

Musical Fete At Woodburn On Saturday

WOODBURN (Special) — Junior high school musicians will compete at Woodburn High School Saturday in a western district Oregon music educators contest. Fourteen schools will be represented.

More than 400 instrumentalists will perform in band, solo and small ensemble numbers. This does not include students from North Marion combined grade schools, Hubbard, Aurora, Butteville, Broadacres and Donald who will play for comment only. More than 200 vocalists will perform.

Host chairmen for the event are E. Donald Jessop and Joann Meyer, band and vocal instructors in Woodburn public schools, and includes Charles M. Campbell, principal of the Washington grade school, David C. Cavett, Woodburn High School principal, and Frank P. Doerfler, Superintendent of the Woodburn schools.

Adjudicators who will judge the various events are Robert Cunningham, Milton Dieterich and Robert Wagner of the University of Oregon faculty, Donald Diercks, University of Portland and Jess Foster, assistant superintendent of music for Portland schools.

In addition to Woodburn schools competitors are entered from Albany, Cascade, Dallas, Junction City, Leslie and Parrish, Salem, and Mark Twain of Silverton junior high schools, Sweet Home union high school and Crowfoot, Mill City, Pleasant Hill and Sweet Home elementary schools. The program will open at 9 a.m. and continue throughout the day.

Skywatch Post Will Be Opened On Dallas Roof

DALLAS (Special) — Dallas' long-awaited Ground Observer Post will swing into action Saturday if all goes as scheduled. According to Mrs. Joe Card, supervisor of the post, volunteers will man the post during the daytime and evening at the start and it may be operated later on a 24-hour-a-day basis.

Some 200 have volunteered to assist in the lower atop the Dallas City Hall but many of those must be contacted and confirmed. Shifts will be two hours each and only the instruction of one class session is needed.

Valley Dates

Three 'Girls of the Month' Chosen by Dallas High Group

DALLAS (Special) — Girls of the Month for April, May and June were named at a meeting of the Girls League at Dallas High School Wednesday morning.

Selected for April was Mary McQueen, chosen for being the most feminine; LaVerne Price was selected as girl of the month for May and her outstanding qualification was scholarship; her faithful school support won for Kay Wells the title of girl of the month for June.

Mary, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nairn, is president of the Future Homemakers of America at the high school, is secretary of the senior class and was a Homecoming princess this year and is active in several other activities.

As queen, LaVerne reigned over the Sweetheart ball at the high school and was named the Betty Crocker Homeemaker of tomorrow at Dallas high school earlier this year and is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy McGee and Anson Price.

President of the Girls League, Kay Wells, recently returned from Boise, Idaho, where she represented her school in the regional music conference held there. She takes an active part in chorus and was a Homecoming princess.

The girl of the month for May and June were chosen early so that Girl of the Year could be named at the annual Mothers tea to be held May 7 honoring mothers of the members of the Girls League. Installation of new officers will also take place at that time.

Presbyterian Women Outline Woodburn's Spring Schedule

WOODBURN (Special) — The monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Assn. was Wednesday, April 10, at 1:30 p.m. in the church social room. Mrs. Eldon Hart presided and Mrs. O. L. Withers led the devotional service.

Speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Edwin Gurney, who with her husband has served as missionary in Honduras for the past five years. The Gurneys are former Woodburn residents and are now here on a nine months furlough. She talked on the work in Honduras and showed pictures.

Appointed on the visiting committee for the month were Mrs. Warren D o n n e r, Mrs. Gerald Smith and Mrs. Hart.

Circle meetings will be held April 24. The Forsythe Circle will meet at the church at 10 a.m. to work on a quilt. Sack lunches will be brought by members and coffee and dessert will be served by Mrs. Elbert Isom and Mrs. Alfred Moon. The Maria Sandilands Circle will meet at the church in the afternoon and the Esther circle with Mrs. Anton Hamby at her home in Joyce street Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

A report on the recent Presbyterian meeting at Brownsville was given by Mrs. Harry VanArsdale, Mrs. William B. Dunn and Mrs. Alfred Moon. It was announced that the Bishop Players would present a play

Farm Labor Office Ready For Woodburn

WOODBURN (Special) — The state temporary Farm Labor office for the north Marion County area will open for the spring and summer season Monday, in the Woodburn American Legion building on the Pacific highway.

Larry Austin of Woodburn will be in charge of the program for his eighth consecutive year. The office will be open from 8 a.m. until noon and from 1 to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays for the present.

Persons seeking farm employment and farmers wanting workers may register at the office. No charge is made for finding jobs or sending out workmen, the program being conducted by the State Employment Office.

Austin requests that farmers of the area register their probable needs for the season or job openings as soon as possible.

Stairway Exhibits Feature Polk County Home Festival

By MIKE FOIBES
Capital Journal Valley Editor
MONMOUTH (Special) — Stairway Landings were brightened in Campbell Hall here Thursday with exhibits in the Annual Polk County Home Festival prepared by the skilled hands of Home Extension Unit members.

The booths, depicting scenes, products and souvenirs of many lands studied by the unit members during the last year were tucked away in corners of each stairway landing from the ground floor to the top at the doorway of the auditorium.

Favorite nations stressed by the units were Holland, Finland, Norway, and Arabia.

Attracting wide attention was a booth prepared by the Dallas Unit which featured a table covered with products from numerous nations throughout the world. Blue ribbons led from the exhibited objects to the nation of its origin on a large map above.

West Salem's Unit exhibited a booth featuring Holland, and Falls City Unit had an attractive table filled with Arabian souvenirs and products.

Mrs. John Boening, chairman of the County Committee, presided over the meeting which started in the auditorium at 1:15 p.m., and closed with a coffee hour in the OCE Lounge in the Library Building.

Other members of the Committee were Mrs. Eugene Clarke, vice chairman; Mrs. Frank Thomas, secretary; Earl Reed, treasurer; and Mrs. Jarrold McKibben, Mrs. Cecil Hultman, and Mrs. George Thompson.
