

Norway Press Bucks NATO Bid to Spain

OSLO (AP) — Norway's second largest daily fired a violent editorial attack Tuesday against Spain and "American circles wanting to press Norway to admit Spain to NATO."

The Oslo Dagbladet said "Spain probably will receive as blunt a Norwegian no as Bulganin did."

Spain recently asked the Norwegian government why it opposes Spanish membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Norway has been termed the main opponent to Spain's entry into the Western defense alliance, which the U.S. Congress and State Department have urged.

Norwegian Foreign Office spokesmen refused to say when Norway would reply to Spain. They also refused to say whether Norway is likely to change its position.

Dagbladet said that Spanish Generalissimo Franco "no longer wants to eat in the kitchen like a sneaking bum. He wants to march in the pearly gate. Now, the suppressor of the Spanish students is to be heartily welcomed by the democratic NATO countries."

Javits Urges GOP Study of 1960 Nominee

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Javits (R-NY) said Tuesday the GOP will have to pick a nominee pledged to "carrying on the Eisenhower brand of Republicanism" to win the presidency in 1960.

As a means toward this end, Javits proposed that the party arrange a conference to "crystallize party policy well in advance of the 1960 election and while the full force of President Eisenhower's leadership is available to the party."

Javits said in a speech before the Women's National Republican Club that critics of Eisenhower's "modern Republicanism" philosophy are out of step and "ought to consider themselves called upon to qualify their identification with the party."

Without naming him, Javits criticized Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz) for comparing Eisenhower's backers to New Deal Democrats.

Goldwater told the Senate April 8 that "modern Republicanism" is a "splintered concept." He said the Eisenhower administration is "thoroughly saturated with the New Deal doctrine of big, squanderbust government."

Izvestia Rants At Ike Doctrine

LONDON (AP) — Izvestia attacked the Eisenhower Doctrine Tuesday as a plan to involve the nations of the Middle East in "dangerous military adventures."

The Soviet government newspaper assailed the mission of President Eisenhower's special ambassador, James P. Richards, who is touring the Middle East to explain the American anti-Communist program of economic and military aid.

The article, broadcast by Moscow Radio in English, reflected growing Kremlin concern at the success of the Richards mission.

Izvestia said the envoy's tour "has the object of forcing upon the Middle Eastern countries a policy contrary to their national interests and fraught with grave complications."

Find Body of Plane Victim

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — The body of Jack Nash, of Memphis, Tenn., who was sucked out of a plane window in a strange accident during a plane flight over Iraq, was brought here Tuesday.

The body was found 25 miles south of Kirkuk Monday. It will be taken to the United States.

Nash, 31-year-old bachelor, who had a fondness for travel, was on a round-the-world tour aboard an Air France Constellation when the glass of the plane window where he was sitting was shattered Saturday. It was theorized that the sudden difference in air pressure inside the cabin and outside space drew him through the opening. The four-engine plane was at 18,000 feet altitude.

Tribute Paid Shakespeare

STRATFORD-ON-AVON, England (AP) — Representatives of the East and West paid tribute Tuesday to William Shakespeare on the 383rd anniversary of his birth.

Ambassadors and other representatives of 90 nations joined Britain's Lord Chancellor, Lord Kilmuir, in toasting Shakespeare.

Soviet Ambassador Jacob Malin, replying for the host of dignified visitors to the poet's birthplace, declared "there is no iron curtain and there never has been an iron curtain for Shakespeare's plays. He is not only for his countrymen; he is for all."

The United States was represented by Brewster Mccrea, counselor for political affairs at the American embassy.
