Wedding at Woodburn June 5

WOODBURN (Special) — Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cummings of Woodburn of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Dollie Cummings, to Herbert Armstrong Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Armstrong of Myrtle Point. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Ormal B. Trick at the Woodburn Methodist Church at 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 5.

The engagement was revealed recently at the Delta Gamma and Beta Theta Pi houses on Willamette University campus where both young people are students. A 1953 graduate of Woodburn High School, Miss Cummings is a senior physical education major at Willamette. She is past president of Associated Women Students, president of her physical education class, student council representative, secretary of the senior class and member of this year's May Day court, and is a Delta Gamma. At present she is practicing teaching at North Salem High School.

Mr. Armstrong, a graduate of Newberg High School, is a senior in psychology at Willamette. In addition to membership in Beta Theta Pi fraternity, he belongs to Kappa Delta Pi, national education honor society, Psi Chi, and is president of the Future Teachers of America. He recently received a $2,000 assistance scholarship at Syracuse University, New York. The couple plans to leave for the east in early fall.

Birthday Party for Alan Johnson Friday

Alan Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Johnson, observed his 12th birthday Friday. In celebration of the event, a group of his school friends was entertained at dinner at his home, then taken to a theater.

Feting Alan were Jack and Jim Price, Bill Haller, Steve Strong, Richard Boniface, Charlene Taggart, Nancy Davis, Betsy Lee, Mary Griffith, Paula Frederick, and Carolyn King.

IN PORTLAND for Easter weekend was Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans to visit her sister, Miss Frances Hodge.

Today's Menu

FAMILY DINNER
Like a firm rice pudding that is meringue-topped? Here is your recipe:
Meat Loaf Potatoes
Peas and Carrots Bread Tray
Coleslaw
Meringue Rice Pudding
Beverage

MERINGUE RICE PUDDING
Ingredients: 1/2 cup regular rice, 3 1/2 cups milk, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs (separated), 1/4 cup sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla, 1/2 cup moist shredded coconut.
Method: Put rice, milk and butter in greased 1 1/2-quart baking dish. Bake uncovered in slow (325 degrees) oven for 1 hour; stir occasionally. Then stir in the 1/4 cup sugar and salt. Return to oven until milk is almost absorbed—about 40 minutes—stirring occasionally. The rice should be creamy and not dry. Remove pudding from oven; turn oven to hot (425 degrees). Beat egg whites until foamy. Beat in 1/4 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition; beat in 1/2 teaspoon of the vanilla; fold in coconut; reserve. Without washing beater, beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored with remaining 1/2 teaspoon of vanilla. Stir some of hot pudding into beaten egg yolks. Stir back into pudding in baking dish and mix well. Spread coconut meringue around edges of pudding. Return to oven just until browned—5 minutes or so. Serve pudding warm. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Black and White for Little Sister . . .

Black and White Swank—Left, shirtwaist dress in white drip-and-dry fabric with full skirt, black lace ruffle trim on the shirt top, black velvet tie and belt; right, ensemble of polished cotton dress in black and beige, polka dots of white, with duster of beige rayon linen with black velvet collar, new shirred sleeve, designed by Voila.

Christenings for Two in St. Paul's

Christening ceremonies were conducted for two children in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Easter Sunday, the Rev. George H. Swift officiating.
Colene Darlene Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Baker, was one of those christened. Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Savage and Mrs. Hatty Smith. An informal reception for the family was at the Baker home later.
Ryan Donald Wickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wickman, also was christened. His godparents are Kenneth J. Nelson, Aberdeen, S.D., and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Marqueling, Portland. A family dinner was served later at the Wickman home.
As a sidelight on the christening event, the two children were born the same day in the same hospital and the mothers were in the same room at the time and became acquainted. Neither knew the other had arranged to have her baby christened at the time, Sunday, so it was a pleasant surprise when both showed up at the same time for the christenings. The babies will be three months old next Saturday.

The program introduced by Mrs. Earl E. Wiper, outgoing president of the club, centered on an Easter message with Mrs. E. E. Bergman speaking on the sacred days of the Easter season.

Federation Honored On Monday Program

Oregon Federation of Women's clubs was honored on Monday morning on the television program, Home. The tree planting and conservation of Oregon resources projects were featured.

This is the first time Oregon has been mentioned on this television program. It has been a program of the Oregon group to have school children plant seedling trees in the Tillamook Burn.

PAST ORACLES Club, Royal Neighbors of America, will meet Thursday evening, April 25, at the home of Mrs. Axel Donnelly, 655 N. Cottage St.

Women State Employees Are Invited to Tuesday Coffee

An invitation to a coffee during regular "coffee break" time has been extended all women state employees by the Young Adult committee of the Salem YWCA on Tuesday morning, April 23, 9 to 11 o'clock.
Purpose of the coffee is to acquaint the working girl with the program in recreation, physical education and classes now offered by the Y and to find out what type of program expansion would particularly interest them—snack bar, luncheon program, special class schedule, or a plunge during the noon hour or after work in the proposed swimming pool.

Miss Sawyer Named By Linfield Group

LINFIELD COLLEGE, McMinnville (Special) — Miss Jeanne Sawyer, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Sawyer, 1445 State St., Salem, is first vice president of the Linfield College chapter of Spurs, national sophomore women's service honorary, for the next college year. Election was conducted recently at the McMinnville college.

Miss Sawyer, a freshman, is now a pledge of Spurs and will become an official member at May Day ceremonies, May 11. She is one of 21 outstanding freshmen coeds chosen for Spur membership at Linfield.

Square Dance Event

In the language for square dancers there are some new members for the "Idiot's Club." To attain such membership a group drops in at the home of a caller at an hour suiting their fancy and asks him to call for dancing.
About 2 a.m. Friday a group called at the home of Keith Rabe and asked him to call dances. In the group of square dancers were Mr. and Mrs. Gib McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. William Wyler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Seava, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gaskill and the Rabes. An official "Idiot's Club" pin goes to each.

Myerses Set Event

Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers have invited friends to call at their country home next Sunday afternoon, April 28. Callers are asked to come at 3, 4 or 5 o'clock. Each year, Dr. and Mrs. Myers invite friends to "drop in" while their spring flowers are in bloom. Usually, the afternoon has come the first Sunday in May, but the advanced blooming season for the flowers and shrubs this year has brought the occasion a week earlier.

Miss Hales Given Shower at Stayton

STAYTON (Special) — Miss Colleen Hales was honored at a bridal shower for which Mrs. Julian De Jardin and her daughter, Mrs. Ted Highberger were hostesses last week at the De Jardin home. Miss Hales will wed Robert Fallet at Tenino, Wash., Saturday, April 27. Games were played with prizes won by Mrs. Stan Smith and Miss Sally Ashby. Flowers were used throughout the rooms. The gifts were presented from a round table in the living room. The hostesses served refreshments.
