

AT FIRST BAPTIST Missionaries' Forum To Be Rally Highlight

A forum, consisting of 18 missionaries from approximately 12 fields, will highlight the Conservative Baptist Missionary rally at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church.

Dr. Vincent Brushwyler, general director of the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society, will direct the forum and be the keynote speaker. He has made a world-wide tour, surveying the work of the society as to schools and hospitals.

Taking part in the panel Sunday will be: Mel Lyons, Belgian Congo; Helen Walters, Japan; George Hansen, Brazil; Melba Means, appointed to French West Africa; Jim Cook, India; David Jones, Honduras; and Dr. Levi Lovegren, a prisoner of the Chinese Communists for five years.

The Male Chorus Gleeman of the First Baptist church, Albany will provide selections.

The rally is being sponsored by 23 Conservative Baptist churches of Central Willamette valley.

Dr. Vincent Brushwyler, above, will direct a forum consisting of 18 missionaries slated to be held at the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

MEET IN HOMES

First Congregational Launches Lenten Program for 70 Families

The First Congregational church launched this week into a Lenten program for the strengthening of the spiritual life of the congregation.

Heading the program is Gerald Smith, chairman of the board of deacons. More than 70 church families are directly involved in the leadership of a series of Lenten meetings, which will meet in members' homes in 16 neighborhoods of the parish.

The main part of the program will be the study and discussion of the book, "Strengthening the Spiritual Life," by Nels F. S. Ferre. Each meeting will also include worship and fellowship. The entire program is being directed by the laymen of the church.

An integral part of the program is the series of Lenten sermons by Dr. Keiser, beginning this Sunday. They center on the great underlying concepts, forming the foundation of the Christian faith.

On Wednesday the Men's club will meet for dinner at 6:30 p.m. to hear Dr. Dean Brooks, superintendent of the Oregon State hospital speak on "The Role of the Christian for Mental Health." The men of Knight Memorial Congregational church will be guests at this meeting. Reservations should be made at the church office.

FOURTH TOUR OF U.S.

Evangelistic Service Series Set At 1st Church of the Nazarene

The Rev. Robert Emsley will hold a series of evangelistic services at the First Church of the Nazarene, Center at 13th, beginning Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m. The services will continue nightly at 7:30 through March 24, except Saturday.

Mr. Emsley is now making his fourth tour of the United States. A graduate of Cliff college, Sheffield, England, his messages emphasize the Wesleyan truths of Bible holiness.

Mr. Emsley's last pastorate was one of nine years' duration at the Gildersome Church of the Nazarene, Leeds, England. He has preached in churches across the United States, Canada, England, Scotland and Ireland.

The Rev. Robert Emsley, above, will hold a series of evangelistic services at the First Church of the Nazarene next week.

Thornton Set To Speak for Presbyterians

Men of the First Presbyterian church will hold their March meeting at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, with Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton as guest speaker. He will discuss "Law Enforcement and the Public Interest."

Dinner will be served at 6:30, followed by a fellowship sing at the tables and musical selections by the Mariners' Trio, consisting of Mrs. Francis Allen, Mrs. Robert Cahlsdorf, Mrs. F. R. Schwarz and Mrs. Robert Howells, accompanist.

Activities for Sunday include 7th and 8th grade Westminster fellowship, 6:30 p.m. with program and refreshments; 9th grade fellowship at the home of Bill Wallace, 1675 Norway, and Congregational Presbyterian student fellowship, meeting jointly with the Wesley group at the First Methodist church.

As The Spirit Wings Homeward

As a beloved spirit takes flight to its eternal home, it is fitting that its departure be commemorated with a funeral service of beauty and reverence... spiritually inspiring and deeply comforting.

Jason Lee Set For 2 Series Of Meditations

They Will Be the High Spot of the Lenten Season There

The Lenten season at Jason Lee Memorial Methodist church will be highlighted by two series of meditations. One by the pastor, Rev. Ernest P. Goulder, will be presented during the Sunday morning worship services and the other, scheduled for the Sunday evening firesides, will be directed by Dr. Harvey Zeigler and Dr. Clifford Hanson, both of Willamette university.

Rev. Goulder's series of sermons will be based on the general theme, "The Great Affirmations of the Church."

"Personalities Close to Jesus," will constitute the theme for the firesides.

Dr. Zeigler is Willamette's new chaplain. He came to the university from the University of Hawaii. Dr. Hanson is instructor in philosophy and religion.

WS Baptist Slates Cook

James Cook, son of missionaries in India, will be the speaker at the West Salem Baptist church, Sunday morning. Cook is planning on a missionary ministry in India, where he will assist his father in the training of native Christians.

At the evening session, Dr. Myron Cedarholm will be the inspirational speaker. Mr. Cedarholm is the general director of the Conservative Baptist association of America.

The church will have special missionary services each evening at 7:30, Monday through Friday, with the following missionaries: Monday, Byron King; Tuesday, George Friesen; Wednesday, Dr. Vincent Brushwyler; Thursday, David Jones; Friday, Ralph Johnson.

Mayor Sets 'Prayer Day' Here Friday

Mayor Robert F. White Thursday issued a proclamation setting aside Friday, May 8, for Salem to participate in the World Day of Prayer.

"The troubled peoples in less fortunate nations than ours, and indeed even in our own beloved country, need divine guidance as never before, especially as this is stimulated through prayerful communion," says the proclamation.

7 Cascade College Students to Visit

Seven students from Cascade college, Portland, will appear at two services Sunday at the Fruitland Evangelical United Brethren church. They will take complete charge of the Youth Fellowship service at 6:30 and conduct a panel discussion considering the problems of Christian young people in high school and other social contacts.

At 7:30 they will take part in the evening service by leading the singing and bringing special music. The pastor, Rev. Roger Swarnen, will speak at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Color Slides Set For Camera Club

Color slides and a lecture on the scenic wonders and geology of the Willowa mountains in northeast Oregon will be presented at the meeting of the Salem Camera club which is to be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the First Methodist church.

"Little Switzerland of America," is the subject of the presentation which will be made by Thomas Stacer.

He has spent much time in the Willows and the pictures reflect his interest in the geology and scenery of the region.
