WEEKDAY DINNER

Savory way to cook chicken!
India Skillet Chicken

Rice Green Peas
Waldorf Salad Bread Tray
Frosted Sponge Cake Beverage

INDIA SKILLET CHICKEN

Ingredients: 1 broiler-fryer chicken (about 2 1/2 pounds ready-to-cook weight), 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons curry powder, 1/4 teaspoon ginger, 1/4 teaspoon ground cardamom, 1/4 teaspoon turmeric, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon peanut oil, 1/2 cup celery crescents, 2 medium-sized onions (cut into thin rings), 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed clear chicken soup, 1/4 cup heavy cream.

Method: Have chicken cut into about 10 serving-size pieces. Wash and dry. Mix together the salt, curry powder, ginger, cardamom, and turmeric. Sprinkle chicken pieces with the spices. Melt butter in 10-inch skillet with peanut oil. Brown chicken in fat quickly — this will take about 10 minutes. Sprinkle with celery and onion rings. Add the chicken soup. Cover and cook slowly until chicken is tender — 25 to 30 minutes. Turn chicken once or twice during cooking. Remove chicken pieces; stir cream into sauce, reheat and pour over chicken. Makes 4 servings.

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

Every one cooperated wonderfully and all details "jelled" nicely, EXCEPT the weather, for the benefit ice cream social given by Y-Wives Sunday as a feature of Blossom Day . . . And it was just too bad, but weather being what it is, there is nothing any individual or group can do about it . . . It was a beautifully arranged party . . .

The tables, gayly decked with green cloths and centerpiece of blossoms and camellias, were set up in the gymnasium . . . The setting was very festive and colorful because the Y-Teens, entertaining in the gymnasium the night before at their Cotton Ball, left up their decorations, including a gay ceiling of blue and white crepe paper, a huge mural of spring flowers and birds completely covering the west wall, and other features noting the dance theme: Lullaby in Birdland . . . And the array of homemade cakes brought by the Y-Wives was truly something to see . . .

But there is always some good from everything for some persons . . . And for this individual there was a recipe for the bright red, tasty cherry sauce served over the ice cream . . . Mrs. Charles Holmes made the sauce and has passed along her recipe as follows:

- Cherry Sauce
- 1 cup juice from maraschino cherries
 - 1 1/2 cups of water
 - 1 1/2 tablespoons corn starch
 - 1 cup sugar
 - 1/2 cup ground maraschino cherries
 - 1/2 cup chopped maraschino cherries
- A small pinch of salt
- 1/2 to 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- Bring the juice, water and corn starch to a boil and cook about 10 minutes. Then stir in sugar and salt and remove from heat. Pour in the lemon juice, also stir in the ground and chopped cherries.

It's delectable!

Despite the small crowd, the group more than met expenses and turned in more than $20 to the YWCA swimming pool fund . . . The party was a fine idea and perhaps in future years can grow to be something traditional for Blossom Day . . . Mrs. C. J. Kunowsky was general chairman for this year's affair . . .

Forty-three attended the dessert and meeting for St. Anne's guild, St. Paul's Episcopal church, at the charming country home of Mrs. Robert Sears, Buena Vista Road, Monday afternoon . . . Among those attending were the Rev. and Mrs. George F. Swift and Mrs. E. A. Littrell of Medford, here during the Legislature, as guests, and a long-time member who has been away for a time, Mrs. Bertram Thomson . . . The dessert table was set with a white damask, the centerpiece an arrangement of pale yellow and pale pink blossoms with pink candles at either side . . . Mrs. Sydney Kromer poured . . . Co-hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Raymond Busick, Mrs. Herman Jochimsen, Mrs. Morris Crothers and Mrs. William H. Hammond . . . Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, president, announced plans are going ahead for the benefit fashion show on September 25 . . . She also announced that Mrs. Kenneth Power from the guild is coordinator for the all-church Christmas bazaar late next fall, Mrs. Stuart M. Lancelotti to be chairman from St. Anne's . . . Mrs. George Weller gave a brief history of the guild, organized 20 years ago . . . The May meeting will bring the box luncheon for the group at the country home of Mrs. James G. Wate, the event to close the season for the guild . . .

Interesting highlights on his experiences as a member of a medical team working with Dr. Thomas Dooley in Laos, Indo-China, were presented by Dennis Shepard, recently returned from the work, at the meeting of alumnae of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary, Monday night . . . He told of the work of the team in combating disease in Laos, also discussed customs and philosophy of the people of that country . . . The Monday meeting was at the home of Mrs. George W. Dewey, Jr. . . . Mrs. Shepard was a guest . . . Also welcomed was Mrs. Wheeler English, who is to be initiated as an associate member by the Portland Alumnae Chapter of Theta Sigma Phi on May 1, the Salem club being an affiliate of the Portland group . . . The Salem members are to be co-hostesses for the May meeting of the Portland chapter the evening of May 1 . . .

GERVAIS (Special)—Mrs. Gertrude Berning of Gervais will be hostess for the Gervais Garden Club, Thursday, April 25, at 2 p.m. A plant and seed exchange will take place at the meeting.

SPIRITUAL Sunflower club is meeting Thursday at the First Spiritualist church, 1320 Madison, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. There will be a no-host luncheon at 12 o'clock. Members are asked to take their gifts for the group's hope chest.

Mrs. Ostrin President Of Club

Mrs. Richard Ostrin was elected president of the Salem Opti - Mrs. Club at its meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Alfred L. Pfeifer.

Named as vice president was Mrs. Robert H. Chown and as secretary - treasurer, Mrs. Eino Setela.

The group completed plans for presentation of a graduation outfit for a senior high graduate and worked on project to aid the Optimist Club in its fund-raising activities.

Heirloom Group

Members of the Heirloom Study Group of Salem Art Association has set a meeting for 8 p.m. Thursday at the Bush House, Salem Art Museum.

Mrs. Chester A. Downs will show her collection of Russian icons and other rare Russian pieces.

The interested public is invited. David F. Dunaway and Mrs. Douglas Cooper are arranging the program.

MISS Karen Lynell Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Salem, was initiated recently into Alpha Rho Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi, national social sorority, Oregon State College. Miss Hall was graduated from South Salem High School in 1955 and is now a freshman at OSC, majoring in secretarial science.

Miss Haugen Is Bride-elect

Announced over the weekend was the engagement of Miss Donna Mae Haugen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Haugen, to Morris Gilchrist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gilchrist of Brooks.

Date of the wedding has not been announced. The bride-to-be was graduated from Salem schools and is employed at Capitol Drug Company. Mr. Gilchrist, who attended Gervais schools, is in the Army, stationed at Ford Ord, Calif.

Miss Goodman and Mr. Neufeld Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Goodman announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Janet Goodman, to Reynold Neufeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Neufeld of Independence. No date is set for the wedding.

The bride elect is a student at North Salem High School. Mr. Neufeld attended Willamette University for two years and plans to go to Northwest Christian College at Eugene next fall.

KEIZER LIONS Auxiliary met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter J. Kechter. A special guest was Mrs. Henry Grabel. Officers for the new term were nominated and election will be conducted at the next meeting on May 21 at the home of Mrs. Darrah Burright.
