Dahlen-Rundstrom Rites Saturday in Seattle

Wed Saturday night in the Crown Lutheran church in Seattle were Miss Alice Louise Rundstrom of that city and Charles Raymond Dahlen of Salem. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Rundstrom of Seattle, formerly of Salem, and Mr. Dahlen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dahlen of this city.

The Rev. Mr. Rundstrom officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony, assisted by the Rev. A. Hokanson of Everett, Wash. Mrs. Clyde Lohman and Arnold Lunnun, both of Seattle, were soloists. Miss Lydia Pederson of Seattle, the organist. Lighting the candles were Miss Nola Van Wechel of Portland and Miss Gladys Buhler of Salem.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of Chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted lace bodice was styled with square neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt of the lace featured scalloped panels in the front and at the sides, alternate tiers of lace and tulle in the back falling into a chapel train. The pillow head-dress of appliqued lace on tulle was trimmed with seed pearls and crystal tear drops, and held in place a fingertip nylon tulle veil. The bridal bouquet was of white flowers.

The bride, Don Geortzen, sister of the bride, was honor attendant. Mrs. Johnny Bomer, Miss Helen Melby and Miss Berdina Wackerbarth, all of Salem, were bridesmaids. All the attendants were attired in identical frocks of garnet tulle, made in deepness lines, with short sleeves, deeply scooped necklines edged with standup, flared bands, and light blue tulle cummerbunds finished with large bows in back and floor length streamers.

Miss Wood Wed Here Saturday

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Jean Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Wood, Trumbull, Conn., to Lt. Loyal Dean Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howard of Salem, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the First Methodist Church.

The rites were at 2 o'clock. Dr. Brooks H. Moore officiating. Pink stock and red carnations decorated the church for the wedding. Miss Barbara Anderson sang and Prof. Josef Schneckel played the organ.

The bride wore an ankle length ivory silk dress, styled with Empire waistline and a flowered lace bodice, the scoop neckline and short sleeves trimmed with sequins, and a very full skirt. The illusion veil was held by a scalloped crown of lace trimmed in sequins and pearls. The bride carried a small bouquet of white lilies and daisies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. James D. Geddes. She wore a sheath dress of rose textured tulle with a matching overskirt.

Miss Ann Nelson, Miss Maureen Day and Miss Gayle Rogers were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were similar in style to that worn by the honor attendant but in shades of pink. All attendants carried bouquets of pink and red daisies and carnations.

Lt. George Fitzgerald was best man. Ushers were Harry Moritz, Sgt. Walter Grattan and James Demetree.

The bride's mother wore a corolla blue ensemble with white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a wedgewood blue lace and linen dress with corsage of white orchids.

Following the services there was a reception in the Carrier room of the church. Miss Sharon Lavery, recorder and Mrs. Walter Grattan and Miss Julie Mellor cut the cake. Assisting were Misses Mary Beth Van Cleave, Sandi Harris and Connie Clark.

For traveling the bride wore a brown, black and beige tweed suit with brown and beige accessories. The couple will be at home in Cons Bay for a time.
