

Town-Gown Tea

Annual spring musicale and tea of Town and Gown members will be next Thursday, April 25, the group to assemble in Music Hall on the Willamette University campus. The program concludes the year for the group.

Mrs. A. Freeman Holmer, president, will preside at the business meeting which is set at 2 p.m. The nominating committee, Mrs. P. H. Brydon, Miss Lorena Jack and Mrs. Carl Chambers, will present a panel of officers for Town and Gown for the 1957-58 term.

Following the business meeting, Prof. Ralph Dobbs of the music faculty of Willamette University will give a piano recital.

The members will go to Lausanne Hall for the tea hour, with the girls of Lausanne acting as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Rice, Sr., are entertaining with a family dinner at the Marion Hotel, Easter Sunday. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Rice, Jr., Wanda Lynn and Arthur Ray of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Felix Wright, James and Damon of Silverton; Miss Fern Hobbs and Mrs. C. W. Julien, sisters of Mrs. Rice, from Portland.

Mayor and Mrs. Robert White have invited a group of friends to spend a weekend at their beach home, at Lincoln Beach, the group leaving next Friday.

With Governor and Mrs. Robert D. Holmes for Easter weekend will be their son, John, University of Oregon student, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Holmes, Jr. and little daughter, Deborah, from Gearhart.

State Representative and Mrs. Joe Rogers have invited a group for a supper Sunday night at their home in Independence. There will be 34 in the group, guests including legislative friends from the House of Representatives.

Rotarian Women plan their April luncheon for Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Meier & Frank's-Salem auditorium.

Guest speaker is to be Richard Shaar, hair stylist and consultant.

Further plans will be made by the group for the annual party for husbands of members on the evening of May 1.

Easter dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke tomorrow will be their daughter, Miss Marjorie Becke, home from San Francisco for the Easter holiday; their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Shinn, and children, Michael and Julie; Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carson, Jr. and children, Kit and Billy, of Silverton.

Among those going from Salem to the state and regional conferences of the American Association of University Women in Baker next weekend will be Mrs. Russell Beutler, president of Salem branch; Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, past state president and a national committee member; Mrs. John Jelders, Dr. Martha Springer and Mrs. Regina Ewall.

The state event opens Thursday and the regional meeting will be Friday and Saturday.

Dr. Anna L. Rose Hawkes, national AAUW president, is to be a guest at the conferences.

Sacred Heart Parents Club has postponed its usual meeting for the fourth Monday of the month a week due to the Easter observance and will meet on April 29.

Annual dinner for Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae and their husbands will be at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Watts next Saturday night, April 27.

Mrs. Watts and Mrs. F. M. Sercombe head the committee in charge of arrangements.

An evening meeting is planned by Chapter BC of P.E.O. Sisterhood Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Charles Layport at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lester Wilcox is co-hostess. A musical program is to be presented.

Salem Chapter 162, Order of Eastern Star, will meet Saturday, April 27, for a program planned to honor charter members of the chapter. A potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock will precede the evening session at the Masonic Temple.

Miss Darlene Rose Staab, who is to be married on May 11 to Gene Francis Wells, is announcing plans for the wedding.

The service will be at 11:30 o'clock that morning in St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church with the Rev. John Reedy officiating.

Miss Donna Kirschner is to be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. James Henan and Mrs. Joseph LaBanksy.

Jack Wells is to be best man for his twin brother and the ushers will be Fred Staab, brother of the bride, and Phil Washburn.

The reception following will be in Knights of Columbus hall.

Miss Staab is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Staab of Salem and Mr. Wells is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wells of Woodburn.

Junior Symphony

Mary Linda Doerfler, 17, will perform the allegro movement of the Mozart "Piano Concerto in A major" with the Salem Junior Symphony Orchestra next Wednesday night, when the orchestra presents its final concert of the season at Leslie auditorium.

A senior at North Salem High School, where she maintains a 3.99 grade average, this versatile young musician plays flute in the Junior Symphony and is piano accompanist for the ASHS orchestra. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Doerfler, Silverton. Her piano teachers are Miss Margaret Hogg of Salem, with whom she has studied for 12 years, and Miss Lillian Pettibone of Portland.

Miss Doerfler gave her first solo piano recital at the age of nine and has since performed several solo recitals and appeared in many group recitals.

To her credit are the winning of six consecutive superior ratings in the State Music Syllabus examinations sponsored by the Federated Music Teachers of Oregon; an excellent rating in piano at the State Music Festival in Portland; and the winning of the Iva F. Turner contest in 1950.

In her third year as accompanist for the North High orchestra, Miss Doerfler is president of that organization. She is vice president and a three-year member of the NSHS Crescendo Club, has played flute in the Salem Junior Symphony for three years, and was a member of the North High band for two years.

During the April 24 concert, Miss Doerfler and the orchestra will play the difficult first movement of the Mozart concerto.

The program will open at 8:15 p.m. under the baton of Dr. William Sweetman. Tickets will be available at the door.

All The Family Goes to Church Easter Sunday

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT F. MEIER AND CHILDREN

(Capital Journal Picture)

EASTER SUNDAY, tomorrow, will find family groups at church as on no other occasion of the year. Here, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Meier and their family are pictured at the steps of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. But in all churches, families will be attending services together.

All togged out in their new Easter outfits, the little Meiers are, left to right: Sally, Patrick, Richard, Suzanne, David, Stephen and Shirley. Following church services there will be many family breakfast and dinner gatherings to mark the most joyous day of the year for Christians.

Dance Club Party

Final party of the season for Monday Night Dance Club will be next Monday night at the Marion Hotel.

The formal dinner will be at 7 o'clock with dancing between 8:30 and 11:30 o'clock. Fern Craven's orchestra is to play. New officers will be announced.

Committee for the Monday party includes Mr. and Mrs. Denver Young, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halvarson and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Crabtree.

Loren Mort, assistant principal at Leslie Junior High School, is to be guest speaker for the Salem Zonta Club meeting next Thursday noon at the Golden Pheasant.

He is to be accompanied to the meeting by two students who have participated in the American Field Service program for exchange students.

The Zonta club has voted to assist in sponsoring a foreign student to come to Salem next fall for a year's study here.

Wednesday Afternoon Literature group of the American Association of University Women will meet Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. A. Wabworth, Route 1, Box 180. Mrs. E. A. Carleton will be assisting hostess and Mrs. Trevor Steele is to give the review.

Installation of new officers, headed by Mrs. M. A. Titus as president, will feature the meeting of Sojourners Club next Thursday afternoon. Dessert will be at 1 p.m. in the Salem Woman's Club house, the installation event and cards following.

Mrs. Lee Thomas, Mrs. Charles Livingston, Mrs. Glen Alford, Mrs. Maurice Lavance and Mrs. William H. Foster are the committee for the day. Annual guest day of the club is set for May 9.

By MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

(Capital Journal Society Editor)

A PHIL dance of the "56" Dance Club is planned for next Friday night, April 26, in the American Legion Club, Stubby Mills orchestra to play for dancing between 9:30 and 12:30 o'clock. Springtime is the theme for the party.

On the committee for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Max Dolzal, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reessler, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Solum.

Chapter AB of P.E.O. Sisterhood is to be entertained Monday night at the home of Mrs. William E. Smith with Miss Ann Boente as co-hostess.

Miss Marjorie G. McBride, superintendent of Hillcrest School of Oregon, will be guest speaker at the 12 noon luncheon meeting of Y-Teen Mothers Club on Thursday, April 25. Members of the Hi-Y Mothers Club have been invited as guests.

Those attending are to take their lunches and dessert and coffee will be furnished. The Y-Teen Mothers will elect officers following the program.

New officers were announced today at the luncheon given for Phi Mu Alumnae Club at the home of Mrs. Elmer O. Berg.

The officers include: Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr., president; Mrs. Chris Wheeler, vice president; Mrs. George A. Brown, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Wilmer H. Page, Panhellenic representative; Mrs. Alfred Larson, membership chairman; Mrs. Dwight Lear, national magazine reporter.

Members of Bethel 50, Job's Daughters, will entertain their parents and members of Hanna Rosa Court, Order of Amaranth, as special guests at the meeting Tuesday evening, April 23, at 7:30 o'clock, in West Salem City Hall.

Mrs. Gideon Zimmerman of Gresham, grand royal matron of Amaranth, is expected for the evening's program. Initiation and reports of the grand session in Portland last week will be program features.

A goodly number of reservations already is in for the annual benefit card party planned by Salem club, Daughters of the Nile, on Tuesday, April 30, at Scottish Rite Temple.

The party will be an afternoon one, starting at 1:15 o'clock with dessert, cards following. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Kenneth W. Morris, Mrs. Fred C. Klaus, Mrs. J. Earl Cook, Mrs. Robert T. Boake, Mrs. Emmett F. Kleinke.

Among those already making reservations are Mrs. Adolph Baumbeck, Mrs. Cecil G. Blakeley, Mrs. Ada Foster, Mrs. Estill L. Brunk, Mrs. Robert Driscoll, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Charles Unruh, Mrs. Reuben Sinner, Mrs. Philip T. Bouffleur, Mrs. Clark Carlton, Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, Mrs. Paul E. Hicks, Mrs. Max Nottelton, Mrs. H. Laurence Lister of Portland, Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. Elmer Dune, Mrs. J. F. Smart, Mrs. Russell Bright, Mrs. Raymond Olson, Mrs. Thomas Olson, Mrs. Kreta Dahl, Mrs. George Todd, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Frank R. Brown, Mrs. H. M. Boesch, Mrs. Fred Lund, Mrs. Herman Poulin, Mrs. C. R. Elliott, Mrs. Kelly Peters, Mrs. M. A. Titus, Mrs. Valdemar Johnson, Mrs. Paul Kliever, Mrs. Harold Parsons, Mrs. Earl Andersen, Mrs. Carroll Robinson, Mrs. Maurice Gustafson, Mrs. Julius Lieseth, Mrs. Ross Rickett, Mrs. Fred Klaus, Mrs. Lee Hunt, Mrs. George Landrith, Mrs. James Morgan, Mrs. Gordon Barker, Mrs. Herman Johnson, Mrs. Beryl Ingram, Mrs. Paul Griebnow, Mrs. Grace Arnold, Mrs. E. A. Williams.

NOMINATION and election of officers will feature the meeting of Salem Spinners club next Monday night at the home of Miss Marcia Webb, 3275 Peigle Rd. Miss Marcia Webb and Miss Joan Seumster are co-hostesses for the meeting, set for 8 o'clock.

St. Elizabeth's guild, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, plans its luncheon for Tuesday afternoon, April 23, in the parish hall at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson, Mrs. Wayne Gordon, Mrs. A. C. F. Perry and Mrs. O. K. DeWitt are the committee.

Dr. W. H. Shultz, head of the food technology department at Oregon State College, will be the speaker at the dinner meeting of the Salem Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening, April 23, at 6:30 o'clock at the Golden Pheasant.

The food technician's subject will be "Foods for Modern Living." The program is in charge of Mrs. E. E. Wooten, chairman of the health and safety committee.

Mrs. H. Roy Rickard is arranging the musical program.

A special program for members and guests will feature the meeting of the Social Club of Chadwick Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Tuesday, April 23, at the Masonic Temple. A dessert will be served at 1:15 p.m. with a sewing machine demonstration to follow. Each member of the club is to bring a guest for the occasion.

Mrs. O. E. Palmateer is chairman of the committee and she will be assisted by Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. Elmer Dorr, Mrs. A. H. Fish, Mrs. Clarence L. Webber, Sr., Mrs. Gordon A. Barker, Mrs. William H. Witt, Mrs. Floyd D. Kibbe, Mrs. John H. Hann, Mrs. O. P. Driggs, Mrs. Lucy McDowell, Miss Ulva Derby.

Tuxedo Club's dance is slated for next Friday night, the formal affair to be at the Marion Hotel. The social hour will be at 7:30 o'clock, the dinner at 8:30 o'clock with dancing following.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Campbell are on the committee for the evening.

A father-daughter potluck dinner will precede the evening meeting of Cherry Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, on Thursday, April 25. The dinner will be served at 6 o'clock at the Scottish Rite Temple.

Initiation rites will be conducted during the meeting.

Featured at the benefit luncheon and card party of St. Vincent's Altar Society on Thursday, April 25, will be a hot chicken dish for which Mrs. James Mahula is famous. The affair, starting at 12 noon, will be given in the Catholic Center of the Knights of Columbus Hall. Cards will be played during the afternoon.

Family picnics and conducted tours of Girl Scouts summer camp at Camp Smith Creek will be featured on Sunday afternoon, May 5, the camp's annual open house slated from 12:30 to 4 p.m. that day.

Coffee and punch will be served throughout the afternoon by the junior camp committee, the group also to conduct parties on tour of the camp. In case of rain, there is plenty of room in the lodge for eating.

Camp Smith Creek opens June 30, to continue through August 24, and is open to all girls, from those who have completed the second grade on up through the age of 17.

More than 250 camp registrations are in.

Dabblers Club meets Thursday evening, April 25, at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Wilbur Tripp, 606 N. 15th St.

Easter Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Geiser and family will be his mother, Mrs. Peter Geiser, and the hostess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar T. Pierce.

Some Notations . . .

By M.L.F.

Late April and early May bring a rush of springtime entertaining, especially among the legislative group And each day this department is called to keep dates straight

On the calendar next week is the regular afternoon of Mrs. Robert D. Holmes, wife of Oregon's governor, Tuesday, friends being invited to call between 2 and 5 o'clock that afternoon at the Holmes residence Special guests will include members of Jane Jefferson Clubs for Democratic women from around the state, the members conducting a "legislative day" in the capital on Tuesday

Next Thursday morning brings the coffee party for which Mrs. Thomas G. Wright, Jr. is to entertain in honor of Mrs. Holmes The party will be at 9:30 o'clock in Meier & Frank's-Salem Oregon room Mrs. Wright has invited wives of staff members of all newspapers in the valley area as special guests In the usual course of events wives of editors and publishers and wives of members of the "working press at the legislature" often meet the state's First Lady at social affairs given in official circles, but for this occasion wives of other staff members are given opportunity to meet the governor's wife

Also invited are Salem members of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary

Pouring will be Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Mrs. Dewey Rand Assisting will be Mrs. Robert E. Ganswiler, Miss Vinita Howard, Mrs. A. G. Jones, Mrs. Jerry Stone, Mrs. Conrad Prang, Mrs. J. Wesley Sullivan, Mrs. John Erickson

Early May, especially May Day, will be marked by much entertaining this season, both by town and legislative groups Mrs. Fred Meek, wife of State Representative Meek of Portland, will be hostess for a brunch that morning at the Marion Hotel, among the special guests to be several women active in the state auxiliary of the Pharmaceutical Society, as well as wives of legislative officials and other legislative friends

In the afternoon of May day will be the coffee for which Mrs. Fayette Bristol of Grants Pass, Mrs. C. A. Tom of Rufus, Mrs. Walter Leth of Monmouth and Mrs. E. A. Little of Medford, all wives of legislators, will be hostesses in the Meier & Frank's-Salem Oregon room On the evening of May 1, State Representative and Mrs. Arthur P. Ireland of Forest Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Oral Lemmon will entertain a group at dinner at the Lemmon home

Among parties planned by Salem women for May Day will be a tea for which Mrs. Maylon E. Scott and Mrs. Logan C. Berry will entertain that afternoon at the Scott residence on North Summer street, invitations to be out the first of next week for the event

On May 2 and 3, Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, wife of the state attorney general, is to be hostess at brunches to honor legislative wives and wives of state officials, both affairs to be at the Candalaria Heights home of the Thorntons

Mrs. Boyd Overhulse, Madras, wife of the Senate president, has invitations out for a coffee, the morning of May 2, at 9:30 o'clock, in Meier & Frank's-Salem Oregon room

Friends from Forest Grove and Oregon City to the Capitol Building to the Y steps in case of rain

Dancing Class Party on Friday

Gala event for a large group of young people will be the semi-formal dance party planned by the dancing class of St. Paul's Episcopal church next Friday night, April 26, at the Senator hotel. The affair is for members and guests. Dancing will be between 8:30 and 12 o'clock, Harry Wesley's orchestra playing.

Party cottons are in order for the girls, coats and ties for the boys. A late buffet supper is to be served.

The class committee arranging the dance includes: Misses Sue Olinger and Connie Collins, co-chairmen; Misses Sue Jochimsen, Shannon Dyer, and Alice Berglund, Arthur Erickson, Pat and Mike Kelley; Tom Dunham and Woody Bennett. On the decorating committee are Mike Kelley, Tom Dunham, Bill Rector, Bill Crandall, Tom Heltzel, Ken Catlett, Dan Watts, Bill and Max Reaney, Ben Kelley, Misses Nancy Miller, Martha Minto, Dorothy Moen, Kathy and Mary Campbell, Arthur Erickson is to be master of ceremonies.

Members of the sponsoring committee are Dr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berglund, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Watts, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCargar, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Collins, Dr. and Mrs. Tom H. Dunham.

Assisting the young people with the party are the Senator hotel, donating the Capitol room, and the musicians' union in furnishing the orchestra.

Chapter BQ of P.E.O. Sisterhood will celebrate its 16th anniversary at the meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. St. D. Maus, Mrs. W. B. Jones is to be assisting hostess and Mrs. J. Wesley Sullivan is chairman of the evening's program.

Charter members of BQ to be honored are Mrs. H. L. Braden, Mrs. Charles H. Huggins, Mrs. Frank James, Mrs. Kenneth Potts, Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine.

Chapter CB of P.E.O. Sisterhood plans its next meeting for Thursday night at the home of Mrs. P. L. Calvert, dessert to be at 7:30 o'clock.

Xi Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, international sorority, will meet next Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Gus Hewitt.

Monthly coffee for Willamette Valley Panhellenic, Salem alumnae group, will be next Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Picklin, Mrs. Joseph Franko is co-hostess.

Mrs. Robert Sprague is to entertain for her bridge club at luncheon and afternoon on Thursday.

An event interesting a large group next Thursday night will be the founders day banquet planned by Salem alumnae of Pi Beta Phi sorority. The dinner will be at 6:30 o'clock at China City.

Speaker will be Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president of Willamette University. Others on the program will include Mrs. Ralph Keyser, president of the local alumnae; Mrs. Edwin Keech, Miss Adele Egan, Miss Barbara Anderson, the latter to sing. Mrs. Cornelius Bateson is to be toastmistress.

Zenith Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. Earl Hampton, 3330 Sunnyview Ave., on Wednesday, April 24, at 8 p.m.

Members will provide materials to work on during the evening for the club's projects for the Chemawa Indian School. The program for the school is under the supervision of Mrs. Ralph W. Atwood, philanthropic chairman.

A plant sale will be a feature of the evening. The program is being arranged by Mrs. Norman G. Johnson and Mrs. L. G. Falk.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. George C. Huggins, Jr.

were entertained this week at a legislative visit and luncheon by Mrs. Arthur P. Ireland, wife of State Representative Ireland of Forest Grove In the group were Mrs. Louis Schultz, Mrs. Elmer Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Miller, and Mrs. Ellis Gray, all of Forest Grove, and Mrs. Kenneth Hanson of Oregon City, niece of Representative Ireland In the afternoon, the group called at the home of Mrs. Robert D. Holmes, wife of the governor Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Hanson were school friends in Portland

A delightful prelude to Easter was the charmingly arranged tea for which Mrs. Harry V. Collier was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at her North 14th street residence. The affair complimenting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bradford Collins of Fairfax, Calif. . . . The junior Mrs. Collins and young daughter, Robin, have been here this week Guests included longtime friends of the home from the days when she lived in Salem, and young daughters of several of them were invited to call with their mothers, Robin receiving the young guests in the den at a little girls' tea party

Colorful spring flowers decorated the home for the tea At the little girls' gathering the Easter cakes were topped with bunnies and little chicks in observance of the coming holiday The tea table for the grownups was a picture one, set with a handsome embroidered white cloth The centerpiece featured crystal swans, a large one and two smaller ones, filled with white carnations and lilacs; wide pink and orchid velvet ribbons looped about the flowers and around the silver candelabrum with pink lapers at either side

In the group assisting the hostess were Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mrs. W. L. Needham, Mrs. Robert M. Needham, Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mrs. Bruce F. Pickett, Mrs. William L. Libbeck, Mrs. Frank G. Myers, Mrs. Edward O. Stadler, Jr., Mrs. Harris Leitz, Mrs. Winfield Needham, Mrs. Kimball Page of Portland, Beth Needham and Nancy Hurley, visitor from El Cerrito, Calif., and guest of her grandparents, the Charles A. Spragues

Among those greeted during our call Mrs. C. D. Simms, Miss Margaret Simms, Mrs. Carl G. Collins, Mrs. Joan Poole, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, Mrs. Kaurinka, Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine and Beckey, Mrs. Gus Raymond, Mrs. Kenneth Carl, Mrs. John D. Minto, Mrs. J. M. Lamb, Mrs. Warren Doolittle, Mrs. Vern Shay, Mrs. Harold Robertson, Mrs. Del Milne, Mrs. Leon Perry, Mrs. A. T. King, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. Robert Sprague and daughters, Kathy and Ann; Mrs. Richard Taggesell

An informal "regular coffee break" gathering is planned for all women state employees by the Young Adult Committee of the Salem YWCA for next Tuesday morning The very informal "come as you are, as if on your regular coffee break" affair will be between 9 and 11 o'clock The coffee is arranged to acquaint the working women with the program of recreation, physical education and classes offered by the YWCA, also to learn the type of program of particular interest to the working women

"Liney" service is to be provided from the Capitol Building to the Y steps in case of rain