

6 Games Scheduled Today in State Class A-1 Tourney

Lincoln, Benson Win; Lions, Astoria Lose

Eugene-Medford Tilt Feature For Today

EUGENE (UP)—Lincoln and Benson, both Portland teams, won opening games in the Oregon class A high school basketball tournament here Tuesday night. First round action continued Wednesday with six games scheduled beginning at 9 a. m.

Lincoln, the No. 4 team in the final AP prep basketball poll of the season, advanced to the quarter-finals by beating a small but scrappy St. Helens squad, 53-48. Benson, No. 10 in the poll, had an easier time defeating Astoria, No. 8, 60-39.

North Vs. Ontario
Wednesday's morning round sent Klamath Falls, ranked second in the state, against Marshfield, No. 7, and North Salem vs. Ontario.

In the afternoon Central Catholic of Portland, the state's top-rated team, was to meet Redmond, and Grant of Portland was to meet McMinnville.

Eugene, No. 3 in the poll, will meet Medford, No. 6, and Albany

Tourney Schedule

WEDNESDAY
9:00 a. m., Klamath Falls vs. Marshfield.
10:15 a. m., North Salem vs. Hermiston.
1:45 p. m., Grant (Portland) vs. McMinnville.
3:00 p. m., Central Catholic (Portland) vs. Redmond.
7:30 p. m., Eugene vs. Medford.
8:45 p. m., Albany vs. Pendleton.

was to meet Pendleton, No. 5 in the night games.

St. Helens, trailing 20 points with three minutes to go, staged a scoring rally that gave Lincoln a bad fright. Don Printz scored two field goals to lead the surge that produced nine points in 50 seconds.

The taller Lincoln team took a 5-0 lead in the first two minutes but St. Helens spurred and tied the score at 7-7. The St. Helens team then went ahead 11-8 on two free throws and a field goal by Doug Lapping. This was the longest lead of the game for St. Helens which held a 11-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

Andre LaBorde got Lincoln out in front again with a field goal in the second quarter and the Portlanders were ahead 25-21 at the half. They rolled up their largest lead 58-32 midway through the final period.

Printz was high for the game with 15 points.
Benson started fast and moved to a 14-8 advantage in the first quarter while holding Astoria to two field goals.

Yanks No Cinch, Farrell Declares

Cleveland Pilot Comforted by Pitchers

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press
The Cleveland Indians refuse to subscribe to the popular belief that the New York Yankees only have to show up to win the American League race again.

When asked the other day if he would win the pennant, Yankee manager Kerby Farrell barked: "I do not. I concede the Yankees nothing. They have to beat us to win it and you can bet we'll give them a fight."
Farrell has no worries about his front-line pitchers. Three of them loosened up in yesterday's 8-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Tucson, Ariz. Bob Lemon gave up only one hit in the first three innings. Then Art Houtteman yielded three in the middle three and Don Mossi held the Cubs to two in the final three.

Little Seal, Big Jump

FULLERTON, Calif.—Outfielder Able Pearson, one of the smallest in organized baseball, demonstrates his ability to go up after flies as he worked out with the San Francisco Seals in spring training yesterday. Pearson, only 5 feet 6 and 145 pounds, is expected to make a hot bid for a Seal job. He hit .371 last year, playing with the Seals and with Oklahoma City in the Texas league. (AP Wirephoto)

Pilots to Play Today in NAIA 2nd Round

S. E. Oklahomans Sharp Beating Idahoans

KANSAS CITY (UP)—Southeastern Oklahomans, a well-regarded team before the NAIA basketball tournament started, looked even better as the second round of the week-long competition began Wednesday.

If the Savages from Durant, Okla., can keep their 6-7 center, Jim Spivey, off the injury list, it appears that they have the equipment to go all the way.
Spivey played much of the season with a broken wrist but he scored 29 points Tuesday night as Southeastern hounded Northwest Nazarene of Nampa, Idaho, 82-58 to end play in the first round.

Lutes Impressive

The 16 survivors of the 32-team field include all the pre-tournament favorites except third-seeded West Virginia Tech, which was upset Monday by unheralded Villa Madonna of Kentucky. The most impressive teams in the first round included top-seeded Pacific Lutheran of Parkland, Wash., Western Illinois and Texas Southern.

In other games Tuesday, Ball State (Ind.) Teachers defeated Troy State (Ala.) Teachers, 90-70; Stetson University of Deland, Fla., downed Nebraska State Teachers 100-84; Tennessee State College eliminated Adrian (Mich.) College 87-69; Pacific Lutheran trimmed Elon (N.C.) College 76-61; Youngstown (Ohio) University whipped Western (Calif.) College 81-75; Western Illinois thrashed South-

Giant Off To Great '57 Start

Gail Harris More Relaxed, Hits Runs In

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP)—Smooth-swinging Gail Harris, who perennially tries to win a first base job with the New York Giants, again is off to a blazing spring start. This time, the 25-year-old Harris, who yesterday delivered the second winning blow and has driven across 12 runs in four Giant exhibition games, may be ready.

"I'm more relaxed than I've ever been and I'm not pressing," said Harris after his three-run homer in the ninth gave the Giants a 9-8 triumph over the Baltimore Orioles. It was his second homer of the game and third of the cactus league campaign.

Harris, who batted .370 and belted 24 homers for Minneapolis of the American Assn. last season, slashed a bases-loaded single in the 10th to win for the Giants Sunday, also by a 9-8 count over the Cleveland Indians.

The first sacker from Abingdon, Va., now hitting .500 with 8 hits in 16 trips could be a big help in Manager Bill Rigney's effort to hoist the Giants out of their sixth-place National League berth.
Rigney has a crying need for a cleanup batter to hit behind brilliant Willie Mays in the No. 3 spot. Rigney already has tested big Hank Sauer and Dusty Rhodes in the No. 4 batting position, but it looks like the job may go begging for quite a spell. Gail could be the man.

Harris has been battling fifth and twice now has slammed a grand slam in a game. He did it yesterday with his pair of

'Bull' Loses To Macera At Armory

A little game of "now he's pinned, now he isn't" cost Bull Montana a victory over Luigi Macera Tuesday night in the main event of wrestling matches at the Salem Armory.

Montana, who was trying to force Macera to give him a shot at the Pacific Junior Heavyweight title, had his opponent pinned for the third and decisive fall in their match but referee Martino Angelo disallowed the fall when he discovered that Macera's legs were outside the ring.

The angered Montana roared back anxious to finish it but he ran right into a body press and Macera took the third and final fall to win the match.

In the special attraction Lord Littlebrook and The Brown Panther defeated Irish Jackie and Major Tom Thumb in a midgeet tag team match which was as notable for its comedy as for wrestling skill.

Gentleman Ed Francis, appearing in place of Jim LaRock, and Reggie Parks drew in the opener and Wild Bill Savage upset Alec Perez in the other preliminary match.

The Dalles Football Coach Resigns Job

THE DALLES (UP)—Lyle Pettyjohn, The Dalles High School football coach and athletic director, is resigning at the end of the school year.

He said he has no immediate plans but hopes to locate a coaching position in some other area.

He also has no immediate plans but hopes to locate a coaching position in some other area.

"Gail has as much strength to hit for distance as anybody on the club, except Willie Mays," said Rigney.

Deck Cleared for Four Regional NCAA Eliminations on Friday

No Upsets in 6 First Round Games

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press Sports Writer
The 1957 NCAA basketball tournament was sticking mightily close to its tradition of "no Cinderella champion" today as top-ranked North Carolina paced the advance into Friday's second round.

There wasn't an upset to be found in six first-rounders played Tuesday night at three different sites, or in the other first-rounders played Monday night. Now the deck is cleared for these pairings in the four "regional" eliminations starting Friday night:

At Philadelphia: North Carolina (28-0) vs. Canisius (21-5); Syracuse (17-6) vs. Lafayette (22-3).
At Lexington, Ky.: Pittsburgh (16-9) vs. Kentucky (22-4); Notre Dame (19-7) vs. Michigan State (15-7).

At Dallas, Tex.: Oklahoma City (18-8) vs. St. Louis (19-7); Kansas (21-2) vs. SMU (21-3).
At Corvallis, Ore.: California (20-4) vs. Brigham Young (18-8); Idaho State (25-2) vs. San Francisco (18-6).

North Carolina overcame what Coach Frank McGuire called its "worst first half of the season"

Portland Board Votes To Continue Jamboree

PORTLAND (UP)—The school board last night voted to continue the annual high school football jamboree here this fall. The action came after student leaders promised to try to put an end to rowdy conduct which followed last year's jamboree and brought numerous protests.

RAMS SIGN TACKLE

LOS ANGELES, (UP)—Don Smith, a 230-pound tackle from Miami of Ohio, has signed with the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League. Coach Sid Gilman said Smith would be tried as an offensive guard.

New Orleans, 76-53. The Monday first-round saw Idaho State beat Hardin-Simmons, 68-57, at Pocatello, Idaho.
North Carolina ran into an inspired team in Yale's lacy League champions and were held even for 30 minutes. Then the taller Tar Heels pulled away from the game-out Ellis as All-American Lennie Rosenbluth took scoring honors with 27 points to 25 for Yale's Johnny Lee.

UP Picks Forte 'Player of Year'

Columbia's Short Star Averaged 28.9 Points

NEW YORK (UP)—Columbia's Chet (The Jet) Forte, a little man who plays basketball in a big way, turned back the clock today by outscoring the gangling giants of the college game to the 1957 United Press "Player of the Year" award.

The 5-foot-9 pre-medical student, as sound fundamentally but an even better scorer than the solid little men who dominated the early years of basketball, gained the honor by a clear margin in a nationwide poll of 281 sportswriters and broadcasters.

Forte received 63 votes in widely-scattered balloting to win over Wilt (The Still) Chamberlain, brilliant seven-foot University of Kansas sophomore, who had 51 votes. Six-five Grady Wallace of South Carolina, the national scoring leader, was third with 35 votes.

The selection of Forte, Ivy League scoring champion, came at the end of a surprising campaign in which he fought right down to the wire with four physical giants for the national scoring championship. He finished with an average of 28.92 points

Webb to Fight Sub for Sandy

CHICAGO (UP)—Will Greaves, a young middleweight with limited experience, has his sights set on Gene Fulmer's title and figure the best way to meet the champion is by beating fourth-ranked Spider Webb in a 10-round bout at Chicago Stadium tonight.

Greaves of Pittsburgh, who has had only 14 professional fights, is substiting for Randy Sandy, who injured his left hand in training. Webb, one of Chicago's brightest fistic prospects, has come along quickly since he left the Army a year ago.

Sports Report

By CHUCK BOICE

He was behind and with two of his veterans off the floor it seemed to be very dark outlook for the Wildcats. Helsler had to put back into the lineup one Caryl Goetze, the green, 6-7 freshman.

Goetze had scored the opening basket and that was all. His varsity experience was limited to a handful of minutes and he looked very raw for the extreme pressure of the moment.

All Goetze did was score 15 more points, including the overtime clincher, in what must have been about as many minutes. He swept the backboards and hardly made a wrong move. This was the boy who turned the tide with by far the greatest effort of his career. That fifth foul wasn't whistled more than a minute too soon.

Helsler can't be expected to apologize for this. After all, some other coaches would claim it was strategy they were just about to employ when fate stepped in and made the move.

The doggonedest part of it for the rest of us is that, while freshman Goetze's performance might have been a surprise, it was no fluke. He's a prospect and at six-foot-seven.

Coos Bay to Suttle for How Many?

It's not surprising that Pete Seattle, the Marshfield high coach of football champions, was given a job on a major college staff such as that of the University of Washington. The only thing slightly surprising, perhaps is that he finally accepted such an offer.

But the real question that overshadows the rest, no matter how much his past record is praised or the sincere good wishes go out for the future, is the question of where a number of Pirate athletes will register in the next couple of years.

Many of them have close connections with the University of Oregon's alumni and athletes from Coos Bay. Oregon State was confident of coming up with a couple this year and seemed to be counting on them.

All the coaches say the most important thing is to come up with the good boys. In the non-tue fruitful fields of Oregon these Marshfield kids were in a class by themselves. Washington is expected to land them.

Stadium to Sound Stage—a Long Jump

The naming of John Mack Brown, the Alabama star halfback of the late 20's to the illustrious football Hall of Fame, failed to ring a bell with many who did not realize this was the same Johnny Mack Brown who starred in Western movies for dozens of years and can still be seen riding off into the sunset on the video.

Brown may not have been a great actor, but at least he was one who lost his identification and prop of being a sports star and went on to do well in his chosen line.

Former Olympic swimmer Stan Buster Crabbe has made a fairly good transition but swimmer Johnny Weismuller seems to require a splash in the water about every 50 feet of film and he's literally making a bigger splash these days.

It's true some sports figures have gradually worked their way up in the entertainment field but we're speaking of those who came into the business with all the advantage of stepped up tub-thumping about their athletic prowess. Perhaps the handsome New York Giant halfback, Frank Gifford, is lining up a rough type work, but at least he's not up against the obvious disadvantage of being given a starring role in "The New York Giants' Story."

The Gals Show Up Better

For some obvious reason or other, such women athletes as Esther Williams and Sonja Henie seem to have met with much greater success.

One of the most brutal pictures made was a western starring the late Lou Gehrig, but it's covered, proud-of-its-arts Stanford university hangs it head the lowest. It's been a question in Hollywood for some time whether Hank Lunetti or Frankie Albert was the worst to get before a camera.

Perhaps Bob Mathias, now that television reveals he has learned to use Vitalis while studying for a forthcoming Hollywood production, will redeem the honor of Palo Alto.
