Easter Setting for Friday Wedding

Calvary Baptist Church was the scene for a pre-Easter wedding last night when Miss Arlene Sue Darr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Darr, was married to Dean Eldon Way, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Way.

Easter lilies and blue and white baskets of white stock and snapdragons decorated the church for the service. Vern Esch was soloist and Gab Follis played the organ. The Rev. Berkeley Ormond read the rites for the couple at 8 o'clock.

The two attendants preceding the bride to the altar were Miss Erna Darr, a sister, and Miss Patricia Johnson. They both wore white embroidered organza over heavenly blue taffeta frocks, styled with fitted bodices, short sleeves, low round necklines, and full skirts flaring from beneath blue taffeta cummerbunds with skirt length sashes. Both carried white satin fans with blue carnations and white streamers.

For her wedding the bride wore a white Chantilly lace and tulle dress. It was styled with fitted bodice, a Queen Anne collar, long sleeves and bouffant skirt falling in points front and back and flounce of nylon tulle. The fingertip veil was held by a satin ribbon edged in seed pearls and trimmed with opalescent sequins. The bride carried a white lace fan with white orchid, surrounded by white stephanotis and white ribbon streamers.

Mr. Darr gave his daughter in marriage.

Coleen Fox was flower girl and Robert Ramseyer the ring bearer.

Harry Way was best man for his brother. The ushers were Elmer Haurly, Richard Haeck and Karl Rehm.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue nylon dress trimmed in matching satin with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a medium blue lace over taffeta dress with lace jacket, white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Guests were invited to the church fireplace room for the reception. Miss Patricia Sebastian cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Richard Hughes and Mrs. Clair Simmons. Assisting were Miss Helen Way, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Harry Way, Mrs. Robert Way, Miss Fedora Way, a niece of the bridegroom. Easter lilies decorated the reception room.

The couple left for the northern Oregon beaches, the bride wearing a princess styled dress of Japanese brocade silk trimmed with black velvet ribbon; black duster of Italian silk, beige accessories and corsage of white orchids.

The newlyweds will be at home at 915 South 13th street.
