

Mrs. Handy Elected as Worthy Matron for OES

WOODBURN (Special) — Mrs. Ernest W. Handy was elected worthy matron of Evergreen chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, at the annual election of officers this week at the Masonic temple. Mr. Handy was elected worthy patron. They succeed Mr. and Mrs. Leif Peterson.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Percy Seely, associate matron, and Percy Seely, associate patron; Mrs. Minnie Richards, secretary, re-elected for her 40th year; Mrs. R. L. Anderson, treasurer; Mrs. Howard Leighty, conductress; Mrs. Layman Baird, associate conductress; Miss Gladys Adams was re-elected trustee for a two-year term.

Appointive officers named by Mrs. Handy are Mrs. Harold Schiel, chaplain; Mrs. Thomas V. Engle, m a r s h a l; Mrs. Mark Thompson, organist; Mrs. Don Tabler, Adah; Mrs. John Scholl, Ruth; Mrs. Max Simmons, Esther; Mrs. Leslie Paulson, Martha; Mrs. Earl Loney, Electa; Mrs. Russell Hurlbert, warder; and Howard Leighty, sentinel.

Public installation will be Sunday evening, March 31, with Mrs. Elburn T. Sims, and Ora F. Morris, installing matron and patron, Mrs. Arthur Burt, installing chaplain; and Mrs. Dorothy Garren, installing marshal.

A surprise visitor at the meeting was Mrs. Bertha O. Burton.

LYONS (Special)—Mrs. George Huffman of Lyons, Mrs. Clarence Decker, Sr., of Eugene and Mrs. Ed Strom of Superior, Mont., will honor their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbard, on their golden wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon, March 17, with an open house at the Hubbard home from 3 to 5 o'clock with all friends and neighbors invited through the press to attend.

worthy grand matron of the Grand chapter of Oregon, who was introduced, escorted to the east and greeted with the grand honors. Also a guest was Mrs. Edna Lacy, associate matron of Rose City chapter of Portland.

Another surprise of the evening was the appointment by the worthy grand matron of Mrs. Leif Peterson, retiring worthy matron, as grand representative of the state of Montana in Oregon.

Invitations to attend installation of officers were read from Evergreen chapter, Eugene, March 16; Meridian chapter, Eugene, March 22; Ainsworth chapter, Salem, March 22; and to receptions for grand officers from Evergreen assembly No. 12, Order of Rainbow for Girls, Woodburn, April 10; Ruth chapter, Heppner, April 13; and Rose City chapter, Portland, April 19.

Announcement was made of the meeting of the Willamette Valley Matrons and Patrons association at the Woodburn Masonic temple March 14 with Evergreen, Venus and Trinity chapters as host groups. A meeting of the Evergreen Social club was announced for March 20 when a potluck luncheon will be served at noon and officers elected. The line officers' luncheon will be March 16 at the Scottish Rite temple in Salem at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Archie Murphy, Mrs. Thomas Engle and Mr. and Mrs. Claire McMillan were appointed on the refreshment committee for the next meeting, March 25, when degrees will be conferred. An address was given by the worthy grand matron during which she presented Mrs. Peterson with the certificate of appointment as grand representative.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by the past matrons, directed by Mrs. Elburn Sims, president.

Dinner for Husbands

A dinner honoring their husbands was given Tuesday evening by members of the Past Matrons club, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple. Other honored guests were the presiding matrons of the four Eastern Star chapters and their husbands.

Mrs. Earle E. Wiper, president of the club, welcomed the guests. A feature of the evening was the moving pictures of South Africa shown by Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Madison.

Spring flowers decorated the tables set for 100 members and guests. Mrs. C. L. Blodgett was chairman of the entertainment committee, assisted by Mrs. Charles Prall, Mrs. Albert N. Copenhagen, Mrs. Esther Thompson, Mrs. Lana Beechler and Mrs. Viola Parks.

MOLALLA (Special)—Mrs. Vernon Sinclair entertained with a family dinner honoring the birthday of Roxie Itchner who was four years old March 13. The dinner was given Monday evening and guests were Mrs. Katherine Gottwald, Genevieve Gottwald and the Ray Itchner family.

MOLALLA (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shultz were hosts last week for dinner and an evening of canasta. With four tables playing, high scores were held by Mrs. Earl Parsons and Pete Ficken; low scores went to Mrs. Mrs. F. C. Mortenson and Art Ransach.

Spring Busy for CDA Court

MT. ANGEL (Special) — Plans for a full-schedule of spring events were outlined at this week's meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America.

The state CDA convention will be May 18-19 at Albany, according to announcement received from the Oregon state regent, Mrs. E. V. Squire of McMinnville.

Grand Regent, Mrs. Joseph Seifer, was elected delegate and Mrs. J. L. Wichter, alternate, to the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women convention scheduled March 27-28 in Portland. Other members who are going as delegates are Mrs. Louis A. LeDoux, council board member; Mrs. Henry Geck, president, and Mrs. E. A. Hammer, alternate, of the St. Ann's Altar society; and representing the Catholic Order of Women Foresters will be Mrs. John Schmitz, chief ranger, and Mrs. Fred J. Schwab, alternate.

All Catholic women are invited to the convention sessions. The Rev. Cyril Lebold, O.S.B., pastor, will attend the clergy noon luncheon and the evening banquet as guest of the three-parish organizations who are affiliated with the ACOW. Members will assist at the St. Mary's parish annual dinner which will be served Sunday, March 31. Mrs. George Vachter, dinner co-chairman, was present and registered food donations and volunteers for helpers. The Junior members will be in charge of the baby-sitting service and check room.

Funds were voted to provide a half-scholarship for a Mt. Angel academy student to attend Girls State this summer at Willamette university.

Good used clothing for needy children and adults is requested and articles may be taken to the home of Mrs. Alois Keber, relative for peace chairman, who takes care of the packaging and shipping.

Mrs. E. A. Hammer, home and family life chairman, read a paper on the "Catholic Woman Who Serves in Her Community." A report on the junior program was given by Mrs. Wichter, junior chairman. Mrs. Charles Persyn received the attendance award.

Mrs. Geck, president of the St. Ann's Altar society, asked volunteers to report to the school on Friday, March 29, to help with the general cleaning of the kitchens and dining rooms in preparation for the annual parish dinner scheduled for Sunday, March 31.

Benefit Fashion Show Is Success

WOODBURN (Special)—A large group attended St. Luke's fashion show, last week. "Family Fashions for Spring," presented by Meier & Frank's-Salem, as a benefit for St. Luke's school. There were fashions for all ages and members of the family.

During the intermission, Mrs. Don Burlingham of Woodburn sang three solos, accompanied by Joann Meyer. The organ accompaniment during the show was by Mary Barton of Salem.

The planning committee for the show included Mrs. Richard Pargeter, Mrs. Pat DeJardin and Mrs. Edward Gorman. The hostesses were Mrs. Lucas Sprinder, assisted by Wendy Pargeter and Kay Eichstend. Tickets were taken by Edward Gorman and Pat DeJardin.

Special prizes were won by Mrs. Joe Perki and Tony Halter.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Killian W. Smith, Mrs. Louis Stefan, Mrs. Tony Kahut, Mrs. Ray Miller and Mrs. Walter Scarborough, Jr. The floral bouquets were arranged by Mrs. Gelta Mae Conell.
