

Rauscher-Dougherty Rites Saturday at St. Joseph's

Wed at a service in St. Joseph's Catholic Church last Saturday morning, April 27, were Miss Rosemary M. Dougherty and Ramon L. Rauscher. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edward Dougherty of Salem and Mrs. Rauscher is the son of Mrs. Clara Rauscher of Sublimity.

Pink snapdragons and white chrysanthemums decorated the church for the 10:30 o'clock service at which the Rev. Vincent Curfitt officiated. Servers at the mass were Michael J. Schruink, nephew of the bride, and Douglas Hightberger. For the music, Lorraine Nelke and Joseph Dougherty, brother of the bride, sang; Maty Barton playing the organ.

The bride wore a pretty wedding dress of white brocade. It was fashioned with fitted, pointed bodice, a modified Sabrina neckline, short sleeves and full skirt with chapel train. The fingertip veil was arranged from a jeweled headpiece. The bridal bouquet was of white blooms. Mr. Dougherty escorted his daughter to the altar.

Mrs. Wesley E. Schruink was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a nylon organdy frock made with scoop neckline, light-fitted bodice, and a pink chiffon cummerbund falling in floating back panels over the full skirt.

Mrs. Walter VanHaldel, Miss Dolores Schultz and Miss Betty Guenther were bridesmaids. All wore dresses matching the one worn by the honor attendant. All the attendants carried baskets of white spider chrysanthemums and pink lilies.

Junior attendants were Miss Joene Dougherty and Miss Melodie

Seedlings Planted By Blue Bird Girls

MILL CITY (Special) — About 50 Blue Birds and Camp Fire girls, their leaders, sponsors and parents, planted 4,000 seedling trees in Green Basin Saturday. The area was the scene of a disastrous fire in 1951 and has been part of the reforestation project since 1953.

Directing Saturday's work was Joe Smith, assistant state forester in charge of reforestation, and Phil Brogan, also with the state forestry department. Herbert Smith, of Mill City, who has helped with other reforestation projects, also assisted with the work.

Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, program chairman for the Mill City Woman's Club, sponsors of the Camp Fire girls, helped arrange for the project. The group left Mill City about 10 a.m. and returned about 3 p.m. with a picnic dinner served at noon.

Reception Given For Miss LeFors

DALLAS (Special) — Miss Merlia LeFors, grand representative to the state of Louisiana, of the grand assembly of Oregon, Rainbow for Girls, was honored with a reception by Naomi Assembly Sunday at the Masonic hall.

Southern Belle was the theme of the reception. A large canteen of southern belles and the name Merlia in pink on a blue background, along with apple blossoms and story book dolls dressed as southern belles, formed the decorations for the assembly room.

Miss Nancy Kleeman, worthy adviser of Naomi Assembly, introduced Wayne Henry of the Rainbow advisory board of Oregon; Miss Dolores Cruickshank, worthy adviser of Dayton Assembly; Mrs. Dayton Assembly; Mrs. F. S. Klaus, worthy matron of Naomi Chapter, Order of Eastern Star; and Mrs. Eloise Staats, first mother adviser of Naomi Assembly.

Naomi Chapter choir, made up of Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. Rex Rogers, Mrs. Art Woods, Mrs. Hollis Smith and Mrs. Claude Beebe, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lee Miller, presented several songs. Mike Kelley entertained the group with two piano numbers and during an addendum by Rainbow girls, Miss Marilyn Goertzen sang.

A picture, along with a gift, were presented to Miss LeFors on behalf of Naomi Assembly.

Miss LeFors introduced members of her family Mr. and Mrs. R. G. LeFors; her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Leland LeFors of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. John LeFors, Vancouver, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Almos LeFors and children and Mrs. Elmo Bennett of Dallas; and Mrs. Christine Bennett, her grandmother.

A humorous reading by Mary Ellen McCleary was presented.

The tea table was decorated with story book dolls under an archway of flowers. Pouring were Mrs. Staats and Mrs. Forrest Martin.
