

No State Aid Available for Education TV

PORTLAND (UP) — The State Board of Higher Education indicated yesterday it could not see its way clear at present to pledging some $65,000 towards activating channel 10 here for a proposed educational television station.

Chancellor John R. Richards said the higher education budget was closed for the next biennium. He also questioned whether the board could legally budget tax money and hand it over to another agency for spending.

Request for financial help came from a delegation from Community Television, Inc.

The board, meeting in committee, authorized award of contracts for a tower and station to activate channel 7 in Corvallis, conditional on approval of the FCC, for educational TV. A grant of $150,000 is expected from the Ford Foundation.

The board voted to oppose a House bill which would legislate an expanded curriculum for Portland State College. The board said the state should not start legislating curricula and that it has a definite plan for development of Portland State.

Don't Travel on a Question Mark

Have your tires MASTER-Retreaded

... save half the cost of new tires. You depend on driving for business and pleasure, so don't take chances with a question mark on the safety of your tires.

So simple and easy to correct, too, if your tires are quality tires to begin with. Just have them retreaded by a T.R.I. MASTER-Retreader—there are 12 years of patient research behind the standards of the Tire Retreading Institute and each Master-Retreader. He is appointed after investigation proves his workmanship and plant facilities measure up to T.R.I. standards. Look for this T.R.I. sign. It's your guarantee of quality retreads.

For your protection, this seal is molded into each MASTER-Retreaded tire.
