Orchestras Face Great Challenge

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—A symphony orchestra, says Conductor William Steinberg, faces a great challenge "to preach the gospel of music wherever we can."

'Skip-Tracer' Outfit Probed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Porter (D-Ore) said Wednesday the Post Office Department's inspection service is investigating operations of a "skip-tracer" organization in Oregon.

The congressman did not identify the organization. He said the firm is using forms similar to those of the Internal Revenue Bureau. He said postal officials told him the firm operates out of Washington, D. C.

Porter said the form used by the company frequently contains a statement to the effect that the sum is "collectible" in return for the information requested.

To some persons, Porter said, the statement is an implied promise of money coming to them.

"Too many times, the sum specified is the amount owed by the individual, and is collectible from them," he warned.

House Unit to Act on School Grants May 1

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Education Committee decided Thursday to consider formally on May 1 a bill to grant two billion dollars in federal aid for school construction.

The vote was 15-10 with some members urging that the committee meet again next week.

Rep. Bailey (D-WVa) said the 1,500 pages of subcommittee hearings on the bill would not be in printed form until April 30.

Bailey, a supporter of the five-year school aid program, is chairman of the subcommittee which approved it. Noting that Congress is due back from its Easter recess April 29, he said Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) told him it would be a desirable to have the bill ready for floor debate after Easter.

WHO RATES SALUTE? CHICAGO (UPI)—The leadership of Post 428, Jewish War Veterans, is all in the family, as far as Mr. and Mrs. Leo Herz are concerned.

Herz has been commander and his wife, Esther, vice commander of the post.

Major orchestras in the U. S. and Europe regularly go on tour. But usually they visit other large cities.

Last night's concert in Warren, and five other stops during the season were, on the contrary, big musical events in relatively small communities.

Light Company Pays All costs were paid by Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., a natural gas firm serving western Pennsylvania area outside Pittsburgh. The utility scheduled the concerts as a public service.

Local sponsors kept all proceeds from ticket sales for use in local projects.

He emphatically approves of this semicommercial sponsorship, says it is infinitely superior to the European system in which similar orchestras are maintained by tax funds.

WISHING WELL

Wishing Well puzzle grid with numbers 1-25 and letters A-Z.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune.

Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number.

Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
