

Pilots At Mulino Approve Plans For Larger Airport Clubhouse

Annual Fly-in Set For July by Airmen

MOLALLA (Special) — When Sportsmen Pilots club met Monday evening, plans were made to start on a clubhouse within the next few weeks on the airport property at Mulino.

The clubhouse will be an enlargement of the office that has been used for the club room which now will be made into a clubhouse.

Members plan to build floor space of about 19 by 24 feet, to include a coffee bar, and to put the surroundings in better condition for numerous weekend pilots and visitors who fly in.

Also in the planning stage is the annual fly-in where all Sportsmen Pilots from different organizations in Oregon and Washington fly in here, to be held in July.

George Gilmore, Kip Kappeler and Ralph Kappeler told of the Caribbean trip from which they and their wives had just returned.

Kip Kappeler, president, announced that the next meeting will be Monday evening, April 1.
