

PTA Reverts To Club Rank At Woodburn

Points of Discipline Told Members by Fr. Fosselman

WOODBURN (Special) — At the regular meeting in St. Luke's hall the name of St. Luke's P.T.A. was changed back to St. Luke's Parent's Club, Mrs. Edward C. Gorman presided.

A report on the recent books and Fashion Show was given and a budget presented for approval. It was decided to continue to help with the expense of a physical education director for the coming school year.

It was announced that Mrs. Joe Gamroth, Mrs. Clifford Brittan and Mrs. Gella Mae Connell had assisted in the polo clinic last week. The second grade pupils received the prize for having the most parents attending the meeting.

Coffee was served the fourth grade mothers with Mrs. Harlan Henkes as chairman.

Following the business meeting the speaker for the evening, Father David Fosselman of the University of Portland, was introduced by Jeff Anderson and gave a talk on discipline.

The seventh grade mothers will serve hot chocolate at the school the first Friday in April, with Mrs. Merrill Forsyth as chairman. Plans for the next meeting, April 8, will be the third grade mothers headed by Mrs. Dave Dryden.

Dallas Backs Road-E-O Plan

DALLAS (Special) — Scheduled for April 27 is the third annual Dallas Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored Teen-Age Road-E-O. Anyone is eligible who has not reached his 20th birthday by Aug. 15, 1957, who has a driver's license or permit, and has had no traffic violations in the past six months.

The local contest will consist of a written test and an obstacle test. Jim McCulley, general chairman for the affair, said the Road-E-O participants from this area will be competing for an opportunity to go to the state meet held in June with the winner of that contest receiving an all-expense trip to Washington, D. C., and a chance at a scholarship.

MRS. RUSSELL NELSON ILL. SCOTTS MILLS (Special) — Mrs. Russell Nelson who has been ill for two weeks, was taken to the Oregon City Hospital on Tuesday.

Annual Chicken, Sausage Feed Slated at Mt. Angel Sunday

MT. ANGEL (Special) — Members of St. Mary's Parish, Mt. Angel, are busy this week completing last minute preparations for the annual benefit fried chicken and country sausage dinner which will be served Sunday from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the two large dining halls of St. Mary's grade school, where nearly 400 persons can be served at each sitting.

Making more elaborate plans than those of last year when 1740 dinners were served in less than four hours, committees have been at work for several months under general chairmanship of Mrs. Delmer Lulay and co-chairman Mrs. George Vachter to handle an even larger number of guests this year. There will be food for at least 2,000, the committee promises.

The fried chicken and country sausage will be prepared at home by many Mt. Angel women, and a committee of men will pick up roasters with the cooked items ready for serving. Included on the menu will be special dressing made with home-baked bread, eggs and lots of cooked chicken; mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, cabbage salad, cranberry sauce, traditional relishes, rolls, jam, jelly, butter, milk and coffee, and home-baked pies and cakes for dessert.

Dining room hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Geck, president of the St. Ann's Altar Society, who sponsor the dinner, and Mrs. Vincent Smith, last year's dinner chairman.

Shrine Dinner Set

MOLALA (Special) — Special guests are being invited from Portland and vicinity when Molalla Shrine club entertains Shrine out-of-town officers at its annual dinner Friday evening, April 12, in the VFW hall. Molalla Daughters of the Nile club will prepare and serve the dinner.
