3 Legislators Snipe at Fair Board Choices

Gov. Robert D. Holmes' appointments to the State Fair Commission drew criticism today from Reps. Eddie Ahrens, Turner Republican, and Herman Chindgren, Molalla Republican.

Both representatives, who are engaged in agriculture, said they had no criticism of the individuals appointed, but were "disappointed that no one directly engaged in agriculture or connected with livestock was appointed to the commission."

The two Republicans said "Gov. Holmes a short while ago asked that management of the State Fair be returned to the Department of Agriculture because he felt that recent fairs had not stressed agriculture enough.

"In order to make the state fair more representative of Oregon's agriculture and livestock, it seems to us that the commission should have at least a few members who truly represent and are engaged in these great and important industries."

Ahrens' brother was a member of the fair commission just resigned.

Appointed to the fair posts were John H. Travis, Hood River Sun; Del Milne, manager of the Marion hotel, Salem; V. A. Roush, Myrtle Point garage owner; Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, club woman and educator, Salem; and Ursel C. Narver, manager of the Oregon State Grange Bulletin, Portland.

Governor Proclaims Jewish Child's Day

Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP) — Mixed trends ruled in the stock market in the early afternoon Friday with aviations showing independent strength.

Volume for the day was estimated at 1,900,000 shares compared with 1,820,000 Thursday.

Demand for stocks of aviation companies, many of which are active in the guided missile field, stemmed for Great Britain's announcement of a future defense program concentrating on missiles.

Boeing led this group higher with a gain of around 2 points. Douglas and Lockheed rose more than a point.

Steels mostly declined, reflecting a drop in steel scrap prices on the West Coast, but Youngstown was an exception. It moved up a couple of points.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO (AP) — Corn led a rally in most grain futures on the Board of Trade Friday but wheat turned somewhat weak in late trading.

Strength in oats reflected trade reports that wet weather is delaying planting.

May wheat dipped more than new crop months. Some trade authorities believe the spread between May and the distant contracts, which has been running around 10 cents, is too high.

Wheat closed ¾ higher to ⅛ lower, May 2.23⅞-2.24, corn ¾ to 1¼ higher, May 1.28⅝-¾, oats ¼ to 1 cent higher, May 71¾-½, rye ¼ higher to ¼ lower, May 1.29-1.29¼, soybeans 1¼ higher to ½ lower, May 2.44¾-½, and lard unchanged to 7 cents a hundred pounds higher, May 14.67.
