Ice Cream Social Planned by Group

An old-fashioned ice cream social is being sponsored by the senior high school group of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church, Friday evening, May 3, at the church. Cake or pie with ice cream will be featured starting at 7 o'clock, with women of the church lending assistance to the young people.

A unique plan of the high school students will be launched during the evening with an auction of the services of the students for Saturday work. The group will be raising funds to fulfill the quota for the national youth budget for the purchase of sanctuary equipment for missionary churches. Since the Westminster church was established as a missionary church, there is special interest among the members in aiding similar churches elsewhere.

Mr. Hyde Guest At Chapter Meet

Ainsworth Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, met for a semi-monthly session Wednesday evening at the Scottish Rite Temple. During the program, Clarence F. Hyde, member of Blue River Chapter, Eugene, and state real estate commissioner, showed colored slides taken during a recent trip to the Holy Land.

Visiting the chapter for the first time were Mrs. Laura Pederson and Mrs. Beverly Case of Mt. Hood Chapter, Portland, Mrs. Clarence F. Hyde, Mrs. Lucy Johnson of the Augusta, Kansas, chapter; and Mrs. Ethel Clemmens, of Idelwild Chapter, Santa Cruz, Calif.

Ainsworth chapter will be one of the co-host groups for the meeting of the Willamette Valley Matrons and Patrons Association at Independence on May 9. Dates for the grand session in Portland were announced for June 4 to 6.

The social hour committee included Mrs. Daisy Chance, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. David Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koken, Mrs. James R. Calvert, Mrs. Ed B. Gabriel, Mrs. L. W. Pruett and Mrs. W. Clark Bachman.

Degrees of the order will be conferred at the next meeting on May 15.
