C'est Okay

French film comedian Ferrandel watches approvingly as fellow comic Bob Hope plants a kiss on check of actress Anita Ekberg during a bit of clowning for photographers at Paris party last Friday night. The three co-star in "Paris Holiday" soon to be filmed in the French capi-tal. (AP Wirephoto)

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Early last year 1 met an army man, a bachelor of 39, one year my senior. We re been dating steadily ever since. He often mentions a luture together, or romarks, in the presence of others, "We intend to go there, or do this, after we're interied." But he has never spoken a word, bout marriage to me. Missy. DEAR MISSY: It's certainly about time you for the situation clarified. At the first appropriate the ask him when this marriage is taking place. Don't be demure. Marriage is tunportant are the on't be demure. Marriage is tunportant are the to ask him when this marriage is taking place. Don't be demure. Marriage is tunportant are the ask for being cey about it are gene. May for being cey about it are gene. May the marriage looks good to him, but there's a wisiful refluctance in part with his backeler standing. Therefore, it's up to you to end the suspense. DEAR DOROTHY DIX: At 21 1 married, more to get away from an unhappy home than because 1 was in love. I'm still not happy, though 1 guess I have everything a woman could want-adoring hus-band, nice home, very good in-laws and a lovely baby. My husband has his own business and is so wrapped up in it that he hasn't time for me. I quarrel with him about it, but all 1 get is the silent treatment-Libby. DEAR LIBRY: Does It ever secur to you that your husband's hard work is giving you all the things that make the contrable? This is a highly competitive world, and a man in husiness for him-self has enough of a struggle without a complaining wife. Of caurse you'd like him all to yourself-what wite wouldn't? You must learn, however, that you aren't the only one in the world with problems. He has plenty. DEAR DOROTHY DIX: At 21 I married, more to get away from

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I'm a girl of 16 with a bad habit of smok-ing. I smoke when I'm mad or have a quarrel with my boy friend, or for my nerves. My mother wants me to quit, what can 1 do?-Trouble

Troubled. DEAR TROUBLED: "Nerves" should be an unknown word at your age. Find a more congenial boy frirod, so you won't quarrel so much, do a little homework on your disposition, and have Mom take you to a doctor. Some will power will be a help, too.

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Or write for her free leaflet D-7. "Disposition." In all cases, be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed egyclope, and send request to her, care of this newspaper.
