

Byerley-Vancil Ceremony At Church Saturday Night

At a double ring service in the Court Street Christian Church, Saturday night, Miss Marjorie Vancil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Vancil, was married to James Thomas Byerley, son of Mrs. John Sherman of Salem and of Wesley Byerley of Albany.

Spring flowers, featuring yellow shades, and candelabras with yellow tapers, decorated the church for the 8 o'clock service at which the Rev. Donald Priest officiated.

Lighting the candles before the service were Misses Rachel Vancil and Lorelei Holman, both wearing green taffeta frocks. Miss Shirley Pugh was soloist, accompanied by Miss Janet Pearsall. Miss Darlene Goodman played the organ music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of embroidered net fashioned with three flounces for the ballerina length skirt. The bodice was styled with scalloped sweetheart neckline, long sleeves pointed over the wrists, and satin buttons closing the bodice at the back. The fingertip veil of French nylon tulle fell from a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. For her flowers the bride carried a white lace fan centered with a white, yellow-throated orchid arranged with yellow roses and satin shower.

Miss Mary Sue Vancil was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a yellow nylon over taffeta frock and carried a flared cascade bouquet of daffodils with white hyacinths and tufts of yellow net.

Miss Edna Snitker was bridesmaid. She wore a green nylon over taffeta dress and her flowers were the same arrangement as carried by the honor attendant, but with green net.

John Byerley was best man for his brother. The groomsmen were Harold Culbertson. Ushers were Roy Cuff, James Norton, George Wright, Jr.

The bride's mother wore a toast brown suit with toast and turf brown accessories and a corsage of gold and brown cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories and corsage of two-tone pink cymbidium orchids.

At the reception in the church parlors, Miss Mary Louise Lee and Mrs. Harold Culbertson cut the cake, Mrs. Wayne Greenwood and Mrs. John Byerley poured. Assisting were Mrs. Leon Boyer, Mrs. Wesley Byerley, Mrs. Roger Morse, Miss Darlene Miller, David Byerley. The bride's table was covered with a white, organically over yellow cloth, and decorated with yellow and green candles and flowers.

For her going away costume the bride wore a baby blue satinated cotton sheath dress with matching duster, white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Salem following a trip to the Oregon beaches.

King Cottons Crowned—A big event of Saturday night for the high school set was the annual Cotton Ball given by Y-Teens of both local high schools. Two King Cottons were crowned, one for each high school. In the group above, left to right: Miss Pauli Claggett, Ed Sunderlin, King Cotton from North Salem High School; Bill Hazel, King Cotton from South Salem High, and Miss Marcia Humphrey. Elaborate and colorful decorations marked the party, given in the YWCA gymnasium. (Bob Court picture)

Rainbow Order Honors Members

WOODBURN (Special) — Miss Judy Schmid, grand representative to Oklahoma of the grand assembly of Order of Rainbow for Girls, and Miss Betty Lou Burt, grand choir member, were honored at a reception last week by Evergreen Assembly at the Woodburn Masonic Temple.

Guests honored were Miss Susan V. Jackson of Venus Assembly, grand representative to New Hampshire; Miss Judy Orvold, worthy adviser of Venus Assembly; Miss Clea McMorris, worthy adviser of Cherry Assembly, Salem; Miss Molly Atchison, grand nature, Laurel Assembly, Canby; Miss Carol Ann Livesay, junior past worthy adviser, Evergreen Assembly; Miss Jo McNary, past worthy adviser of Venus Assembly; Miss Judy Coleman, worthy adviser of Newberg Assembly and grand representative to Georgia; Mrs. Hazel Irwin, worthy matron of Laurel Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star and Mrs. Luf Peterson, grand representative to Montana and junior past matron of Evergreen Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Miss Schmid and Miss Burt were honored with special degrees and made brief talks. A skit was presented by the drill team and other numbers on the program were a piano solo by Miss Barbara Paulson and vocal numbers by Miss Lorraine Heide, accompanied by Miss Joann Meyer. The climax of the program hour was a hat making contest, with hats fashioned from newspapers and pins. The hats were modeled by the designers in a parade and judged by Arthur Burt and Howard Leighty. Prizes in the women's group went to Mrs. Gardner Jeffery and Mrs. Frank Doerfler, and in the girls' group to Miss Harriet VanArsdale, first, and Miss Doris Bright, second.

Refreshments served in the dining room included a Rainbow cake. The committee serving were Misses Charlotte Seely, Joy Schimpf, JoAnn Norris, Janice and Esther Reiling, Judie Reed and Barbara Paulson, assisted by several of the mothers. The program was arranged by Misses Beadie Cummings, Nancy Cornwell and Shirley Marks.

At the business meeting preceding the reception plans were

Dallas Woman Named as Deanery Chairman

DALLAS (Special) — St. Ann's Altar Society of St. Philip's Catholic Church met at St. Philip's Kindergarten last week with the Rev. Albert Rodakowski giving the opening prayer. Mrs. Joe Schumacher, Jr., was in charge of the business session.

A ham dinner is being planned for Sunday, May 5, and will be served from 12 noon until 4 p.m. The public is welcome.

Star Meeting

MILL CITY (Special) — Mrs. William Hutcheson presided at her first meeting as worthy matron of Marilyn Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, last week. She was assisted by her husband as worthy patron. Mrs. Hutcheson outlined her program for the year.

A special feature of the evening was a skit depicting the origin of Easter, with the conductress, Mrs. Elsie Volkel telling the history of the "Bunny Rabbit," associate conductress, Mrs. Gladys Lake, explaining the tradition of colored eggs for Easter; and the associate matron, Mrs. Julia Kern, discussing "Fashions in the Easter parade." The courtesy girls appeared in Easter bonnets as the men of the chapter accompanied them in the "Easter Parade."

It was announced that obligation night would be observed May 13 when four other chapters have been invited to attend. Mothers will be especially honored that evening.

A visitor for the evening was Mrs. Nina Hoover, worthy matron of the Sweet Home Chapter. Refreshments were served by the line officers using the Easter theme.

Lincoln Goodwill Club Plans Events

LINCOLN (Special) — Garden flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms at the home of Mrs. S. A. Hackett at Lincoln when she entertained with a dessert for the Lincoln Goodwill Club last week. Co-hostess was Mrs. Eva Purvine and assisting with refreshments was Mrs. George Smith, of Redding, Calif., daughter of Mrs. Hackett. Mrs. Lloyd Hoxie was devotional leader and Mrs. Edward Schlegel gave the Easter story.

The club will make articles of clothing for the Polk County Red Cross and will aid in a 4-H Club scholarship to the Oregon State College summer school, in which the Spring Valley Home Missionary Society, the Lincoln - Spring Valley home extension unit and the Spring Valley Sunshine Club will also participate. Hal Washburn, 4-H member of Zena, is eligible for the scholarship.

Plans were made for assisting with the annual plant sale sponsored by the Country Garden Club on May 10 and 11 at Brush College store.

Mrs. H. J. Neiger, Mrs. S. A. Hackett, and Miss Alpha Logsdon were appointed as nominating committee for election of officers in May. The meeting next month will be May 15 instead of May 9 due to the plant sale scheduled for the two following days.

Mrs. H. D. Burns will be hostess to the club for the Mother's Day meeting in May.

BPW to Hear Attorney

DALLAS (Special) — Guest speaker at the Monday evening, April 15, meeting of the Dallas Business and Professional Women's Club will be Kenneth Shetterly, Dallas attorney. Topic of Mr. Shetterly's speech will be legal problems on which women would like to be better informed.

Guests at the meeting of the club, celebrating its tenth birthday this month, will be members of the Corvallis BPW club, which presented the charter to the Dallas club in April, 1947; the Salem club, sponsor of the Dallas club at that time; and the Willamina club, which was organized and sponsored by the Dallas club last year.

A business meeting at 7:30 will precede the program and birthday party.

LYONS (Special)

The Altar Society of St. Patrick's Catholic Church met at the Sam Bridges' home last week, with Mrs. Pauline Tibbitts as hostess.

A cooked food sale was set for Saturday, April 20, beginning at 10 a.m. at the Gas Heat store. It was decided to sell the remainder of the cook books of the association for half price. Books may be purchased from any club member.

MOLALLA (Special)

Mrs. Elmer Cordill entertained her pinocle club of two tables last week. A dessert preceded the afternoon of card playing. Mrs. Ron Dicken has invited the group to her home for the next session Thursday afternoon, April 25.

SILVERTON (Special)

Local school teachers, Mrs. F. J. Roubal and Stanley Baird, were honored by inclusion on the slate of officers of the Marion County division of the Oregon Education Association at the recent meeting of the division in Salem. Mrs. Roubal was designated for the presidency and Mr. Baird as secretary.

Miss Marguerite Hallock was elected as delegate from the county to the annual meeting of the state association.

During the program, Mrs. W. F. Scarth gave vocal solos, accompanied by Mr. Baird.

NOW Lodge Installs

New officers were installed by Silver Bell Circle No. 43, Neighbors of Woodcraft, at its meeting Friday evening at the Salem Woman's Club house.

Those seated at the ceremonies were Jesse McNeill, guardian neighbor; Mrs. John McCracken, past guardian neighbor; Miss Emma Peters, adviser; Mrs. Charles Ingraham, magician; Miss Pearl Bairey, clerk; Mrs. Harry Bressler, banker; Mrs. Gomer Edwards, attendant; Mrs. Aretta Ingram, inner sentinel; Mrs. Nancy Ashcraft, outer sentinel; Russell Winchcomb, captain of guards; Charles Ingraham, flag bearer; Mrs. George Smalley, musician; Mrs. O. B. Long, Mrs. R. E. Miller, Mrs. Jesse McNeill, managers; Mrs. J. H. Igleheart, correspondent; Mrs. Joe Black, senior guardian.

Fifty-year members honored were Mrs. Stella Blackerby, Mrs. Aretta Ingram and Mrs. Cora Smith. Mrs. McCracken was inducted into the Past Guardian Neighbors Club.

Officers Installed By VFW Auxiliary

SILVERTON (Special) — Mrs. Ronald Syron was installed as president of the Silverton Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at a meeting last week at the Knights of Pythias Hall. Special guests were Mrs. Les Jordan, district president of the auxiliary, and her team of installing officers from the Molalla Auxiliary.

Other officers inducted were Mrs. Frank Roemer, senior vice president; Mrs. Vester Seydell, junior vice president; Mrs. L. M. Elliott, secretary; Mrs. Olaf Tokstad, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Edgerton, chaplain; Mrs. Clarence Quartier, conductress; Mrs. Gertrude Moen, guard; Mrs. Harry Walker, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Catherine Lynch, banner bearer; Mrs. William Shackelford, Mrs. Leonard Morgan, Mrs. Clarence Greenfield and Mrs. Emil Grant, color bearers; Harry Walker, Mrs. Earl Reed and Mrs. Emil Grant, trustees; Mrs. Mary Wilch, historian; Mrs. Lewis Thomas, musician.

Special guests were present from Salem, Woodburn, Gladstone and Molalla.

Mrs. Frank Durschmidt and Mrs. Earl Reed headed the refreshment committee.

Next meeting of the auxiliary will be April 24 at the VFW Hall.

Dan'l Boone, Jr. — He's a heman from his coonskin cap to his two-piece sleepers in the kind of print a man likes.

Dr. Robb Club Speaker

MONMOUTH (Special) — Dr. Alan Robb of the Oregon College of Education staff was speaker at the Delphian Book Club meeting at the home of Mrs. A. L. Thomas with Mrs. Nick Versteeg assisting. He told of the teaching experiences that he and his wife had shared in Guatemala.

Visitors were Mrs. Harrison Brant, Mrs. Kent Farley and Mrs. Harold Elkins.

The May meeting will be with Mrs. Etta Welch and Mrs. Estella Fluke assisting.

MOLALLA (Special)

When St. Williams Altar Society met recently, a gift of $20 to the Junior Catholic Daughters to be used for a campship for Camp Howard this summer was approved. A general cleaning of the church was set for Thursday, April 18, at 9 a.m. by the society members.

Birthday For Club

Mrs. Louise Humphrey will be the guest speaker for the April 18 meeting of the Salem Altrusa club at the Marion Hotel, 6:15 p.m.

The meeting is under the direction of the information committee, Miss Peggy E. Peterson, chairman. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. John Versteeg and Mrs. Addison W. Lane.

Mrs. Humphrey is presently in Salem, working with the Legislature and is the executive secretary of the Oregon Tax Research. She is also a member of the Portland Altrusa Club.

This is the 40th anniversary celebration of Altrusa which was organized at Nashville, Tenn., April 11, 1917. From this small beginning it has grown steadily and became International in scope in 1935 when a club was organized in Mexico. There are now 411 clubs located in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Guatemala, Mexico, Bermuda, Puerto Rico and Hawaii, with a membership of 13,700. This club is in the Twelfth District with 39 clubs and 1,186 members.

Altar Society Plans Pre-Easter Food Sale

GERVAIS (Special) — St. Rita's Altar Society of Gervais met last week to make final plans for the pre-Easter cooked food sale on Saturday, April 20, from 11:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m., at the Gervais Hardware. Mrs. Martin Seifer and Mrs. Stan Seguin are co-chairmen for the parish event.

The Sacred Heart parish is sponsoring a creamed chicken dinner on Sunday, May 5 from 11:20 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. at the Sacred Heart Hall. Mrs. George Schell was named chairman of the dinner.

Refreshment committee for the May meeting will be Mrs. Mary Nosack, Mrs. Gertrude Bering, Mrs. Lena Brn and Mrs. John Dietrich. The ladies of the parish are being asked to assist with the pre-Easter church cleaning on Thursday, April 18, starting at 9:00 a.m.

SHERIDAN (Special)

Mrs. Helen Walker of Salem was honored on her 80th birthday with a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. James Maddox of Sheridan. Guests were Mrs. Clara Wilson of Salem, Mrs. Les Dezel and Mrs. Margaret Logan of Portland.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY ON PAGE 4, SEC. 3

"IT'S SPRING"
in the
CAPITOL SHOPPING CENTER

We're all "dressed up" for Easter!

- Visit the Friendliest Stores in Town.
- Organ music Monday and Friday nights.
- See the giant Easter displays.
- It pays to shop in the Capitol Shopping Center.

poised sophistication in the Easter parade

of course, Kerrybrookes*

- patent complements falls pump 9.98
- eggshell pump in calf or broadball 8.98
- hipple cloth, patent or calf pump 9.98
- fashion is dear in see-thru vinyl 9.98
- new-as-tomorrow 2-texture fashion 9.98
- lorest minimum in patent or calf 9.98
- Spring beauty in patent or calf 9.98
- inwater pump in patent or calf 9.98
- eggshell... popular as it is easy 8.98

OPEN MONDAY
AND FRIDAY
NIGHTS TIL 9.00

*fashion without extravagance

"Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back" SEARS

EM 3-9191
550 N. Capitol

Easter means a new hat for everyone

We've hundreds of pretty approaches to Easter 1957. Rough and smooth straws... printed chiffon... lace... name it and we have it in our tremendous assortment. Flowers, veiling and organza provide a lit that is positively heady. We've all the right angles on the 1930 tilt. Every size is here, every color is here and price is a matter between you and your budget.

10.95 up

Miller's