

Court Ruling Likely to Block All Oil Drilling by Railroads

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a ruling that may have wide-ranging implications, the U.S. Supreme Court Monday ruled 5-3 that the Union Pacific Railroad cannot drill for oil and gas on a 1,083-mile right-of-way granted it by Congress on July 1, 1882.

While the decision specifically applies to the Union Pacific, government legal experts informally interpret it as broad enough to apply to similar right-of-way grants to other Western railroads between 1882 and 1871.

The grant to the Union Pacific extended "200 feet in width on each side of the railroad where it may pass over public lands." It also included "necessary grounds for stations, buildings, workshops and depots, machine shops, switches, side tracks, turntables, and water stations."

Government lawyers said other railroads which received land grants for right-of-way and which might be affected by the decision include the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, the Northern Pacific, the Milwaukee, the Burlington and the Southern Pacific.

In addition to grants for right-of-way, the Union Pacific and some other Western railroads also received other land grants, but these were not involved in the decision.

The Union Pacific, for instance, received every alternate section of public land on each side of the road.

All mineral lands were excepted. Machinery was provided, however, for the Interior Department to determine whether the alternate sections were "mineral lands." Many years ago the department, in releasing the lands outright to the railroads, held they were not "mineral lands." Experts on the subject say this relinquished any government claim to mineral rights. The Justice Department makes no contention that the railroads' rights are limited on these lands.

AWOL Soldier Leaves Ore. to Clear Up Mess

DETROIT (AP) — Perry Hunt, 67-year-old Army corporal, AWOL for seven years, will be transferred Thursday to Ft. Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, for further action on his case.

Hunt, who said he had lived at Roseburg, Ore., the last four years, surrendered to the FBI in Charlotte, Mich., last Friday "to get this mess straightened out."

Hunt, who said he had been in the Army 18 years, including service in both World Wars, left his post at Ft. Lewis on Nov. 15, 1950. He had re-enlisted as a private in 1948.

He said he went AWOL because the Army had not done anything about his ulcers and a stomach condition.

Hunt said he worked as a barber, in a sawmill "and anything I could get" at Roseburg. He went to Charlotte three weeks ago, he said, because his father-in-law was ill.

Japan Halts Plan For Protest Ships

TOKYO (AP) — The Japan Council Against Atomic and Hydrogen Bombs Tuesday postponed plans to send two ships to the Central Pacific to protest Britain's H-bomb tests at Christmas Island.

The council announced that a committee had been formed to study the proposal.

Earlier, the council announced it would send suicide ships inside the safety borders of the blast area. Monday the kamikaze plan was scrapped in favor of sending two ships to skirt the blast area.

Mitchell Damage Suits Go to Trial

FOSSIL, Ore. (AP) — Mitchell residents are making their second attempt to collect $299,000 damages from the state because of a cloud-burst and flash flood last July.

An earlier court hearing ended in a mistrial.

A jury was selected Monday to hear the first of nine suits. It was brought by Mrs. Lena Sigrist.

The Mitchell residents contend the cloudburst was channeled into Mitchell stores and houses by construction of a state highway.
