

Grand Council Fire Is Set

Grand Council Fire meeting for local Camp Fire Girls is announced for May 4, the event to be at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in South Salem High School gymnasium. More than 130 girls will receive recognition for achievements at this program.

Recognition is to be given for completing the first rank of the Camp Fire program. For the first time in the Willamette Council seven girls are to receive the Honorary Club Journeyman rank.

Jayanne Harvey, who is a ninth grade student at Leslie Junior High School, has received two Torch Bearer Craftsman awards. She is one of two to receive this award in the Willamette Council.

The Grand Council Fire meeting is a time when the girls have an opportunity to see what girls from other groups have been doing with the Camp Fire program. Those who have done outstanding service as leaders are asked to take part in the ceremonies, also.

The Blue Birds, who are in the fourth grade, are to take part in the Fly-up ceremony.

Groups from Salem, Woodburn, Mt. Angel and Hubbard will be taking part.
