Kadar in Moscow, Hails True Friend

MOSCOW (AP)—Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar arrived in Moscow yesterday and hailed the Soviet Union as his country's "truest and most dependable friend."

The Hungarian official and his party were flown here in a Soviet jet airliner for 10 days of "ideological and economic" negotiations with the Kremlin.

On hand to greet the visitors at the airport were Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, President Klementi Voroshilov, Deputy Premier Georgi Malenkov, A. I. Mikoyan and Mikhail Suslov, and other members of the Presidium.

Also present despite the 18-below-zero temperature were some 500 "spontaneous demonstrators" recruited for the occasion. Most Western ambassadors boycotted the welcome ceremony.

Kadar and Bulganin reviewed an honor guard and exchanged speeches of welcome with the Hungarian Premier expressing hope the Moscow meeting "will strengthen and solidify our friendship even more."

Kadar also thanked the Soviet government for its military aid in putting down the "counterrevolution" in Hungary.

"The whole world now knows what Communists have known all along," he asserted, "that every Socialist state can depend on the help of the Socialist (Communist) camp and above all of the Soviet Union."

Kadar's reference was to the Soviet military might that crushed the Hungarian revolution last fall. This is his second visit to Moscow since the uprising.

SCHOOLS OPEN

PIKEVILLE, Ky., (AP)—If pupils in mountain schools of Pike County become restless about mid-April, 1957, it will be understandable. Traditionally, in other years, rural classrooms have closed then, to save the children travel on roads muddled by spring rains and thaws, and to enable them to help with spring farm chores. They returned to school on the nearest Monday to July 20th, while pupils in more urban areas were in the middle of their vacations. Last year, the county board decreed, all schools would open at the same time, in September, and close in late May.

Avoid Tongue Twister

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Orators at 1959 ceremonies marking the discovery of Lake Champlain in 1609 won't have to worry about pronouncing "sesquicentenary." Gov. Averell Harriman has signed a bill to allow substitution of "300th anniversary" in the official title of the observance.

DOROTHY DIX COLUMN

Married Man With 2 Children A Heel, Give Him the Works

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: For some time I've been going with a married man, the father of two children. People have told me that his wife is a good, honest, home-loving person, and very attractive. I've often wondered why she never went anywhere with him and now I've been told that he refuses to take her out, is very miserly at home and won't give her money for clothes. He never returns me anything.

I'm beginning to feel guilty. I wonder, if I break off with him, will he spend his money at home, or on someone else? I'm really sorry for his wife—Lorna.

DEAR LORNA: Regardless of what the man decides to do with his future, it will relieve your own guilt feelings to give him up. Certainly you have no respect for him. If you make this fact very evident to him, and thoroughly acquaint him with the attitude that other people have toward him, he may have a quick and rude awakening that will be reflected in his future domestic life.

Let him know that his lavish spending is the only reason you've continued to go with him, and that, actually, you feel nothing but contempt for him. This may induce him to spend money where it is most needed.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Is a wedding ordinarily sponsored by the parents of the bride?—Olive.

DEAR OLIVE: In this country, a wedding is the responsibility of the bride's parents alone. Many people, through ignorance or cupidry, try to con the bridegroom's parents into paying all or a major part of the expenses, but that's not according to Emily Post or the American tradition.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I'm a girl of 20 with a good office job. For two months I've been dating a boy 16, who quit school in the eighth grade and has no job. Mother says I'm wasting my time with him. What do you think?—Buck.

DEAR BUCK: What possible interest could a girl of 20 have in cradle-snatching a child at 16? Not to mention the other drawbacks. Send your youthful suitor back to the nursery, and meet some men your own age.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I'm being married in the fall to a man I deeply love. The only drawback is that I hate housekeeping, and know I'll be no good at it. If I keep on working we could afford a maid, but my fiancé doesn't like the idea.—Maia.

DEAR MAIA: Your plans for the future are rosy, but full of flaws. First, maids aren't easy to come by—especially thoroughly competent ones with good dispositions. Second, Mother Nature has a trick of throwing interference in a well-planned game by the flutter of a storm's wings. So, there seems no escape from housework.

Between now and fall, fortify yourself with the contents of a few home making books, which will make profitable and interesting reading. If you don't know of any, send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request and I'll send you a list of them.

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Or write for her free leaflet D-27, "The Sky Bean." In all cases, be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and your request to the care of this newspaper.
