The First Easter

From the Gospel of St. Matthew:

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see

And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning and his raiment white as snow.

And for fear of Him the keepers did shake, and become as dead men And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus which was crucified. He is not here: for He is risen, as He said Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and behold, He goeth, before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him: lo, I have told you.

And they departed quickly from the sepul-chre with fear and great joy: and did run to bring His disciples word. And as they went to tell His disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying All hail! And they came and held Him by the feet, and worshipped Him. Then Jesus said unto them, be not afraid:

go and tell My brethren that they go into Galilee and there shall they see Me. And Jesus came and spake unto them, say-Ing: All power is given unto Me in heaven

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

From the Gospel of St. John:

Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the sepulchre.

And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing and Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

Jesus saith unto her. Touch me not: for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God and your God.

Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut when the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in their midst, and said unto them. Peace be unto you.

when he had so said, he showed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the

Then said Jesus unto them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father has sent me, even so send I you.

From the Gospel of St. Mark:

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and Salome, had bought sweet spices that and annoint Him.

And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great,

And entering into the sepulchre, they saw young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they

And he saith unto them. Be not affrighted. Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified; he is risen, he is not here, behold the place where they laid him.

But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

And they went quickly and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed; neither said they any thing to any man;

Afterward he appeared unto the eleven (disciples) as they sat at meat, and unbraided them with their unbelief and hardness heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

From the Gospel of St. Luke:

Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came upon the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed there-about, behold, two men stood them in shining garments: And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the

He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Saying, the Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

And they remembered his words. And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven and to all

Even so, that $71,800,000,000 in actual spending money was a record peacetime budget. His administration was attacked in and out of Congress. Big cuts in the budget were demanded.

But Elsenhower argued that the figure was about the best he could offer. On April 3—when his Budget Bureau was combing his budget all over again, looking for spots sary, apply a sterile or mildly antiseptic dressing to protect against secondary infection. Then administer tetanus antitoxin or toxoid.

That's all the treatment I'd want if I were bitten by an animal that a veterinarian suspected or believed rabid. Under no conceivable circumstance would I submit to so-called Pasteur treatment.

In my opinion, the practice of cauterizing dog bite with fuming nitric acid or other destructive agent is unjustifiable, for two reasons. First, it leaves the wound in the most favorable condition for the growth of Clostridium tetanus bacillus, lockjaw germ and production of its deadly toxin. Second, it leaves an ugly scar—if the victim recovers.
