

Hungary Turns Razor-Like Wit Against Commie Rulers

MUNICH, Germany (UP)—The people of Hungary, bitter in defeat, still turn a caustic, razor-sharp wit on their Communist rulers.

Current jokes in Budapest, whispered in sidewalk cafes and private rooms, filter through the Iron Curtain to show the free world that the weapon of wit has not been blunted by Soviet armor.

The size of the cabinet of Premier Janos Kadar, who called in Russian troops to crush the Hungarian uprising, amuses inhabitants of Budapest.

"Why are there only six people in the Kadar government?" one asks another.

The sotto voice reply is "Because there's only room for six men in a tank."

And the Communist claim that "Fascists and counter-revolutionaries" staged the uprising brings this comment:

"Except for nine million counter-revolutionary landlords, factory owners, bankers, counts and cardinals, the Hungarian people and peasants remained loyal to the people's democratic regime...and all six of them formed the Kadar government."

Radio Free Europe here, which collects the current stories from behind the Iron Curtain has other examples:

"Why is Kadar called the Hungarian premier?"

"Because Khrushchev is too difficult to pronounce."

Red Army boss Georgin Zhukov, Soviet defense minister, came in for comment in spurious "Advertisement of the Zhukov company offering: 'Hot and cold running war in every room. 'Ventilation of your home free of charge.

"Free guided tours to the Soviet Union."

Even the gift of laughing at themselves is not lost. One Hungarian asks another: "What nationality were Adam and Eve?"

The other replies "Hungarians—they lived in a paradise without clothes."

Some stories turn up time and again with minor variations through the satellites. One of the latest versions of the leading Communist who died and was sent to hell comes from Romania.

He was surprised to find the demon in charge offered him the choice of two gates to hell, one marked "Capitalists," the other, "Communists."

"Which one for you?" the demon asks.

"The Communist hell of course," the Communist replies.

"There's bound to be a fuel shortage here," chuckles quietly over this exchange.

"My photograph appeared in the paper this morning."

"Why what had you done?"

"I was smiling."

Butler Claims Dave Beck Was Coddled by Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler says Dave Beck, president of the Teamsters Union, was long "coddled" by the Eisenhower administration.

Describing Beck as a "friend and confidant" of President Eisenhower, Butler said Sunday that Beck was the only union leader to have ready "entrance to the White House" during Eisenhower's tenure.

This was Butler's reply when he was asked during a television interview (ABC College News Conference) to comment on Eisenhower's call last week for legislation to safeguard union funds.

He said it was "high time" for Eisenhower to act in the wake of the Senate racketeering committee's allegations that Beck mishandled some $300,000 in Teamsters union money.

Butler said, in response to a question that he was not suggesting there had been any collusion between the White House and Beck, who supported Eisenhower for re-election last year.

18 BURN TO DEATH
CAIRO, (AP)—Eighteen persons burned to death in a fire which destroyed 325 mud and straw houses of Al Ahraz, a village eight miles north of here, Egyptian press reports said yesterday. About 1,000 persons were made homeless.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 4, add 1. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of the numbers, till you find the result in your key number.
