were destroyed in 1954-the same year the Internal Rev-enue Service asked for them. Brewster said a janitor put the records in the trash because of orders from the Seattle Fire De-partment to clean up a storage room as a fire hazard. Brewster is head of the union's 11-state Western Conference. Under questioning from investi-galing senators, he conceded that the conference's bookkeeping sys-tem was such that it would be "possible" to embezzle thousands of dollars in union funds. But Brewster said it was "not prob-able,"

as committee was in the wind-up stages of its inquiry into three charges. Denying they are true, Brew-siter pictured himself as the vic-tim of a "smear campaign" by Portland racketeer James B. (Big Jim). Elkins and others. Elkins, who said he decided te talk because he got "double-crossed," has been the principal witness giving testimony of the alleged conspiracy. Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) announced in the hearings that the committee has asked Dave Beck, international president of the Teamsiers, to furnish it with all his financial records for the years 1949 through 1955.
