

Timothy Carey Is Wildest and Strangest Actor of Them All

By ALINE MOSBY
 United Press Hollywood Writer
 HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Anybody who thinks Hollywood actors are normal persons like the folks next-door should meet Timothy Carey, the wildest, strangest actor of them all.

Carey played the role of the creepy killer in last year's "The Killing," one of the best whodunits of many a season. In person he is creepier and makes Marlon Brando and Jack Palance look proper as Sunday school teachers.

A Mobile, Ala., theater man who saw the picture got so excited over Tim he produced his first movie, "Paths of Glory." Behavior Causes Trouble

But before this success years of troubles, apparently because of his behavior.

Carey admitted he has been tossed out of every studio in town. He was asked to leave one picture because he got actress Phyllis Kirk in hysterics. He was booted out of "The Wild One" because he made Brando nervous.

To get auditions with movie producers he three times broke into their offices, pulled out a gun and started shooting them and himself. The fact he used only blanks and was trying to show them he could act didn't make the producers any less angry. They asked him to leave.

House in Poor Section

He was expelled from five schools in his native Brooklyn, the Marine Corps and nearly every job he's tried while hitchhiking across the country. Despite the fact he works regularly in Hollywood, he bought a four-room house 25 miles away in a poor section of the city.

"People are finally beginning to understand me," barked Tim. "The trouble is, people in Hollywood never saw a guy like me before. They think I'm a man from another planet."

"Why are people afraid of me?" he asked. "One producer thought I was on narcotics. I don't even drink or smoke. I'm just enthusiastic. I don't need any stimulation."

Nelson Potter, former pitcher for the St. Louis Browns and Boston Braves, has 12 bowling alleys in Mt. Morris, Ill.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Negro Denied 'U' Admission

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., (AP)—The Florida Supreme Court Friday invoked states' rights to deny Virgil Hawkins, Daytona Beach Negro, immediate admission to the University of Florida law school.

The state tribunal's order came down almost a year after the Supreme Court ruled that Hawkins was entitled to prompt admission to the all-white university.

In its 5-2 opinion, the state court said it could not conceive that the U.S. Supreme Court "would hold that the highest court of a sovereign state does not have the right to control the effective date of its own discretionary process."

The State Supreme Court said that while it was refusing at this time to order Hawkins' admission to the University of Florida, the action was taken without prejudice to his rights to come before the court again "when he is prepared to present testimony showing that his admission can be accomplished without doing 'public mischief'."

Hawkins, 49-year-old faculty member at Bethune-Cookman College at Daytona Beach, has been trying for about eight years to gain admission to the all-white
