

Molalla Group Hosts Rotarian Birthday Meet

Officers, Wives Given Honors on Sixth Anniversary

MOLALLA (Special)—With Molalla Rotary observing its sixth birthday, members entertained with annual Ladies' Night recently. A dinner was served to about 70 Rotarians, women of Rotary and numerous especially invited guests, including officers and wives from neighboring Rotary clubs, as well as Rotary District Governor Amrose Brownell and Mrs. Brownell.

Officers and their wives represented Oregon City Club, Milwaukie, Silverton and Woodburn Clubs.

The assemblage was welcomed by Molalla President George Guild and Mrs. Guild, with each of the ladies receiving an orchid corsage. Program chairman Dick Welle, and president-elect, introduced speakers Barney Keep, Portland KEX radio disc jockey; also two foreign exchange students, Terje Strome from Norway who is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Le-gard and attending high school in Silverton; the other boy is Ulrich Ahrens from Hanover, Germany, who now is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bishoprick and attending high school in Woodburn.

There also was singing by the "Happy Harmonians", a group of 17 seventh and eighth Molalla grade school students.

Molalla Rotarians Ken Stafford and Hans Christiansen each was presented a pin for six years with 100 per cent Rotary attendance. Secretary Glen Southwell had just completed three years, nine months, of 100 per cent attendance.
