

Medford Fruit Frost-Periled

MEDFORD — The temperature dipped to 26 here Sunday, forcing many Medford-area fruit growers to operate smudge pots in their orchards for the first time this year.

Frost forecaster William Rogers said it will be mid-week before damage estimates can be made in the orchards where there were no smudge pots.

The orchard heaters sent clouds of smoke into the skies around Medford.

Montana Nabs 2 Suspects in Wash. Slaying

WALLA WALLA, Wash. — Police here awaited Monday arrival of pictures of two men picked up Sunday in Missoula, Mont., to learn whether a four-state search for two gunmen has been successful.

Law enforcement authorities in four states were on the alert for two gunmen who invaded a rural home card party Saturday night, killed one of the players and wounded another in a holdup attempt.

Charles Buckley, 66, of Milton-Freewater, Ore., was killed by one of the gunmen. Robert Follett, 65, an ex-cowboy, was wounded when he tried to wrest a gun from the other gunman.

Follett said a young man, between 20 and 35, knocked on the door of his home in the little community of Valley Chapel near the Oregon state line. The young man asked if he might use the telephone to call a wrecker because his car had broken down.

As Follett turned to close the door after pointing across the room to the telephone, he saw a second man, masked and with a gun in his hand, standing in the doorway.

Follett struck the man's gun hand and as he did so the gun discharged. The bullet grazed Follett's right side but did not seriously wound him. Follett then grappled with the man to get the gun away from him.

As he struggled, he said, Buckley jumped from his seat at the card table. The unmasked bandit fired twice and Buckley fell dead with two bullets in his chest. So close was Buckley to the gunman that Buckley's clothes caught fire, Follett related.

The younger bandit then struck Follett on the head several times with his gun. Follett said he fell to the floor and the two men dashed from the house.

Follett described the first gunman as being about 5-8, weighing 160 to 170 pounds, heavy set with a round face and short brown hair. The man with whom he fought was slightly shorter, weighed about 135 to 140 pounds, with a slender face, pointed chin and dark grey hair. The man had a small black mask over his eyes and wore a dark baseball type cap.

Follett said he had never seen the men before. He said he ordinarily carries "a lot" of money with him as he is a cattle buyer.

Follett was treated at a hospital after the shooting and released.

Besides Follett and Buckley, those in the party included their wives; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Miller of Milton-Freewater, and Mrs. Follett's mother, Mrs. Lucy Armstrong, who is in her 80s.

Seek New See-Sawing Record

STOCKTON, Calif.—Steven Henry, 21, left, Redding, Calif., and Michael Avo, 22, Modesto, Calif., College of Pacific students are attempting to establish a new teeter-totter record of 110 consecutive hours. They started April 3. The litter affair at one end of the teeter-totter permits one of the contestants to sleep while the other keeps the board moving up and down. The Confederate flags are flown in honor of their fraternity, the Alpha Kappa Phi, which was on the Southern side in the Civil War. (AP Wirephoto)
