Men Pitch Right In and Help

By MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER
Capital Journal Writer

Full of enthusiasm, determination and good food, some 100 workers went out from a kickoff breakfast Tuesday morning to do their share in raising the $100,000 sought for the new YWCA swimming pool.

The breakfast was in the YWCA gymnasium. Al W. Loucks, co-chairman, men's division, was master of ceremonies and explained the work ahead. The workers' envelopes were distributed at this time.

Mrs. William C. Crothers, general committee chairman, outlined the history and need of the project, concluding with: "Salem has done well for its men and boys, will it do as well for its women and girls?"

Frank Explains
Gerry Frank, campaign chairman, outlined the events for the drive. The advanced gifts phase already has been conducted; now begins the general solicitation. Then comes the "noisy" campaign with several special events scheduled.

Loucks told the group there is only one way to get funds for such a project — make contacts, sell your project and bring in the money.

Captains for the different teams, working in this general solicitation, both men's and women's divisions, are:

Women's Division — Mrs. F. E. Albada, Mrs. James Armbrist, Mrs. Ben Cave, Mrs. Glen Fravel, Mrs. Chester Fritz, Mrs. Robert Gangware, Mrs. John Groom, Mrs. Marens Malby, Mrs. Joseph W. Matulec, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. Glen Weaver and Mrs. Wayne L. Weeks.

Men's Division — William Bush, J. Earl Cook, Arthur Bates,

Police Find 2nd Purse In Millrace

Another purse has been recovered from the millrace near the Oregon Pulp and Paper Co. mill, city police reported Tuesday.

Officers said the brown leather purse was recovered from a screen in the millrace Monday by A. E. Robbins, 688 S. Lancaster Dr., an employee of the mill. It was empty.

A billfold, coin purse and some women's clothing were recovered from the same area of the millrace Sunday.

"SHOT" ROD
ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (UP) — Magistrate Harley Hallett sentenced Ives Ste. Onge, 19, to a two-month jail term Monday for assaulting his own car. Police said Ste. Onge apparently got mad at his car after getting involved in an accident and began shooting at it. The charge was illegal possession of a gun.

Judge Gives Reasons for Prison Terms

While it is not considered necessary for a judge to advance reasons in connection with sentences he may see fit to issue some, Circuit Judge George R. Duncan explained Tuesday as he gave the background for three penitentiary terms he handed down during Monday afternoon's variety of cases.

All three men were in their early 20s. They were George Edward Tennes, Delmar Lee Frahm and Phillip Wayne Brower, who pleaded guilty to the theft of several cases of beer. Each one was sentenced to 18 months in the penitentiary.

Judge Duncan recalled that Brower and Tennes were on probation and that Frahm had been arrested for the same place in 1956 from where the beer was recently stolen. At that time, the charge against Frahm was reduced from a felony to larceny and he was permitted to make restitution.

Tennes and Brower had been arrested early this year on bad check charges and were out on probation.

"I couldn't commit them to jail because their offense was considered a felony," said Judge Duncan. He expressed the hope that the intermediate penitentiary which will soon be constructed will be of benefit to offenders who are in early adulthood.

SOAP BOX DERBY

Ryser, Rutherford Sign for Race

Rutherford and Ryser may sound like a business firm, but in reality they are two boys with the business in mind of winning the 1957 Salem Soap Box Derby.

For Tim Ryser, 1250 Parkway Dr., it will be the first year in the Salem Derby. He will be sponsored by Quiring Printing Co. as he flashes down Derby Downs in a try for the Salem Derby crown and the free trip to Akron, Ohio, to compete in the All-American Soap Box Derby. He is in Class A (ages 13-15).

Steve Rutherford is only 12 but he already has one year of Derby racing under his belt. He was nipped in his first round of the 1956 race by Eric Woodard, who went on to be the Class B champion. Steve, who lives at 750 N. 14th St., will be sponsored by Pacific Auto Supply. He will be in class B again this year.
