Some Notations . . .

By M.L.F.

One of the beautiful teas of the pre-Easter season was the "welcome home" one for Mrs. Douglas McKay, given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. G. F. Chambers and Miss Dorthea Steustoff in the Meier & Frank-Salem Oregon room. A large group was invited to call between 2:45 and 5:30 o'clock. For many it was the first opportunity to visit with Mrs. McKay since her return from Washington, D.C. this past year. The McKays had been in the national capital more than three years during his service as Secretary of the Interior.

Simple but elegant was the tea table decor, accenting all white to give striking contrast to the aqua shades highlighting the attractive room. The centerpiece was a tall, tiered arrangement of crystal simulating an opertone, the lower level with white carnations and hyacinths and greenery; the center tier with hyacinths and stock, the top tier with all hyacinths. The tea table was set in the small party room of the main dining room. It was a very friendly and visiting occasion.

Among those greeted during our call Mrs. William C. Dyer, Sr., Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr., Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mrs. Winfield Needham, Mrs. Russell Bonesteel, Mrs. E. E. Battersman, Mrs. Frank Payne, Mrs. Fred H. Thompson, Mrs. E. R. Viskoc, Mrs. James J. Walton, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, Mrs. Chandra Brown, Mrs. Stanley Baker, Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst, Dr. Helen Pearce, Mrs. Raymond Walsh, Mrs. Charles D. Wood, Mrs. Francis Ziegler of Corvallis, here during the legislature with her husband, Senator Ziegler; Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Bruce Williams, Mrs. Earl C. Lalouette, Mrs. Harold J. Warner, here from Portland for the party; Mrs. Halk S. Lusk, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. Karl Heimel, Miss Alene Phillips, Mrs. T. W. Creech.

Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers, Mrs. Vernon Wiscarsen, Mrs. Henry M. Hansen, Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mrs. Sigfrid B. Unander, Mrs. John R. McCullough, Mrs. Sam B. Haley, Mrs. James B. Young, Miss Beryl Holt, Mrs. Ross Hogue, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Dwight Quisenberry, Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington, Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, Mrs. Leon E. Barrick, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. Clark C. McCall, Mrs. Ervin F. Smith.

With the Salem series of concerts of the Portland Symphony Orchestra completed for this season, interest is being manifest by many Salem music lovers in the "pops" concert of the orchestra to be given in McMinnville on Sunday afternoon, April 14, at 2:30 o'clock.

Since the program is slated for "Blossom Sunday" in Salem, some of those who will tour blossom areas will continue on to McMinnville for the afternoon concert which is to be given at the Linfield College gymnasium.

The so-called popular type of concert receives that designation both from the inclusion of numbers of more universal appeal and from the lower admission charge.

Selections announced for the McMinnville program follow:

Overture, "L'Italiana in Algeri" Rossini
Menuetto and Finale from "Symphony No. 40 in G Minor, K550" Mozart
"Slavonic Dance No. 8 in G Minor" Dvorak
Suite from "Carmen" Bizet
"Marche Joyeuse" Chavivier
Waltzes from "Der Rosenkavalier" Strauss
Symphonic Scenario from "My Fair Lady" arranged by Robert Russell Bennett Lerner-Laune
"An American in Paris" Gershwin
