Students Enjoy Vacation, Now Face Busy Calendar

By CAROL MCMINIMEE (Capital Journal Correspondent). Except for those unfortunate seniors who hibernated among library stacks in preparation for their oral and comprehensive senior exams to be given Thursday, the majority of students returning to the Willamette campus from their week long spring vacation are sporting first-class California suntans. In addition to those who vacationed in the sunny regions, the Willamette Choir, on their annual tour, took time out for sunning. Among the Salemites in the South were Nancy Weeks, Darrell Wright, Barbara Anderson, John Cauble, Michelle Edwards, Beverly Hamman, Sandra McCabe, Roger Moorhead, Coralie Roseberry, Ralph Van Horn, John Jelders, and Bill Joseph, the latter two being house guests of Bay area friends.

A gathering of the Willamette chapter took place at the San Mateo Y.M.C.A. on April 1 when the admissions office in co-operation with the students presented a program on Willamette to prospective "Willamettes." Afterwards, nearly 50 of the vacationers gathered at the Hillsborough home of Don Sommer.

Back in Portland the Willamette Nu Delta Chapter of Chi Omega won first place honors at their Eleusinian Luncheon at the Campbell Court Hotel in a song contest with the Oregon Chi Omega chapters. Leading Joan Thronson, Sally Dodge, Toni Folsom, Debbie Bain, Jane Dedrick, Marilyn Cochran, Shirley Ulinder, Ann Chambers, Mary Turner, Suzy Platt, LoAnne Mundinger, and Marilyn Morton in their winning songs was Lynn Coleman of Portland. Miss Marion, as Nu Delta chapter president, also took part in the luncheon program.

Attend Convention. Willamette Delta Gamma's Annette Carson, Esther Gwilliam, and Gail Ostrom accompanied their official delegate and house president, Ann Barber, to their sorority convention on the University of Washington campus in Seattle. During the meet the Willamette
