Food Reserve Need Stressed

AMITY (Special) — "Preparedness in Event of Atomic Attack," was the topic of a talk presented by Dr. H. C. Menkel, M.D., Yamhill County Civil Defense director recently at the Amity Church of Christ.

Mayor Charles H. Law introduced Dr. Menkel to the capacity gathering in the sanctuary of the Church. Dr. Menkel stressed the need for maintaining a sufficient reserve of canned foods and water to sustain each family for a week in a national emergency. Teamwork of the churches, lodges and schools, which would serve in a body to receive refugees from evacuated areas also was specified during the talk.

Dr. Menkel, who resides in semi-retirement at McMinnville, has served as a medical missionary in India for 35 years and at one time was the personal physician of Mahatma Gandhi.

Friends Remodel Rue Home in Day

SILVERTON (Special) — A house-remodeling reunion of relatives and friends, many from Silvertown, drew a crowd of around 40 persons recently, to the recently purchased 64-acre ranch and house now owned by Walter Rue and his family, two miles from Mill City on the Lyons road.

Several business firms sent workers to modernize the home until at the close of the day, the rather large place was ready for occupancy.

New OCE Yell Leaders

MONMOUTH—Jim McAllister and Phyllis Golbeck practice gestures for next year's yell leadership. McAllister was chosen yell king this week and Phyllis, yell queen. Both are freshmen.

School Budget Held at Low By Silverton

Estimated $275,432 Keeps Tax Under 6 Per Cent

SILVERTON (Special) — The concluding session of the two-meeting series of budget discussions of the District 7-J school board of Silverton Union High School, was held this week, with practically no additional financial changes made.

The budget conclusion is being kept within the 6 per cent limitation for the coming school year, Milt Baum, school superintendent, announced due to the calculations of the budget committee which met with the district board. The budget will be up for public hearing May 13.

This year will mark the bond program peak with a total of $41,950, plus a budget estimated at $275,432.

The budget committee personnel, made up of a district representative chosen by each board member of District 7-J, includes Fred Schwab, Mt. Angel, board chairman; Joe Wachter, Mt. Angel; Robert Humphrey, vice-chairman, and his representative, Victor Hadley of the Hills district; Felix Wright and Earl Adams, Silverton; Edgar Tweed of Monitor and Henry Hommann; John Seims of Central Howell and L. Meisenheimer.

Rev. and Mrs. Greenawalt have purchased a house trailer and will reside in it, parked adjacent to the Amity Baptist Church, where the Rev. Greenawalt is pastor.

Dayton High Creates Oriental Garden Setting at Prom Dance

DAYTON (Special)—The Grade school cafeteria, through the miracle of a magic wand, was turned into an Oriental garden this year for the high school annual junior-senior prom and banquet.

There were arrangements of red tulips and white lilacs and the oriental theme was carried out with place cards, program and dance programs. Members of the junior and senior classes, faculty members, their wives and husbands, enjoyed the evening. Food was prepared by mothers of the junior class and served by 10 sophomore girls.

Woodburn Sets Reunion Date

WOODBURN (Special) — Reunion day for Woodburn High School graduates to be held May 10, according to Mrs. L. S. Mochel, one time principal, who with Jim Myers of Portland, is in charge of arrangements. Letters have been received indicating a number of former graduates will attend and several from out-of-state.

It is a possibility that all three surviving members of the first graduating class of 1908, Miss Mabel Livesay of Woodburn, James McKinney in California and James Hendricks, also in California, will attend. The fourth member of the class was the late Charles Z. Randall.

While the event commemorates the 50th anniversary of the first graduation from an accredited Woodburn High School, alumni of all years are invited. Open house will be held at the school beginning at 1 p.m. An assembly, a ball game with Gervais Union High School and a dance are on the program.
