

Greetings Exchanged in Bermuda

President Eisenhower talks with Bermuda's Colonial governor, Lt. Gen. John Woodall on arrival in Bermuda yesterday for conference with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, left. With formal meetings scheduled to start today, President Eisenhower was reported seeking an outline of Britain's plans to reduce its military forces. (AP Wirephoto).

Daniels Rites To Be Friday In McMinnville

Funeral services are to be held at Macy and Son, McMinnville, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Fernand Daniels, former Salem resident and employee at the Oregon State Hospital for many years, who died March 17 in McMinnville.

The Rev. C. C. Barnes will officiate at the service and committal will be private.

Born Aug. 16, 1873, at Appleton, Wis., Mrs. Daniels for many years worked with the mentally ill, starting in 1898 at the North State Hospital for the Insane at Winnebago, Wis.

Lived With Sister
On coming to Oregon, the first lived with her sister, the late Mrs. Samuel Hicks, at Falls City. In September, 1907, Mrs. Daniels started work at the Oregon State Hospital. She left here and on Feb. 13, 1911, was married to Theo. E. Daniels of Sparks, Ill. After their marriage they resided in Illinois and Florida.

During World War I, Mrs. Daniels returned to the Oregon State Hospital and at the time of her retirement in July, 1947, she had completed 33 years of continuous service there.

Moved to McMinnville
Immediately after her retirement, Mrs. Daniels moved to McMinnville, where she had resided ever since. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church there and of the South Circle of the church and the Women's Auxiliary.

Among the survivors are a niece, Mrs. Herbert A. Young, Richmond, Wash.; a nephew, Victor Hicks, Milwaukee, Wis.; and several cousins, including Sister M. Protasis, who will go on the newsstands next week. Time will raise its price with the April 15 issue.

'Joker' Found in Discovery Linking Cancer, Cigarettes

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (U)—A federal cancer specialist says there is a "joker" in the recently reported discovery of a cancer-causing ingredient in cigarette smoke. He said the cause-effect relationship is not yet established.

Dr. John R. Heller, director of the National Cancer Institute, gave the opinion to a House Appropriations subcommittee Feb. 19, in closed-door testimony made public today.

Dr. Heller was asked about a news story last month that Dr. Nguyenphoc Buu Hoi, a French-educated Vietnamese working at the Currie Institute in Paris, had found an agent in cigarette smoke that invariably causes cancer in mice.

Dr. Heller said the Paris doctor "took a compound called 3,4,9,10 dibenzopyrene, and all the animals in which he injected this compound developed cancer."

"The joker in it, however, is that this compound was not obtained from cigarette smoke, but was a tar which was taken from a laboratory on the presumption that someone had previously identified this compound as being in tobacco tar."

"So, it is not a true expression of causation from given tobacco smoke."

"It is an important advance in the identification and characterization of a chemical, but it is not a direct association to given tobacco smoke."

Heller added that generally a definite "correlation" has been found between heavy smoking and frequency of cancer, but "we are not completely prepared to admit yet... a causal-effect relationship."

Dr. James A. Shannon, director of the National Institutes of Health, said federal units are conducting a board study which "we hope will settle for all time the association or nonassociation of tobacco smoking and cancer of the lung."

He said recent results of other studies "tend to confirm the original results—they indicate there is an association both between pin down in a precise way the heavy smoking on the one hand cause of the association."

Ronald Thought Janice Was Mad

HOUSTON, Tex.—When Ronald P. Raymond, 25, thought his girl friend, Miss Janice Brashers, 25, above, was mad and would not let him in her apartment, the heavy machinery salesman found a 25-ton earth mover eight blocks away and parked it outside her window, tearing up the lawn and cracking the sidewalk. Raymond was charged with disturbing the peace. "I wasn't mad at him in the first place," Miss Brashers said. (AP Wirephoto)

Senate Group OKs Francis

WASHINGTON (U)—The Senate Armed Services Committee today approved unanimously the nomination of William Howard Francis Jr., 42-year-old Houston attorney and financier, as an assistant secretary of defense.

The committee acted immediately after Francis appeared before the committee to say he had divested himself of stock of the Texas Fund, Inc., a Houston investment trust, and was arranging to dispose of his interests in the Texas Fund Management Co., which manages the fund.

Francis told reporters he resigned this week as chairman of the Texas Republican finance committee.

Sen. Johnson (D-Tex) the Senate's majority leader, a member of the committee, testified that he had known Francis as a "good and trusted friend" and a man of "great integrity, unusual capacity" and great "devotion to duty."

George Baldwin, Portland school district clerk and comptroller, told the Senate Education Committee Wednesday night that the key district plan of distributing basic school funds would make the educational program unstable.

He also said it would make it hard to make long range plans for education.

He said the plan is unpredictable because it would be tied to varying property valuations.

Herbert Schwab, Portland board chairman, said he is authorized by 25 boards in 17 counties to oppose the plan in their behalf.

Total financial loss on the Olympic Games in Australia in 1956 was $1,350,000.

News Magazines To Raise Prices

NEW YORK (U)—Newsweek and Time magazines announced Wednesday they will raise their single copy prices from 20 to 25 cents because of rising paper and production costs.
