

British Testing Missile

Four booster rockets provide the power for takeoff of this British test missile. After attaining high speed the boosters fall away and the motor of the craft takes over to drive it farther into the sky. The missile is used to test equipment in that type of flight, information obtained being radioed back to its base automatically from the missile. (AP Wirephoto)

CC President Bids Labor Do Full Cleansing

Secondary Boycott End, Recognizing Right to Work Laws Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John S. Coleman of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce said today any "cleansing" undertaken by organized labor should go beyond "sweeping out racketeering and violence."

He said labor unions voluntarily should end the secondary boycott, which he called a "ruthless labor blackjack," and should recognize that right-to-work laws "have a moral basis."

"And a full house cleaning job," Coleman added, "should demand that labor quit trying to create an all-powerful monopoly in a country that will not long tolerate monopoly of any kind."

Coleman, of Detroit, bore down heavily on labor matters in a prepared speech keynoting the 45th annual meeting of the Chamber, an organization of businessmen.

He related his discussion to recent disclosures by the Senate committee investigating alleged racketeering in labor and management. That committee has received testimony that some high officials of the giant Teamsters Union misused union funds and allied themselves with underworld elements. It also has heard accounts of labor union violence in some areas.

The AFL-CIO has started action that could lead to ouster of the Teamsters Union from the labor federation.

Coleman, president of the Burroughs Corp., said he does not believe "we wish to see the labor movement suffer from the doings of a few leaders in whom the rank and file had mistakenly placed their trust."

"Labor and management should be friends," he said. "Together, we could advance the well-being of the country. It is foolishness to work at cross purposes."

Coleman said business has sought legislation that would treat it and labor "with unwerving impartiality." In this connection, the antitrust laws for decades asked "Why shouldn't labor?"

Reds Lob Shells At Matsu Island

TAIPEI (AP) — Chinese Communist guns on the mainland fired six shells yesterday at Matsu, chief island of the offshore Matsu group, the Nationalist Defense Ministry reported.

It said the shelling, first in which Matsu island itself was attacked since 1955, caused neither damage nor casualties. The ministry indicated the Nationalists did not reply.
