LEGAL PUZZLER: Can a Man
Take Lawn Along as He Moves

EASTBOURNE. England & my lawn goes."

A legal weed-pulling match loomed today over the question of Council, replying through Town whether a man moving out of a city-owned house can take his lawn with him.

In one corner is Albert Barthol-moved from the city's Parkfield omew, a dedicated turf fancier, housing development to a private of the lawn over 100 pounds ($280) who in effect says, "When I go, house. So did his lawn.

WISHING WELL

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the result rangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

"I spent over 100 pounds ($280) on that garden," retorted Bartholomew. "It was in a shocking state when I moved there."

Both sides appeared to be firm-ly dug into their opposing posi-tions, along with the lawn, shrubs, roses and other plants, which are doing nicely in front of Bartholo-mew's new house.
