Miss Dickman Wed Sunday

SILVERTON (Special) — The wedding of Miss Patricia L. Dickman and Aze Willard F. Allman was an event of Sunday afternoon in the First Christian church at Silverton. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Otto E. Dickman of Silverton and Mr. Allman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Allman, also of Silverton.

The rites were at 4 o'clock with the Rev. Gerold Sawyer officiating, the Rev. I. M. Nelson assisting.

bridegroom, was flower girl, wearing a white embroidered frock with pale green cummerbund. Alan Dickman, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Jack Krater was best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers were Russell Allman, Henry Madras, Thurman Krater, Robert Vetter and Dale Moore.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dickman wore a rose pink crepe dress with lace panels, white accessories and a green sylvanidium orchid corsage.

Guests were invited to the church parlors for the reception. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Louie Adams, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Eugene Goertzen and Mrs. Ivan Hershberger. Mrs. Robert Dickman, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. John Biddwell, sister of the bridegroom, assisted by Mrs. Glen Hodges, poured. Assisting were Miss Allene Loewen, Mrs. Duane Hugg, Misses Trudy and Cheryl Dickman. Mrs. Olaf Paulson, Misses Sharon McCoullough, Ivaden Evans, Dorothy Mitchell, Phyllis Tidwell, Phyllis Patterson, Marylou Foster, Aida Meek, Maryline Swafford and Vernice Thackery.

Flotted palms, yellow gladioluses and white irises decorated the church for the service. Lighting the candles were Misses Nellie Harrington and Wilma Paul. Both wore pale green taffeta frocks. Mrs. Robert Fry was soloist, Miss Norma Chambers and Lee Walstrom sang duets and Mrs. Lyle Brennaman of Eugene played the organ.

Given in marriage by her brother, Everett Dickman, the bride wore a white Chantilly lace over tulle and satin dress. The bodice, buttoned down the back, was styled with square neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt was very full with panels of tulle down the front and ruffles of lace and tulle in back extending into a chapel length train. The fingers of French tulle was arranged from a tiara of lace, tulle and seed pearls. The bride carried a white lace and satin covered Bible with a yellow throated white orchid on top and streamers caught with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Harold Dickman of Coeur d'Alene Idaho, sister-in-law of the bride, was honor attendant. She wore a forest green ballerina length dress of taffeta with green velvet cummerbund and a forest green pearl veil. She carried a nosegay of feathers, yellow carnations, white irises and ribbons.

Mrs. Jack Krater, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Marie Barker, and Mrs. Thurman Krater were the bridesmaids. They all wore pale green taffeta dresses with matching velvet cummerbunds, and identical in style to the one worn by the honor attendant. All carried nosegays of yellow feathered carnations and white irises with pale green streamers. All attendants wore pearl chokers.

Peggy Madras, niece of the

For traveling the bride wore a beige linen sheath dress embroidered in shades of brown and trimmed with brown velvet, a dark brown velvet cape, beige accessories and orchid corsage.

Following a trip to the east the couple will be at home in Amarillo, Texas, the bridegroom being stationed at the Amarillo Air Force Base.
