Name Sought For New Park

MOLALLA (Special)—A contest, to last only two weeks, is starting in Molalla, sponsored by Molalla Recreation Council, to choose a name for the proposed park-recreation district. The three top winners will receive free passes to the swim pool, when completed. First place winner will receive a year's free pass; second place, six months; third place, a three month's pass. In case of a tie, the one bearing the earliest post mark will win, announces George Guild, publicity director of the Council. This contest is open to all ages, children and adults alike. Simply fill out a postcard "I propose the name —." As an example "I propose the name Molalla-Cascade Park Recreation District" is given. Mail entries to Molalla post office box 508, Molalla. This contest, stated Guild, ends May 15, 1957.

Woodburn Tells Play Class Plans

WOODBURN (Special)—A play school for children 3 1/2 to 4 years of age is being planned from May 8 through May 22 at Woodburn High School. Hours will be from 9 to 11:45 a.m. The school is limited to about 16 children and parents interested are asked to call Mrs. Carl Magouson at the high school. Members of the high school economics class will supervise activities to facilitate study of child development. Parents will be required to provide transportation.
