

Haney, Lopez Credit Hurlers For Hot Starts

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press Sports Writer

Manager Fred Haney of the Milwaukee Braves and skipper Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox both credited good pitching today for their fast getaways in the major league pennant race.

"I don't say we have the greatest but I think we have the deepest pitching staff in the (National) league," Haney conceded as the front-running Braves prepared to open their first eastern trip against the New York Giants tonight.

And as the first-place White Sox stand ready for their initial home stand against their eastern rivals in the American League, Lopez admitted he was "more than satisfied with our pitching."

Four Big Braves

In winning nine of their first 10 games, the Braves have relied almost exclusively on their "big four" pitching staff of Bob Buhl, Warren Spahn, Ray Crone and Lew Burdette. Haney tabbed this planned rotation as "Operation First Two Weeks."

"I told my pitchers that because of rainouts and open dates early in the season, it would be better if we got four men in top shape and concentrated on them, rather than have 10 men ready to go without enough work for all of them," the Milwaukee manager revealed.

Lopez, discussing his pitching staff before today's game against the Baltimore Orioles, said he was pleased with starters Billy Pierce, Jack Harshman and Jimmy Wilson, who have accounted for six of the White Sox first seven victories. He also put in a plug for relievers Dixie Howell and Paul LaPalme.

Avoiding Overconfidence

Admitting that "everybody likes to get off to a good start," Lopez still didn't allow Chicago's fast getaway to ruin his professional perspective of the A.L. race, pointing out "we've got too long to go to judge any teams in this league."

However, Casey Stengel, whose Yankees open their western swing against the Detroit Tigers, bluntly confessed, "the White Sox are going to give us the most trouble."

In American League night games, Boston is at Kansas City and Washington at Cleveland. Three other National League night games will find Chicago at Brooklyn, Cincinnati at Philadelphia, and St. Louis at Pittsburgh.

Attendance Up In Majors for Tilts So Far

Yankees, Braves Pace Two Leagues in Drawing Fans

NEW YORK (AP)—Major league baseball attendance is up 7 per cent, an Associated Press survey revealed today.

The National League shows a gain of 64,682 over 1956 and the American 20,868 for an over-all increase of 85,550.

The world champion New York Yankees head both circuits. They attracted 129,736 customers for their five home dates, 39,197 ahead of last year.

Braves Top

The Milwaukee Braves top the National League with 177,094, a hike of 19,191 over 1956. However, Milwaukee is moving behind its 1954 figure when it set the league mark and pulled 151,607 paid through the gates after six games.

Only five teams show deficits: Detroit Tigers (21,609), St. Louis Cardinals (19,035), Kansas City A's (10,373), New York Giants (8,803) and Chicago White Sox (2,916).

Other sizable increases are being recorded by the Pittsburgh Pirates (25,637), Cincinnati Reds (22,291) and Philadelphia Phillies (12,160).

Burns Up, Too

The Brooklyn Dodgers, who have been making threatening gestures in the direction of Los Angeles, are up 1,636. They have drawn 75,547 customers to Ebbets Field compared with 73,921 in five home dates a year ago.

Washington, which also considered moving its franchise last winter, is another team with attendance on the upswing. The Senators have played before 75,292 home fans and they had 69,790 in 1956.

The largest gate this year was 41,506 in the Braves' first home game April 18.

300 Perfect Pin Game Is Elusive

Sugar Hopes for KO In Bout With Fuller

By JACK HAND
CHICAGO (AP)—"Why go 15 rounds if you only have to go one?"

Sugar Ray Robinson authored this pearl of wisdom, Monday in a press interview following his final three-round boxing drill for Wednesday night's title rematch with middleweight champion Gene Fullmer.

"Although the man who has held the 160-pound crown three different times, didn't come right out and predict a knockout, it was evident that he was thinking in that direction. All he hopes for the record is 'My boys are high, very high.'"

Writers Unimpressed

Boxing writers who watched the 36-year-old New Yorker go through the motions, weren't overly impressed. They still remembered his failure to cope with the sturdy bully boy from West Jordan, Utah, in their Jan. 2 match at Madison Square Garden.

Reports persisted that Robinson plans to retire from the ring if he Robinson finished the title.

As Fullmer regained his pre-fight work, the odds reportedly dipped from 3 to 1 favoring Fullmer to about 2 to 1.

Fullmer, who ended his training with a rugged five-round drill Saturday, was hidden away at a country club, waiting for time to go into town for Wednesday's noon weigh-in.

"In 15 rounds I got a pretty good idea of what he has to offer," said Fullmer. "But then you never know what the other fellow will do in the ring. I've licked him once, and with faith in the Lord, I'll lick him again."

The bout will be televised and broadcast nationally. Chicago and a 150-mile surrounding area will be blacked out on TV.

With $100,000 for TV rights and the money from the gate, Fullmer and Robinson each should get about $85,000 as they are signed to contracts calling for 30 per cent each.

To Call Fools

The Illinois Athletic Commission will instruct the referee who will work the 15-round match to call fouls for any signs of rabbit punching or holding in a clinch. As the bout will be scored on the "five-point must" system, a foul could cost a man points. The winner of each round gets five points and the loser four, three and so on. Even rounds are scored 5-5.

"Our referees have been instructed that a rabbit punch (on the back of the neck) is a foul and that maintaining a clinch or hanging on to an arm is a foul," said Frank Gilmer, former referee who is commission chairman.

"Speaking strictly from watching the last Fullmer-Robinson fight on television," he said, "I would say that if that same fight had been held here instead of New York our referee would have punched Fullmer against rabbit punching and Robinson against holding."

Five Records Set in Aurora Racing Event

Five new records were set Sunday on the Aurora Airstrip quarter-mile track, including a new high of 148.81 miles-per-hour by Eyes and Graves in the Class A dragster.

Isn't Wilt Enough? KU Seeks Another

CONROE, Tex. (AP)—Two Wilt the Stills on one team?

Could be, since Kansas, where Wilt Chamberlain is the star of the basketball team, is after a 17-year-old Negro boy named Warrnell Jones. This boy may be taller than Wilt before he stops growing.

Jones, a senior at the all-Negro Booker T. Washington High School in Conroe, stands 6 feet 11 with ease and is being sought by no less than 14 colleges and universities. The reason is obvious: He scored 628 points in 29 games for an average of 31.4 last season.

He's been doing that all through high school, however, and the interest in him was not recently born. Some of his games as a high school sophomore attracted college scouts.

"I think he has tremendous possibilities," says his coach, James Barnhill.

Hydroplanes Set for Lake Chelan Races

CHELAN, Wash. (AP)—The roaring hydroplanes take over a good share of Lake Chelan this week as qualifying runs for Sunday's Apple Cup race commence.

In their qualifying runs, the big hydros must average 95 miles an hour for three laps around the three-mile course in order to gain a spot in the race.

The Apple Cup race itself will feature 150 miles of racing. There will be four preliminary heats and the final heat, scheduled for 5 p.m.

At least nine, and possibly 10, of the big boats are scheduled to make qualifying runs this week, including Shanty 1, Maverick, Miss Seattle, Hawaii Kai, Miss Bardahl, Miss Thriftway, Thriftway Too, Miss Wahoo and Miss Rocket.

NBA Threat Of Suspension Faces Moore

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—The president of the National Boxing Assn. says light heavyweight champion Archie Moore may face an immediate suspension unless there is definite word by Wednesday on his proposed life defense in Detroit June 7 against Tony Anthony.

Floyd Stevens, NBA president, said he planned to confer in Chicago Wednesday with James D. Norris and Truman Gibson of the International Boxing Club about Moore's next defense.

"If I can't get a definite answer then," Stevens said, "we'll stop the title. We've been patient with Archie and now we're fed up."

Moore reportedly is demanding $100,000 to meet the winner of the Anthony-Chuck Spieser "elimination" bout. It was announced at that time that Archie definitely would defend against the winner in a nationally televised bout from Detroit's Olympia Stadium on June 7.
