

CC President Praises Budget Cut Proposals

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President John S. Coleman of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Friday praised President Eisenhower's proposal for cutting the federal budget but said "it does not, however, go far enough."

Coleman referred to Eisenhower's letter to House Speaker Rayburn, which said fiscal 1958 appropriations could be cut by $1,858,000,000. He called it "courageous and statesmanlike."

The Chamber has been urging reductions of almost 4 1/2 billion dollars in the appropriation requests presented in the budget last January.
