Rainiers Get 14-3 Decision

Seattle Provides Bonus Player For Salem

WASCO, Calif. (Special) — It's back to Class B competition today and Thursday for the Salem Senators who will play Lewiston's Indians this afternoon at Baker's field, then host Lewiston here Thursday night.

But Tuesday night the young Solons were up against the power of a Pacific Coast League club, the Seattle Rainiers, who whipped Manager Bill Brenner's lads, 14-3, in nine interesting innings.

In the good news department was the tip that Seattle gave the Senators a bonus infielder, Bob Campbell, who is a rifle-armed third baseman who played for Seattle last night.

Tyler Dominates

Brenner had his eyes opened by the hitting of one of his Senators, Walt Tyler, Negro first baseman who got two doubles and a single off Seattle pitching for all but one of Salem's hits. Gene Laursen, holdover third baseman, got a line-drive double for the other hit.

Veteran Bob Durello, who can play most anywhere as soon as his broken finger heals, pinch hit with bases loaded in the fifth inning, drove in Laursen from third with a hard drive.

Jack Sanoff pitched the first five innings for Salem and was touched for five hits and six runs. Brenner pointed out that only two of the runs were earned.

Vanni in Charge

Willie Neal hurled the last four frames and gave the Rainiers eight runs and eight hits, but giving the Suds extra chances were the eight errors Salem committed.

Edo Vanni was acting manager of Seattle because Lefty O'Doul was in San Francisco on business.

Brenner said he plans to cut "live or six" Saturday and expects veteran pitcher Vern Klinefather, infielder George Maitle and catcher Harvey Knefl from Salem, plus pitcher Andy George from New Jersey.

Bearcats To Host Beavers

WU Loses Twice To Ducks by 8-2, 8-6

Willamette University will be on the home diamond for the first time this season Thursday when it hosts the Oregon State College baseball team at 2:30.

Coach John Lewis, whose Bearcats dropped two at University of Oregon Tuesday, 8-2 and 8-6, said he plans to start Dick Hartley, with Dan Feller and Benny Holt in relief. WU lost to the Beavers last Wednesday.

Willamette, outfit Oregon in the second game but duck superiorly in pitching and consistent hitting paid off. Lewis said that Johnny Fredericks looked good in his first varsity appearance and that Vic Backlund, Frank Caruso and Tom Moore were his most consistent hitters.

Terry Maddox, with four hits, led Oregon in the first game as Willamette fell behind 8-0 before Backlund doubled to score Caruso, Moore singled and Gary Burd doubled.

Caruso, Willamette's leading hitter last year, hit a 370-foot home run over the fence as lead-off in the second game. After three innings it was 3-3. Willamette went ahead 4-3 in the fourth when Eddie Grossenbacher slammed a triple to score Fred Butler.

Oregon burst loose for four runs to make sure of it.

WU to Host 3-Way Track Go Saturday

Willamette University will be host to a triangular track meet Saturday afternoon rather than go to Pacific University, Coach Ted Ogdahl said today.

Competing will be Willamette, Pacific and Pacific Lutheran. Field events will start at 1 p.m. and track events at 1:30.

Ogdahl said that his leading discus thrower, Dale Greenlee, will be absent and that Don Miller, a distance man, has been sick. Also sick recently was Larry Thompson, who does many events well. Both will be on hand Saturday.

PORTLAND (Special) — A grand-slam home run by Wally Harding in the eighth inning gave Portland State a 6-4 baseball victory over Pacific Tuesday.

Gary Lansing, who pitched for PSC, allowed only six hits.

Vikings Pocket 3rd Pre-District Game

North Salem stayed undefeated and started pointing for its league opener against South next Tuesday by blanking Silverton 7-0 on Barrick field Tuesday.

The Vikings had little trouble against the Foxes in winning their third straight pre-league game. They made eight hits account for seven runs, topped by a four-run blast in the sixth.

North pitchers Darwyn Harris and Pat Kelly were stingy and yielded only two hits to Silverton. Gary Vestal got two doubles and a single to lead the hitters.

Kent Lammer's home run scored North's first two runs in the second after Vestal's double. The Vix took a 3-0 lead in the third and then got four more when Gary Kant singled one run in, scored himself on an error, Val Barnes walked, then scored on a double by Ed Kitchen and Vestal doubled to score two.
