

Arizonan Bids Ike Stay Out of '60 Jockeying

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) said today he expects President Eisenhower to avoid "scrupulously" taking any part in the choice of the 1960 Republican presidential nominee.

Goldwater, who has criticized Eisenhower's $71,000,000,000 spending budget, took issue with a contention of Sen. Javits (R-N.Y.) that only a nominee "carrying on the Eisenhower brand of Republicanism" could win for the GOP three years from now.

"I don't think anybody can say this far ahead whether the nominee will be an Eisenhower man," Goldwater said in an interview. "I have never believed Eisenhower would try to name the nominee. In fact, I am convinced he will scrupulously avoid any such action."

Javits proposed in a New York speech yesterday that the GOP hold a national conference to "crystallize" its policies for 1960 while "the full force of Eisenhower's leadership is available."

Goldwater, former chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said he doubts any such conference would be fruitful because of the present division in party thinking.

"The Republican party is like a big tent," he said. "It has room within it for conservatives and liberals. There is no value in trying to make all Republicans think alike."

Lawyers Ask More Time in Highway Suit

ROSEBURG (AP) — Attorneys have filed in Circuit Court here a motion asking continuance of the State Highway Commission condemnation suit against a 1 1/4 foot strip of Highway 99 owned by the Stumbo family.

The attorneys, Alan B. Holmes and Robert Boyer of Medford, said they had just been retained by the Stumbos and needed more time to study the case.

Until now the family's legal work has been handled by Robert Stumbo, who has carried on negotiations with the state Highway Commission since the clan last year discovered it owned a piece of the highway in southern Douglas County.

When purchase negotiations bogged down, the family started selling two-inch square strips of the highway for two dollars. More than 100 of these tiny plots now have been recorded as sold.

The commission filed its condemnation suit against the Stumbos and the owners of the two-inch pieces of highway.

The state contends it wants a jury to assess the value of the strips so it can purchase the land.

Med School Dean Carries Big Dose Of Wasp 'Vaccine'

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The dean of the University of Louisville medical school is carrying a substantial dose of bee venom in his veins. It's for protection, because Dr. J. Murray Kinsman is seriously allergic to stings.

Dr. Kinsman was stung six times by wasps three years ago. About a year ago Dr. Kinsman began taking a recently developed vaccine, designed to protect against stings of wasps, bees and hornets.

Kinsman said the vaccine manufacturer reported 29 cases of allergic persons being stung after administration of the vaccine. Only one showed a mild reaction to the sting.

But Kinsman isn't looking for a wasp to test his immunity.

Same-Name Tots Baptized Together

CHILOQUIN, Ore. (AP) — Two baby girls named Robin Michele were baptized the same day in Chiloquin Methodist Church. It was the first time Robin Michele had appeared as a name on the church register. Moreover, the mothers of the children are named Virginia. Each baby has a grandmother named Opal. And the fathers attended the same high school, both attended Oregon Tech and both served in the Army.

The parents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doak of Modoc and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wright Jr. of Chiloquin.

Driver Kills Self After Hitting Boy

SHINNSTON, W. Va. (AP) — Darnell Rutter, 29, took his own life less than 30 minutes after his automobile struck a 12-year-old boy.

Dr. Kenna Jackson, Harrison County coroner, said Rutter rushed from the doctor's office where James Zecco Jr. was taken, drove to his own residence and shot himself with a shotgun.

Ronnie Crayton, 16, a friend of young Zecco, said the boy was examined and released by the doctor to return home.

Peacock Scream Like a Woman's

DALLAS (AP) — Detective T. T. Lord, a farm-reared sleuth, rushed to the outskirts of the city when a caller reported a "woman screaming for help."

Lord and his partner, Iran Trantham, heard a scream when they reached the area. But Lord didn't get excited.

"Peacocks," he said.

They found four of the noisy birds behind a nearby house.
