.

Third place was given Donald H. Coc, 31, who runs 2,200 Herefords near Milton-Freewater, despite being blind for a year after being kicked by a horse.

As the Jaycees wound up their spring board meeting here Saturday night, they also named Springfield Mayor Ed Harms Jr., their outstanding young man of Oregon.

Herinckx will have an expense-paid trip to Durham, N.C., April 15-16 to compete for the national young farmer title.

Wyatt Denies He Will Quit at Once

ASTORIA (AP)—Republican state Chairman Wendell Wyatt, Astoria attorney, said that rumors current Saturday in Salem that he will resign immediately are not correct.

Last month Wyatt said he would quit in the near future to devote more time to his law practice.

But, he said Saturday, he does not plan to make the change right away.

Chapter Meets

WOODBURN (Special)—Mrs. Gerald Smith was hostess at her home last week for the meeting of Chapter J of the P.E.O. Sisterhood.

Mrs. Glen Schwene presented "Five Minutes with the Record," taking for her topic "Conflicts of Today." Mrs. John Carson gave a travel talk and showed pictures she had taken on a trip to various places in the northwest.

Mrs. Smith was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Walter Scarborough, Sr.

The next meeting will be March 14 at the home of Mrs. Harry Van Ardale, which will be the annual election and installation of officers. Mrs. Fred Odgers will present "Five Minutes with the Record."

MONMOUTH (Special)—Attending the winter board meeting of the third district of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs were Miss Emma Henke, public education chairman, and Mrs. Melford Nelson, president. The meeting was held at the Overlook community center in Portland.

BRUSH COLLEGE (Special)—Miss Arlene Sholseth left for Seattle with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sholseth of Brush College, last week to embark on the S.S. India Mail enroute to Japan. She will be wed to Obadiah Richman, Jr., who is with the United States navy. They will make their home in Japan for a year, while he completes his tour of duty with the navy.

WILLAMINA (Special)—The Theta Rho club met last week. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Luney of Lake Grove, chairman and a member of the Theta Rho club's advisory board. Mrs. Luney, secretary of the board, made an official visit to the club.

Plans for March include attending the Christian church one Sunday, bowing in McMinnville March 13, a visit to the IOOF home in Portland on March 30, and a slumber party at the home of Carolyn Hamay on April 20.

Following the meeting, the Rebekahs served refreshments in the group with tables decorated in observance of George Washington's birthday.

MONMOUTH (Special)—The Social Hour club met with Mrs. R. E. Liguallen last week with Mrs. D. B. Stamm as co-hostess. Miss Louise Woodruff presented an illustrated talk on "Trees." Mrs. Robert Livingston was a guest.

HUBBARD (Special)—Mrs. Melford Nelson of Independence, third district president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will be the guest speaker at the March 6 meeting of the Hubbard Women's club at the home of Mrs. Loretta Sult at 2 p.m. The Woodburn Woman's club has been invited to attend the meeting.

Ready for Wedding, Mumps and All

KANSAS CITY—Miss Judy Kraft, 21, checks the neck of her husband-to-be, Don Schanker, 23, who has the mumps. They'll be married today, despite the mumps. His wedding suit will be pajamas and robe and the only members of the wedding party will be those immune to the mumps—with possible exception of the bride. She's been visiting Schanker's bedside every evening this week, and she doesn't know whether she's ever had the mumps. "By the time I'm all right, she may come down with them," said Schanker. ## 'Hostile Criticism' Mounting in Soviet

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

The Soviet press condemns "hostile criticism" so often these days that it's clear a lot of it is being voiced in Russia.

Soviet citizens are apparently speaking their minds on a lot of things, and the Communist party is worried about some of the statements.

Death Claims Capt. Browne

PORTLAND (AP)—Police Capt. William D. Browne, whose attempts to root out suspected Communists often tangled him in controversies, died Sunday at the age of 60.

A heart condition and leukemia took his life. His illness had forced him to retire from the force last month.

Browne's anti-Red campaigns carried over into his work in the American Legion, and he was prominent in that organization's anti-subversives committees.

A native of Spokane, he began police work there as a sheriff's deputy in 1920. Four years later he became a patrolman here. He rose through the ranks and became chief of detectives in 1949.

Browne served in the Army in both world wars.

Surviving are the widow, two stepsons and a brother, Denby Browne, Vancouver, Wash.

Police Grab 2 In Gun Battle At The Dalles

THE DALLES (UP)—A running gun battle with The Dalles police led to the capture and arrest of two Empire, Ore., men Saturday on charges of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

Police identified the pair as Ernest LeRoy Smith, 19, and Cecil Roger Oakes, 21.

Police Lt. Robert Brower said he noticed the men in a car moving slowly through a downtown street and pulled along side them in a patrol car to investigate. He said Smith opened fire with a P-38 German pistol, pumping five shots at the police vehicle. Brower returned the fire and gave chase.

At the east edge of town, the Empire men crashed off the road and ran into the brush. City patrolman Roy Ford who was with Brower went up the highway on foot, posing as a hitchhiker. He took Smith into custody a short time later when he came out of the brush onto the highway.

City police and state officers, meantime, chased Oakes into the railroad yards at the city limits and captured him.

Tugboat Strikers Again Reject Pact

NEW YORK (AP)—Striking crewmen of 400 harbor craft have rejected again a proposed six-year contract aimed at settling the Port of New York's maritime strike. The walkout now is in its 32nd day.

Four thousand members of local 333 of the United Marine Division of the National Maritime Union are on strike against the Marine Towing and Transportation Employers Assn.

Brenda Kelly and Sales Exec Marry

EAST HARWICH, Mass. (AP)—Brenda Frazier Kelly, 36, considered New York's most glamorous debutante of the late 1930s, was married Sunday to Robert Chaffin-Taylor, 48, a New York sales executive.

The marriage, the second for both, was at the bride's 14-room Cape Cod home overlooking Pleasant Bay.

Brenda and her first husband, John (Shipwreck) Kelly, were divorced in Florida last April.

NEEDED: ANOTHER REFORMER

STEINAU, Germany (UP)—Five years ago, village officials fired a dishonest municipal cashier. His replacement reformed the town's bookkeeping system, with a view toward averting future skulduggery. Today, the "reformer" was arrested on suspicion of embezzling $2,000.

Bribe-Charged Solon Resigns

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—State Rep. James E. Cox's attorney, Bob Looney of Austin, advised the accused representative Monday to withdraw his resignation, and, as Looney termed it, "return to his seat in the House and fight."

Cox, indicted on a charge of agreeing to accept a $5,000 bribe to kill a medical bill, submitted his resignation Sunday. But there was a question whether it would be immediately accepted by Gov. Price Daniel.

Acceptance of the resignation could halt a House investigation of the case.

Daniel said Monday morning he has not decided what he will do about the proffered resignation.

Death Courts Go on

VIENNA (AP)—Hungary's Communist government declared today that its summary courts will continue giving death and prison sentences to anti-Communists "until order has been restored." It said Western criticism of such courts defends "murderers, robbers and plunderers."
