NAIA Begins Long Tourney Of 32 Teams

Pacific Lutheran Gets Top Seed; Pilots Vs. Austin Peay

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The week-long, 32-team National Intercollegiate (NAIA) Basketball Tournament opened in Municipal Auditorium Monday and there was only the slightest inkling which team will take the championship trophy home Saturday night.

Eight teams were drawn when the pairings were made up. Pacific Lutheran of Portland, Wash., was given the top spot, primarily because its 27-1 season record included two victories over Seattle's AAU champions.

Texas Southern, which was beaten in the finals by McNeese State of Lake Charles, La., last year, was seeded 8th despite its 31-1 record, best in the field, and the fact it has all of its 1956 personnel returning.

McNeese is not in the tournament this year.

The other high seeded teams include Youngstown, Ohio University (19-3), No. 2; West Virginia Tech (31-2), No. 3; Western Illinois (21-2), No. 4; Portland, Ore., University (17-11), No. 5; Hamline (19-3), No. 6; and Southeastern Oklahoma State (22-5), No. 7.

West Virginia Tech of Montgomery will show the NAIA's champion scorer of the year in Ken Hammond, who carried a 33.2 average for 33 games. NAIA records show Pacific Lutheran with a scoring average of 75.8 points for 28 games. The Lutes ranked third in defense among NAIA members, limiting their foes to an average of 55.7 points.

The Lutes draw a first-round bye and play Elon, N.C. College in their first appearance Tuesday.

Portland is matched against Austin Peay, Tenn., at noon (PST) Monday.

opening games, shot .386 from the floor.

Knappa's Bob Hunt canned 31 points to pace his team to the consolation victory. With his 38 and 45 point efforts in earlier games, the 31 gave him a total of 114 points for tournament play, a new individual record.

Phil Hochspeier was selected on the tournament's all-state first team along with Hunt, Duncan, Mike Ramos of Echo and Cliff Otto of Elkton.

Second team players were Ron Phillips, Sisters; Stan Williams, Sisters; Bill Rajnus, Malin; Arlen Gustafson, Coburg; and Dick Johnson, Elkton.

Union won the sportsmanship award.

Jeff Finished Third, Elkton Wins B Title

Lions' Hochspeier Rates 1st Team All-State

B. E. N. D. (Special) — Elkton whipped Echo, 65-40, to win the championship of the Oregon Class B basketball tournament here Saturday night after Jefferson had clubbed Sisters, 57-44, for third place.

Earlier in the day, Knappa trimmed Malin, 49-39, to gain fourth place.

Elkton's victory was its 25th this season without defeat. The Elks entered the tourney with a 22-0 record, then proceeded to whip Union, Jefferson and Echo to add three more victories.

Harold Duncan tallied 24 points and Dick Johnson had 22 to lead Elkton to the championship. The Elks had only a narrow 29-24 halftime lead.

Hochspeier scored 26 points as Jefferson clubbed Sisters. The Willamette Valley Lions jumped to a 15-9 lead at the end of the first quarter; then ran the margin to 11 points at halftime, 29-18. From there, the Lions coasted to the victory.

Besides Hochspeier, two other Lions scored in double figures. They were Bob Wright with 11 and Gerald Zehner with 12.

For the first time Jefferson looked like the team which swept through the Marion County B League. The Lions, after posting poor shooting averages in their

One 'Miserable' Night Cost Jeff in State B, Coach Says

JEFFERSON (Special) — One "miserable" night for Jefferson high school, when it shot a cold 245 per cent of field goal attempts, was costly to the Lions. Coach Arl Lee recalled, in the state Class B basketball tournament.

Lee's Lions finished with a third-place trophy but lost their chance in the semifinal against Elkton, the eventual champion, which shot .500 in winning by 20 points over Jefferson.

Taking third was a credit to the Lions, Lee offered to say, but "they could have come all the way except for that bad night. A team can't play one game like that and come out on top," he commented.

Jefferson completed its season with a fine 24-3 record and has lost only seven games in two years under Lee. He will have only three of the squad back—Phil Hochspeier, the first team all-star; and two reserves, Alan Neyman and Bob Wright.

Jeff had a good defensive night against Malin, the defending champion, holding Malin to 34 points. In the other two games, Malin scored more than 60. Hochspeier and Gamble played exceptionally well in that one game and if he had had a better night in the third game should have rated the second all-state team, Lee believes.

Coach Named At Marshfield

COOS BAY (AP) — Dean Sheldon will coach the Marshfield High School football team next fall. He has been assistant coach four years.

The school board announced his appointment over the weekend. He succeeds Pete Susick, who will leave to become an assistant coach at the University of Washington, where he once played football.

Sheldon was a lineman on the University of Oregon football team in 1948.

MVL Backs Its Referee

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Missouri Valley Conference Committee on Officiating wrestled five hours Sunday with rumors one of its basketball referees was mixed up with gamblers and announced it had "full confidence in his integrity and ability."

The referee's identity was not disclosed by the committee's formal statement or by league officials.

The committee said it had not found any solid facts to substantiate the rumors.

The referee appeared before the committee and denied the rumors.

CONGRATULATIONS TO TWO PUBLICATIONS

Two publications, one new and one old need comment. The new newsletter is the Salem women's bowling association newsletter, the SWBA Informer. A trial issue edited by Barbara Smith and Gloria Brennan was issued to women March 4. It contains chatty news of various women's leagues, personality sketches of some of Salem's women bowlers, and human interest news. Among the news of the first issue were writeups on the planned women's banquet April 15; league statistics; and a report of stocking Jean Domes and Corky Phillips.

HARD LUCK TEAM PLAGUED BY MEMBER LOSS

Probably the team most unfortunate in Salem's leagues is the Monday night U-Rowl Smoke Shop team. A make-up team at the first of the year, the upstarts ended a respectable three, then trouble set in. First Jim Lebold withdrew from the squad. Then bowler Dick Graham moved to Portland. Next Bill Drakely signed for the Air Force.

RARE SPLITS PICKED

Orville Chastain at B and B duck pin house, picked the rare 4-6-7-10 split in Tuesday's league. Dave Bascue and Roy Kennedy converted the tough 3-6-7-8-10 splits. George Kayser picked the near-impossible 4-4 at Cherry City.

STAUDINGER IN A CLASS BY HIMSELF

Rich Staudinger, Capitol Tuesday night strongman, is easily the grand mogul of the Industrial league. He has twenty 200 games and five 600 series to date and carries a 191 average. Nearest average to Rich is Ken Clark with 172.

BOWLING CONGRESS ODDITIES

Here's an oddity that won't be encountered often. Five men in Wichita, bowing on the Vanucon 66 service team each posted series totals of 447. It's the first of the kind ever reported to the ABC. Two identical games, two 121's, were the only similar game scores in the 13 game shoot.

Midgets to Return Tuesday For Salem Armory Scramble

For the second time in three weeks—the delight of Salem wrestling fans—the battling midgets will make an appearance at the Salem Armory Tuesday night. The midgets, who will be the Junior-Macera-Bull Montana main event.

The midgets, happy with their reception here earlier, agreed to make another appearance here before continuing on their tour of the country. One of the finest of the tiny wrestlers, Lord Littlebrook, will join with the Brown Panther for a tag team match against Tom Thumb and Irish Jackie.

Macera and Montana will be meeting in a rematch of their contest here of last week. They actually finished out the 20 minutes of their one-fall match but referee Alec Perez was unable to stop them after the bell and even got belted himself.

Macera is the new Pacific Coast Junior heavyweight champion but this will be a non-title bout. However, a win by Montana may give the Bull a later crack at the crown.

In the special event, Reggie Pooking will face Jim Laftack, who lost to Tito Carreon on a foul last week. Martino Angelo will battle Wild Bill Savage in the opener.

Luther Lindsey, who has been a regular in recent weeks, won't be on the card Tuesday. He will be taking a night off after his effort last week when he almost lifted the Northwest heavyweight crown from Gentleman Ed Francis.

Actually, Lindsey won the match by getting the only fall, but Norway Wrestling Association rules stipulate that in a match for two out of three falls the challenger must take two falls within the time limit to gain the title.

Letters Given At Woodburn

WOODBURN (Special) — Letter awards in basketball and wrestling were presented at a special assembly last week at Woodburn high school.

Basketball letters given by Coach Marshall Barbour went to B. H. Workman, Eddie Belknap, Doug Laubach, Jimmy Black, Gerald Livingston, Duane Falk, Jimmy Halter, Charles Nathan, F. I. de L. Gavola, Vic Belknap, Bill Bishoprick, and Jerry Chapelle.

Via Belknap, junior, and F. I. de L. Gavola, senior, were announced as co-captains. Manager awards went to Joe Reed and Dale Sterling.

TED ALSO HITS AT NIGHT

SARASOTA, Fla. (UP) — Slugger Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox demonstrated that his eyes aren't going back on him a bit last season by compiling a .302 batting average in night games. His overall average was .343.

Salem Academy J.V. Has Enviably Mark

A winning tradition is blossoming among junior varsity players at Salem Academy and it looks encouraging for the Crusader varsity next basketball season.

Coach Bob Bowdley's boys have just completed an undefeated season of 20 victories, including 16 against Yamawa league jayvees, giving the underclassmen a string of 28 straight wins against league competition over two seasons.

The fact is that since Salem Academy entered the league last year, the jayvees have yet to lose a game. The team has scored 973 points, averaging 49 points to 32 for opponents.

Leading scorers have been Roger Carter, guard, with an average of 14, and Howard Ediger, 6-1 center, with 12. Leading rebounders have been Gene Biggins, 5-10, Captain Wes Dyck, 6-0, and Ediger.

Other dependable players have been Russell Loewen, Dave Finlay and Ron Goertzen.

Gordon Turnidge was jayvees coach last year.

Bears, PCC Champion, to Play BYU Friday in NCAA Opener

BYU (AP) — The Golden Bears nailed down the PCC title Saturday night by topping the University of Southern California 89-83, the second night in a row. Cal's Larry Friend led the scorers with 28 points. California won Friday night 61-55.

California finished its PCC season with a 14-3 record in the conference leaving UCLA and Washington led 13-3 for second place. However, the Bears had clinched the NCAA bid several weeks ago when the only teams left within striking distance were the ineligible, penalized because of unauthorized aid to athletes.

Center Ineligible

California goes into the NCAA playoffs, handicapped by the loss of one of its best players, Duane Aspinall. Bear center, has been declared ineligible by the NCAA because he played briefly in two games in 1955 and acquired five-year student status.

The final weekend of conference play saw only six teams in action. Washington beat Washington State twice to gain a tie with UCLA. Doug Smart and Bruno Boin combined for 47 points in Saturday night's 76-66 victory. Washington won Friday night 73-72.

Oregon made its finale its second victory in the conference, beating Oregon State, 65-61. Players on both teams stood by eating ice cream bars while Hal Duffy of Oregon sank the two free throws that ended the game. The whistle had sounded just as Duffy was being fouled — but the ball on the final play had lodged in the rafters. The players got their ice cream while waiting for the ball to be retrieved and brought to the free throw line. Oregon State won Friday, 75-62.

Stanford and Idaho closed their seasons the previous weekend.
