4 Salem Men Take Part in Ship Operation

Four Salem Marines were among those landing on the Philippine Island of Luzon March 25 with the Third Marine Division in the largest ship-to-shore operation held in the Far East since World War II.

The men were Pfc. William J. Fidler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Franklin, 1640 S. High St.; Cpl. James E. Friese, son of Mrs. Mildred B. Friese, 1325 N. 23rd St., and husband of the former Jean A. Luke, 110 Chase Ave.; Pfc. Melvin D. Van Cleave, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Van Cleave, 4690 Fletcher Rd.; and Pfc. Virgil J. Lucht, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lucht, 8010 N. River Rd.

William C. Hockett, seaman, USN, son of Capt. Verden L. Hockett, 355 Fawk Ave., Salem, was among those men arriving at Boston, Mass., March 20 aboard the support carrier USS Wasp.

M. Sgt. Robert L. Price, son of Mrs. Maude L. Price, Lebanon, was graduated recently from the Infantry School's advanced non-commissioned officers' course at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Sp. 3.C. Horace G. Wrighthouse, son of Mrs. Marie A. Wrighthouse, Falls City, recently took part in a field training exercise of the 6th Infantry regiment in Berlin. The Oregon soldier entered the Army in May, 1955, and is a gunner in company L of the regiment.

Sp. 3.C. William E. Vibbard, whose wife resides in Silverton, has been presented an Army safe driver award in Ludwigsburg, Germany, where he is with the 24th transportation battalion. Vibbard received the award for driving military vehicles 19,000 miles without an accident or traffic violation. He entered the Army in December, 1953.

Sgt. Jerrold A. Muller, whose wife lives at Rt. 2, Albany, has been graduated from the non-commissioned officers' course at the Infantry School at Ft. Benning, Ga. Muller is a former Oregon State College student.

Pfc. Dale W. Donaldson, son of Mrs. Maude Donaldson, 4085 Gary St., Salem, is a wireman in the mortar battery of the 16th Infantry regiment of the 1st Division at Fort Riley, Kan. Donaldson, whose father, John W. Donaldson, resides at 1100 Highland Ave., attended the North Salem High School. He entered the Army in March, 1954.

Marine Lt. Col. Daniel J. McLellan, son of the D. J. McLellans, 1100 Chemeketa St., has been graduated from the two-week engineer officer field grade refresher course at the Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va. The colonel, a graduate of Oregon State College, entered the Marine Corps in 1942.

SFC Edward S. Bergeron, whose wife resides at Sweet Home, has been graduated from the advanced non-commissioned officers' course at the Infantry School, Ft. Benning, Ga.

Pfc. Mike Ramp of Brooks spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ramp, Brooks. He is being transferred to Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Pvt. Donald D. Guenther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey H. Guenther, 773 Piedmont St., Salem, was recently graduated from the Military Police Training Center, Ft. Gordon, Ga. Guenther entered the Army in October, 1956. He attended Western Baptist College.

Elmer H. Wooldridge, son of Mrs. G. B. Bietz, 1894 Baxter Rd., has enlisted in the six months training program of the Salem Marine Corps Reserve unit, the 3rd 155 mm Gun Battery. He is a junior at the South Salem high school.

Lt. Nork Wellman, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Bidings, Molalla, is to receive his discharge from the service and he and Mrs. Wellman are expected to be returning from Italy in April. They have been there for two years.

Cpl. William N. Polivka, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Polivka, Rt. 3, Salem, has again become a member of the Salem Marine Reserve unit, 3rd 155 mm Gun Battery. The corporal originally enlisted in the unit April 13, 1953, and requested assignment to two years of active duty February 1, 1955. He was released from active duty January 30 and at the time was transferred to the inactive reserve rolls from which he transferred back to the unit.

Pvt. George R. Funkhouser, Jr., U.S. Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Robert Funkhouser, Rt. 1, Box 215, Brooks, is taking his recruit training with the Marines at San Diego. Following this he will take four weeks of advanced training at Camp Pendleton, Calif. Funkhouser, who enlisted in the Marine Corps in January of this year, attended the Gravis high school and prior to entering the service was employed by the Oregon Pulp and Paper Company.

Pvt. Harold F. Remmy, son of Mrs. Hattie V. Curfman, 1005 Meadowlawn Dr., has been graduated from the combat engineer school at the Army's Engineer Training Center, Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. Remmy entered the Army last October and was stationed at Fort Carson, Colo., before arriving at Ft. Leonard Wood.

Kenneth C. Allmer, son of Mrs. Phillip F. Diamond, 2320 S. Commercial St., has completed his recruit training with the Marine Corps at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The first U.S. president to travel through the Panama Canal was Franklin D. Roosevelt, Oct. 16, 1935.

Central Committee will be elected here Saturday. Members are expected to discuss a plan for making the chairmanship a salaried position as suggested by committeeman Al Loucks of Salem. The new chairman will succeed

Wendell Wyatt of Astoria who is resigning. Among those being talked about for the post are: Robert White, mayor of Salem; James Short, former state director of agriculture; George Stadelman, The Dalles fruit packer; John C. S.

Merrifield, Portland insurance man; Mrs. Margaret von Lubken, Portland, state vice chairman; John Misko, Clackamas County GOP chairman; and Francis I. Smith, Multnomah County GOP chairman.
