

Olympic Club and Air Force All-Stars in AAU Finals

Buchans Dumped by Service '5', 84-63

Bousha, Tomsic Too Much for Seattle

DENVER (AP)—San Francisco Olympic Club, winner once before back in 1915, and the U.S. Air Force All-Stars play Saturday night for the championship of the 50th AAU Basketball Tournament.

The airmen, getting top performances from Dick Bousha and Ron Tomsic of the 1956 U.S. Olympic team, ousted Seattle's defending champions, 84-63 in Friday night's semifinals.

'Frisco Trails Early

The San Franciscans whipped Peoria, Ill., 70-61, in a tremendous comeback after trailing 13 points in the first half.

Peoria and Seattle play for third place in Saturday night's first game.

Bousha pumped in 22 points and Tomsic added 20 in guiding the Air Force team to its decisive triumph.

Doyle Perkins' six points boosted Seattle into a 12-6 lead at the start but two free throws by Tomsic gave the Air Force the lead for good at 17-16 with 10 minutes gone in the half.

The airmen ran up a 10 point bulge before Chuck Koon and Dean Parsons highlighted Seattle comebacks that chopped the Air Force lead to 44-41 and 50-47 in the second half.

With 11 minutes to play Bousha, Tomsic and Dick Welsh touched off an Air Force spree that left Seattle trailing, 62-49, with 8:37 left. The servicemen pulled steadily away after that.

Unable to find the range in the opening minutes, the San Francisco Olympic Club fell back 22-9 midway of the first half.

The Californians started gaining at that point.

It was deadlocked 39-39 in the second half and the score was tied 11 more times before San Francisco went in front to stay on a three-point play by Russ Lawler, 6-foot-7 former Stanford player.

Celtics to Battle All-Stars At Corvallis and Vancouver

Two games of the Boston Celtics' 17-game junket in the western United States will be played in this area, one at Oregon State College April 20, and the other at Vancouver April 22.

The Celtics, who easily won the eastern division championship of the National Basketball Association, will square off against the Major League All-Stars in the professional games.

Cousy, Russell Included

Two of the sensations of the day, Bob Cousy and Bill Russell, will be making appearances in Celtic uniforms. They will be joined by a former University of Oregon star, Jim Loscutt, now in his second year as a professional.

Others on the Boston team are Tom Heinsohn, Holy Cross; Bill Sharman, USC; Jack Nichols, Washington; Frank Ramsey, Kentucky; Arnie Risen, Ohio State; Dick Hennric, Wake Forest and Andy Phillip, Illinois.

Bob Houbregs, the All-American from Washington, will coach and play for the All-Stars. Other team members are Carl Braun, Mel Hutchins, George Yardley, Neil Johnston and Delph Schayes. Johnston, Schayes, Sharman and Cousy are among the top scorers in the pro league.

Sheridan Has 10 Lettermen

SHERIDAN (Special)—Ten lettermen are among the 18 high school boys turning out this week for the high school baseball team here, according to coach Bill Todd.

Returning lettermen are George Simonson, Everett Gould, Lonnie Baller, Kenneth Speelman, Darrell Smith, Don Smith, Brendon Herber, Jim Hess, Ray Simonson, and Larry Clark.

The 1957 schedule includes the following games: April 5, Dallas there; April 9, Amity there; May 3, Dayton there; and League games: April 16, Yamhill here; April 19, Amity here; April 23, Willamina there; April 26, Philomath there; April 30, Banks here; May 4, Dayton here; May 7, Salem Academy there; and May 14, Sherwood there.

To Perform

Doug Hepburn, above, former world champion weightlifter, will bend a 12-inch spike and other feats of strength at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the Portland Multnomah Athletic Club. Occasion is the Northwest AAU championship.

Basilio Target of Logart After Win

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Cuban Isaac (Kid) Logart's campaign for a title shot at welterweight champion Carmen Basilio had the support of Gil Turner today.

The backing came after the fast-punching 23-year-old invader racked up his second straight unanimous decision over aggressive Gil in a rousing 16-round televised scrap at Madison Square Garden last night.

Turner, tired from another one of his all-out, full steam ahead thrillers, didn't have enough left in the final three rounds, however, and Logart swept to the front for keeps with his raking left hooks to the body and head.

Ranked Second

It was Logart's 12th win in his last 13 starts for a 48-6-5 record. The kid is ranked second to ex-champion Tony DeMarco.

"That $50,000 offer to Basilio for a title fight still goes," said Logart's manager, Eddie Mafuz.

Wolves Boast Pole Vaulter Of High Rank

BRYANT 3RD IN NAIA IN 1955; TEAM ENTERS RELAYS TODAY

(Special to the Capital Journal)

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Monmouth—OCE's 1957 track and field squad was to kick off the season at Salem Saturday afternoon by participating in the seventh annual Willamette Relays at McCulloch Stadium.

The Wolves, never strong scorers in the Willamette event, nevertheless look forward to the relays with enthusiasm. Under coach Bill McArthur the Wolfpack is expected to pick up points in the middle distance events and pole vault and may have a few surprises in other events.

Mac Is Back

McArthur, back at the helm of the track squad after a one-year absence, has 10 lettermen back from the 1956 squad. Also back is Harrison Bryant, a junior pole vaulter from Myrtle Creek who tied for third in that event at the NAIA meet in Abilene, Texas, two years ago. Bryant is expected to score in the Willamette Relays in his favorite event.

McArthur looks for Bryant, Clark Lund, Larry Gower, Norm Bertram and Erv Garrison to set new school records this year. Lund in the 440, Gower in the 880, Bertram in the mile and Garrison in the javelin, although Garrison's success may depend upon the success of a knee operation which he underwent four weeks ago.

Duals Open April 9

John Carpenter should be a valuable pole vaulter for the Wolves in the broadjump and sprints. Ralph Bitner should also score in the shotput event. Cece Miller will give the Wolves a consistent performer in the mile and two-mile events. Freshman Eldon Nass should also garner points in the distance runs.

McArthur says his squad has good spirit and with the Willamette and Lewis and Clark Relays (next weekend) should be ready for dual competition, which opens April 9 against Pacific.

TRACK SCHEDULE 1957

April 6—Lewis & Clark Relay, Monmouth (12:30 p.m.)

April 9—Pacific, Monmouth (13 p.m.)

April 12—Lower Columbia-Clark J.C., Monmouth (12 p.m.)

April 19—Portland University, Monmouth (12:30 p.m.)

April 26—Linfield, Monmouth (12:30 p.m.)

March 3—Portland State, Monmouth (10 p.m.)

May 10—Willamette, Salem, (12 p.m.)

May 18—OCC Conference, Monmouth (12:30 p.m.)

May 25—NAIA, Portland.

Argentinian, McMurtry Due to Box

SEATTLE (AP)—Young Pat McMurtry will give away half a hundred pounds next time he enters the ring—which will be April 18 in Seattle against the 240-pound Argentinian, Edgardo Romero.

Inigo Lucchesi of the Elliott Bay Boxing Club, announcing the 16-round heavyweight match, said McMurtry would enter the ring at about 190 pounds, slightly above his normal fighting weight.

For Pelting Patrick, this will be his first Seattle appearance since 1955 and his second outing of the current year. In 25 fights he has won 23, earned one draw and dropped only one decision—that to highly rated Willie Pastrano.

Romero has met a number of the upper-bracket heavies and his victories include two over Earl Walls of Canada and Joey Maxim, former light-heavy champion.

BOLT BOLTS TOURNEY

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Tommy Bolt of Los Angeles lived up to his reputation as one of golf's most temperamental players by bawling out two photographers and then withdrawing from the Azalea Open Friday because of bursts in his right shoulder.

Farrell Quiet on Indian Starters

Hegan Only Sure Starter for Indians

By JERRY LISKA

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—With fresh manager Kirby Farrell shuffling his Cleveland Indians, the only part of the Cleveland lineup for opening day which could be given now is: "Hegan catching."

That's how much Farrell has tipped his hand for the 1957 American League campaign.

"I know I'm taking over a second-place club that had great pitching and poor hitting last year," he said today. "I know the New York Yankees are ahead of us and at least three clubs are pushing us. And I know we got to get some hitting and some speed to gain any ground."

Players in the Dark, Too

In striving for that blend of improved plate work and team quickness, Farrell has kept everybody guessing, including his own players.

"If the season were to start tomorrow, I truthfully couldn't give you a starting lineup," said the 43-year-old Tribe farm system grad.

"Take my best ball player, Al Smith—he may be at third base, but I'd rather have him in center field. But we're top heavy with outfielders."

So far, just veteran catcher Jim Hegan, first sacker Vic Wertz and Smith, playing somewhere, seem fairly certain of opening day call.

Usher Up from Padres

Infielder George Strickland, a 211 hitter, could be a starter, possibly at third base along with Billy Harrel, up from Indianapolis; Bob Usher, a 350-hitting outfielder for San Diego last year; and veteran second baseman Bobby Avila.

Chico Carrasquel is battling to hold his shortstop job after a .243 batting average last season.

Rookie Roger Maris, up from Indianapolis with a .293 average, would have to beat out seasoned Jim Busby or Usher in center field. In left veteran Gene Woodling has the edge while Recco Colavito is the right fielder.

Farrell is confident that pitcher Early Wynn, a 20-game winner last year with Herb Score and Bob Lemon, will be in shape when the season starts.

OCE Gives 8 Hoop Letters

(Special to The Capital Journal)

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Monmouth—Head basketball coach Bob Livingston has recommended eight members of his 1956-57 varsity basketball team to receive Varsity "O" letter awards.

Four of the eight recommended for letters are seniors. Senior Dale Andrich received his third award and last year men Daryl Girod, Cece Miller and Doug Rogers received their second awards.

The latter threesome transferred to OCE in their junior years.

Third year awards also went to juniors Wayne Young and Kelly Hoy and first year awards went to sophomores Gary Milton and Darol Woodley.

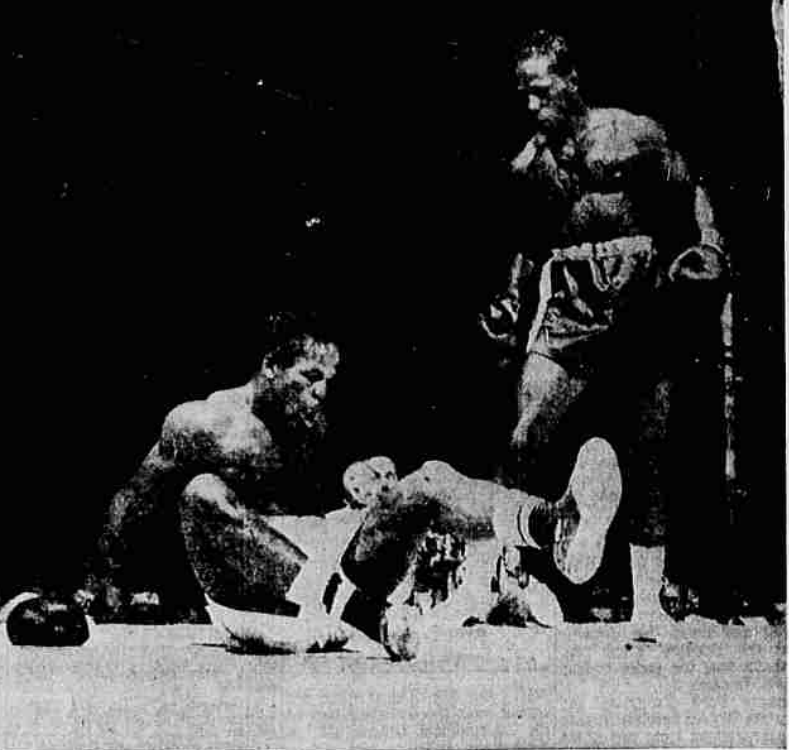

Livingston will face a major rebuilding job next year with only four lettermen back and only two of them starters on this year's team.

Miller, final NAIA statistics show, finished second in the nation among the small college free throw percentage leaders, caging 82 of 91 attempts for a fancy 901 percentage.

BOAST THAT BACKFIRED

Salem Track Slates Queen

The Hollywood Bowl will have a queen this summer to reign over races of each association.

This was announced today by Red Weisman, president of the Capital Racing Assn., who said that the queen will be elected by voting to be completed at the races of Sunday, April 28.

It will not be necessary to buy tickets to vote, he pointed out.

Seven queen candidates are to be chosen from the Charlotte School of Charm, Salem, representing Salem, Stayton, Silverton, Woodburn, Dallas and Independence.

Voting places are to be set up in Salem and in Albany.

Commission Seeks to Prove Fighter Ralph Dupas Is Negro

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Louisiana Boxing Commission may let itself in for a libel suit or criminal action for violating the state's segregation law Tuesday night when it presumably will try to prove Ralph Dupas, the nation's sixth ranking lightweight boxer, is a Negro.

Dupas' boxing career in Louisiana was put in jeopardy Friday when the commission moved to cancel his April 8 bout here with Vince Martinez of Paterson, N.J., and attempted to show that Dupas is a Negro.

Louisiana law forbids racially mixed athletic events. If the commission declares Dupas a Negro, it may have to show proof in a libel suit. Dupas claims he is white. He fought two white fighters in New Orleans in the last 60 days. He has been accepted as a white person since he lived in New Orleans and attended white segregated public schools.

On the other hand, if the commission sanctions the fight now, it might face criminal action for violating the segregation law.

A hearing has been set for Tuesday to determine whether an injunction filed by promoter Heard Ragas will go into effect. It seeks to prevent the commission from holding further meetings concerning Dupas' racial origin. The court's decision on the injunction is expected to be handed down before the commission's meeting.

Finsterwald Leads Azalea

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Dow Finsterwald of Jupiter, Fla., eight shots under par at the halfway point, and Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., just one stroke back, today led the field into the third round of the $12,500 Azalea Open golf tournament.

Finsterwald, who has collected money in every tournament he's tried since September, 1955, beat par by two strokes Friday to card a halfway total of 66-34-36-70-136. Palmer opened with a 70 then balanced a five-under 67 over the Cape Fear Country Club course for a two-round total of 137.

Freddie Wampler of Indianapolis, Ind., who compensates for his slight build with a deadly approach game, nicked par by three shots for a 69 to go with his opening day 71 to take third place at 140, just three shots back.

Deadlocked for fourth were E.J. (Dutch) Harrison of St. Louis, Mo.; Paul O'Leary of Bismark, N. D., and Ed Furgol of St. Andrews, Ill. They had 141's.

Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N. Y., tied with Harrison for second place after the first day's firing, shot a ragged 73 to the Bill Trembley, Dallas, Tex.; Gardner Dickenson Jr., Panama City, Fla.; and Jerry Barber of Los Angeles, Calif., for fifth place at 142.

Lucas, Lukens Hurl Shutouts

STAYTON (Special)—John Lucas of Stayton and Bill Lukens of Central locked in an early season pitching duel Friday in a nine-inning scoreless tie.

Lucas gave up five hits, walked three and fanned 11 while Lukens walked two, gave up four hits and also fanned 11.

Central "scored" in the seventh when Dewey Cummings came home on a single by Darrel Brandt but he failed to touch the plate. Stayton's big chance came in the ninth when Kenny Ware reached third, but he was caught off by the hidden ball trick.

The game had been originally scheduled for Central's field but was moved because of wet grounds.

Rangers Given Little Chance

By UNITED PRESS

The Montreal Canadiens are overwhelming favorites to whip the New York Rangers tonight, and then "cake walk" into the final round of the National Hockey League playoffs.

The Canadiens were being quoted as one-and-a-half to two goals favorites in tonight's game and at 8:1 picks to win the best-of-seven series. The Rangers have won only two games at the Montreal Forum in the last two years—both regular-season and playoff competition included.

A Ranger victory Thursday squared the series at one game each but all the remaining games of the series are scheduled at Montreal. The Detroit Red Wings and Boston Bruins, also even at one-game each, resume their semi-final series on Sunday.

Sims Shoots 79 at Eugene

EUGENE (Special)—Rex Sims of North Salem won medalist honors in an invitational high school golf tournament with a 40-28-79 but his Viking teammates could only take fifth place in the seven team field.

The Vikings had a score of 444 to beat South Salem, who won a sixth, by five strokes. Eugene won with 424, followed by Corvallis with 430, Marshfield with 433, Albany with 436, the two Salem schools, and Roseburg with 472.

North Salem scores were Chuck Johnson 43-43-85, Stan Sather 46-42-88, Steve Jackson 47-48-83 and Gary Goulet 50-47-97.

Auto Racing Not Creampuff Sport

Records Support Troy Ruttman Claims

By HAL WOOD

United Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pat Flaherty, winner of the 1956 Indianapolis 500-mile race, says that auto racing isn't dangerous—but take the word of Troy Ruttman, who can quote the records, that it isn't exactly child's play.

Ruttman won the Indianapolis event way back in 1952 at the tender age of 22. Now a veteran of 77, he lists these after-effects from Indianapolis winners since 1950:

1951: Won by Lee Wallard. Later the same year Wallard was severely burned when his car caught fire at Reading, Pa., and he hasn't raced since.

Ruttman's Case

1952: Won by Ruttman. On Aug. 17 of the same year he suffered a broken arm and brain concussion, was in the hospital for six weeks and out of action for 21 months after an accident at Cedar Rapids, Ia.

1952-1954: Won by Bill Vukovich, who was killed in the 1955 race.

1956: Won by Bob Sweikert, who was killed racing in 1958.

1956: Won by Pat Flaherty, who was nearly killed in a race at Springfield, Ill., Aug. 16 of the same year and who hasn't returned to action since.

Ruttman is here to compete in Sunday's 100-lap national stock car race championship at Vallejo.

"But I don't think stock car racing is at all dangerous," he said, despite the fact that Walt Faulkner was killed in this same race last year.

Didn't Use Harness

Walt was killed because he didn't bother to put on his protective harness during the trials. "I didn't think he had to. The same type of accident could happen 100 times without any person getting seriously injured if they were wearing the proper protective equipment."

This year, Ruttman figures he has a good chance in the Indianapolis event.

"The men to beat in the race are Jimmy Bryan, of Phoenix, Calif.; Pat O'Connor, Mt. Vernon, Ind.; and Johnny Parsons, Van Nuys, Calif.," says Ruttman. "I figure if I get the breaks I'll be right up there. I have the best mechanic in the world and if I had my choice of all the cars at Indianapolis, I'd take the one I have."

Ruttman will be driving a car for John Zink of Tulsa, Okla. Zink owned the car driven by Flaherty when he won last year.
