

Man Jailed After Rifle Shooting in Tavern at Foster Early Friday

Bar Owner Freed After Firing One Shot

ALBANY (Special) — Joseph S. Blanco, 31-year-old Foster garage operator, was held in the Linn County jail Saturday charged with assault with a deadly weapon following a shooting incident in a Foster tavern early Friday morning. Ball was fixed at $1500 pending grand jury action.

Robert F. Curtis, 28, also of Foster, was released on his own recognizance following arraignment before District Judge Wendell H. Tomkins on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Sheriff George Miller reported that the shooting developed when Blanco and Curtis entered a tavern operated by Dave Carter early Friday morning and created a disturbance. Carter asked the men to leave, and they refused, the sheriff said. Carter then went to the rear of the tavern and returned with a rifle.

Cartridges Explode

"I have a car full of those things," Blanco told Carter, according to the sheriff, and he went outside, returning with an army carbine. Carter fired one shot that hit the magazine of the carbine, spilling its six shells onto the floor, two of which exploded. Blanco was slightly wounded in the fingers, abdomen and leg by the exploding cartridges. He and Curtis then fled.

Curtis was arrested a short time later in Sweet Home. Blanco surrendered to Sweet Home police and was sent to the Langmack Hospital for treatment.

Carter was not held.

Easter Egg Hunt At Stayton Dated

STAYTON (Special) — The North Santiam Junior Chamber of Commerce is planning an Easter egg hunt for the children of the area beginning at noon Easter Sunday and ending about 2 p.m. Jack Klundt is chairman.

The Stayton city park will be the scene of the hunt. Pre-schoolers will be provided a separate area in which to hunt for candy eggs. They will be well supervised, Klundt said.

First and second graders will be permitted to enter the hunt first, to be followed about 10 minutes later by the third and fourth graders. The hunt will be for children beginning at pre-school age and through the fourth grade. Real eggs will be used for grade school kiddies' hunt.

Some of the eggs will be numbered, entitling the finder to a prize. Each will be permitted to keep all eggs he finds, including prize eggs, and must bring his own basket or container.

Valley Dates

SILVERTON—Second polo immunization shots will be given Monday at the Eugene Field school in Silvertown from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Mrs. John Middlemiss should be contacted for service at the new Well Child Clinic May 7 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

DALLAS—A Pack meeting for Cub Scouts of Pack 36 will be held at the Morrison school Monday night, at 7:30 o'clock. Den Four will present a skit and refreshments will be served, according to George Ray, Pack secretary.

Huge Highway Fill Planned

AMITY (Special) — Glen Jacob, county highway engineer, has announced the need for 43,000 cubic yards of fill to replace 400 feet of the filling under the 665-foot bridge over Salt Creek west of Whitestone.

The Salt Creek bridge is approximately 25 feet above the ground for the majority of its length and 37 feet above the normal stream level. The fill would greatly reduce the danger of serious damage from fire during the summer months, besides eliminating a maintenance problem.

Farmer Injured In Ladder Fall

STAYTON (Special) — Serious back injuries were suffered by Ben Basl recently when he fell from a step ladder while working in the barn on the John Basl farm in the Coon Hollow District.

The injured man was taken to Santiam Memorial hospital where x-rays were taken to determine the extent of his injuries.

Family Life and Problems to Be Parent-Teacher Club Topic

STAYTON (Special) — Normal family situations, problems, and their solutions will be the theme of a special program scheduled for the Stayton Parent Teacher club for its meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the high school cafeteria.

Fred Graham, program director, announces that this program has been arranged in response to many requests for information on child guidance, mental health and attitudes.

"Sibling Rivalries and Relations" is the title of a film to be shown. A panel discussion will follow with the panel members to be Mrs. Bernice Year, moderator; Mrs. Leslie J. Carson, parent; Fred Graham, teacher; the Rev. Clyde Woods, minister; and Miss Blanche Storer, psychiatric social worker. Everyone will be welcome and is urged to attend.

The PTC is planning a ham dinner to be served April 29 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the grade school cafeteria.

Walther Group Planning Zone Meet Sunday

LEBANON (Special) — First meeting for the Walther League groups of north Willamette area following zone division will be Sunday at 3 p.m. in Bethlehem Lutheran church, for election of officers, adoption of a zone name, recreation and installation.

Opening devotions by Janice Ehrst will be followed by discussion of "Customs of Lent" with the Rev. Walter Boss of Salem as leader.

Dinner will be served by women of the church at 6 p.m., and a recreation hour afterwards will be led by Lyle Brown.

New officers will be installed at a candlelight vesper service arranged by the Rev. A. C. Kralzke. Included in the new zone boundaries are churches in Albany, Corvallis, Lebanon, Mt. Angel, Newport, Philomath, Salem, Sweet Home and Toledo.

Molalla High Tags Speakers

MOLALLA (Special)—The senior class of Molalla Union High School has selected class speakers for commencement to be held May 31. They are followed by discussion of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Marine, and Larry French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tyler French.

These two seniors were included in a list of the top 10 scholastically, in the senior class and then chosen from this list by the seniors as the boy and girl to represent the class as speakers at the commencement.

Guest speaker will be Rev. Brooks Moore of Salem Methodist church.

Both students have been active in various school organizations. Gail plans to be a PE teacher and will attend Oregon State college; Larry plans to take a course in engineering, either at Stanford or Oregon State college.
