

It'll Be Tough, But Braves Should Win In National League

By JOE REICHER
NEW YORK (AP)—The strongest pitching staff in the National League, a well-balanced power attack and a burning desire to atone for their frightful 1956 fall collapse should combine to bring the Milwaukee Braves their first championship.

It's not going to be easy. The Braves have weaknesses at second base, left field and in the bullpen. Position for position, they are not as set as either Brooklyn or Cincinnati. The feeling here is, however, that Manager Fred Haney's Braves will outlast the Dodgers and Redlegs because:

- Schoendienst to Braves?
1. There is a very good chance Milwaukee will complete a deal with New York for second baseman Red Schoendienst.
 2. Brooklyn will badly miss retired Jackie Robinson.
 3. Cincinnati hasn't been able to bolster its weak pitching staff.
- No other club appears capable of offering any serious resistance. The St. Louis Cardinals have a better looking team than last year but they still have a grave problem in center field and are not too secure in other positions. Pittsburgh is another improved club, but the Pirates are shy on power and have only two reliable pitchers.
- Phillips Pitching Good
- The Philadelphia Phillies have potent pitching but little else. The New York Giants, stripped by Uncle Sam of their young stars, are attempting to plug the vacancies to ease the strain a bit for Willie Mays. Chicago has Bob Scheffing, a new manager. Unfortunately, he is not a playing manager.
- How they'll finish in the National this year:
1. Milwaukee
 2. Brooklyn
 3. Cincinnati
 4. St. Louis
 5. Pittsburgh
 6. Philadelphia
 7. New York
 8. Chicago
- The Braves are standing pat with a team that tossed away the pennant last year and is going to find it hard to forget. But Haney is counting on Robinson's impugned remarks to light the much-needed fire. The boys are still seething over Jackie's off-the-cuff remarks that gay times and late hours were directly responsible for their pennant loss.

Vets Should Do Better

Haney, who is doing his best to keep the blaze red hot, is counting on several of his key men—Eddie Mathews, Del Crandall, Danny O'Connell and Bobby Thomson—doing a better job. He was no worrier regarding Johnny Logan, the most underrated shortstop in the league; Hank Aaron; Joe Adcock; and Bill Bruton.

He has tremendous pitching depth even though Warren Spahn, his 36-year-old ace, may not win 20. Bob Buhl, Lew Burdette, Gene Conley, Ray Crone, Taylor Phillips, Bob Trowbridge, Red Murff and maybe Juan Pizarro bode ill for opposing batsmen.

There is a growing suspicion that this is the year when "old age" really will tell. The return from service of southpaw Johnny Podres and the development of youngsters Don Drysdale and Sandy Koufax will help, but can Sal Maglie, 40; Roy Campanella, 36; PeeWee Reese, 37; and Carl Furillo, 35, keep up the pace?

Padres' Elliott Fractures Ankle

The Beavers won the game, 4-3, after putting down a two-run Padre rally in the ninth inning. At Anaheim, the Hollywood Stars smashed five home runs in beating Seattle, 16-4, for a bang-up wind-up of their exhibition season.
